OWNERSHIP/ADMINISTRATION

JEFFREY LURIE

Owner

On May 6, 1994, NFL owners voted to approve the sale of the Philadelphia Eagles from Norman Braman to Jeffrey Lurie. This approval came exactly one month after Lurie had reached an agreement to purchase the club for the highest sum ever paid for a professional sports franchise. "It has been a life-long dream to own a professional football team," Lurie said following the owners' approval. "To now own one in one of the greatest sports cities in America - Philadelphia - is the culmination of that dream."

Shortly after taking over the reins of the Eagles, the 42-year-old Lurie described his philosophy of ownership as "a partnership - a partnership between the city, the fans, and the team. I understand that NFL football is a form of entertainment," he said, "but I am also aware that nothing is more entertaining than winning."

The Birds' new owner is certainly familiar with entertainment, having served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985. Chestnut Hill has produced several movies, including the recent HBO hit, "Blindside," and the widely acclaimed "State of Emergency." Among the other films produced by the company are "Sweet Hearts Dance" (1988) starring Susan Sarandon and Don Johnson, "I Love You to Death" (1990) with Kevin Kline, Tracey Ullman, and William Hurt, and "V.I. Warshawski" (1991) featuring Kathleen Turner.

In addition to his film work, Lurie's other business interests include, among others, international publishing, specialty retailing, and movie exhibition through his investment in Harcourt General and its majority ownership of the Neiman Marcus Group.

Prior to entering business, Lurie was an educator, serving as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University, and before that as a teacher at Westford (MA) Academy where he founded that school's alternative education program. As a student, he earned a B.A. from Clark University, a master's in psychology from Boston University, and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. In his doctoral thesis, Lurie examined the depiction of women in contemporary film.

Lurie's interest in social issues remains ongoing. He is co-authoring "The Dreaming of America," which explores the parallels in the political and economic history of the entertainment industry with that of the United States at large. He is also co-writing a book about the information superhighway.

Lurie currently serves as a director of the Autism Research Foundation in Boston and has served as a trustee of Clark University.

Born September 8, 1951, in Boston, MA, Lurie grew up in nearby West Newton. He now resides in Philadelphia with his wife Christina and their infant daughter.

Q & A WITH JEFF LURIE

The following questions and answers are excerpts from Jeff Lurie's interviews with members of the Philadelphia media on April 8 and May 17, 1994.

Q: What are your goals as owner of the Eagles?

A: The only thing I'm interested in is winning Super Bowls. Like any business, I feel that you have to try to have the best possible team you can. You only go through life once and winning is the bottom line when it comes to football.

Q: How would you describe your personal business style?

A: My style in life and in business is to be open, to be hopefully unpretentious, and to get the job done. And in this case, the job is to win.

Q: Are there any misconceptions about yourself that you would like to clear up?

A: I think people like to label others in certain directions. I didn't come out with any gold chains. I may be a movie producer but I think I'm as far from Hollywood as you can get.

Q: What about owning a football team is attractive to you?

A: For as long as I can remember, I have always wanted to own a football team. I love sports and the opportunity to compete. Sports gives you that gratification where you can enter into something that is very black and white. There's a winner and a loser, and I want that challenge of building and becoming a winner.

Q: What kind of image would you like the Eagles to have?

A: The kind of image I'd like the team to have - and it applies to everyone in the organization - is one of intelligence, aggressiveness, and smarts. Just an overall organization that thinks on its feet, is agile, makes big plays on the field and takes an aggressive view of all aspects of the sport of football. I would like us to be as aggressive in the front office as we expect the players to be on the field.

Q: What message do you want to give Eagles fans?

A: The message is that this ownership will do absolutely everything to build championship football teams. We will not take the easy route. We will not take the route that keeps us out of the press. We will make controversial decisions, aggressive decisions, hopefully informed decisions. I think that is the way to build champions in any sport or any business.

Q: What do you think will be the signature mark of the franchise?

A: I think the signature mark is really, I hope, winning championships. It really boils down to that. The small changes, the cosmetic changes ... we'll do certain things but, in the end, I'm really only concerned about winning championships.

Q: What do you know about the Philadelphia fans?

A: I think the fans are the backbone of the Eagles franchise. This has proven to be the most valuable franchise in professional sports based on this [recent] deal and the fans have a lot to do with that. They are some of the best fans in the nation and they certainly deserve every effort on our part to bring championships to this city.

Q: How would you describe your approach to handling football decisions?

A: I'm a football fanatic, but enough of a football fanatic to know that I want to surround myself with the best possible people at all times just like I would in any business. So you won't see me making any hands-on decisions that are out of my league.

Q: How will you operate the team differently than the previous owner, Norman Braman?

A: I really was not a student of how Mr. Braman operated the team. I can only describe to you how I plan to operate it and that is I expect aggressive front office management, aggressive players, a close relationship with the fans and with the city, and a commitment to show leadership in terms of community involvement. I think sports teams ... one of the reasons I wanted to acquire a major sports franchise is because you have an opportunity to impact social change and social good and really provide leadership in the city. And any city in urban America sure could use that.

Q: What kind of player-owner relationship do you think works best?

A: A relationship that fosters their ability to give everything they can knowing their owner is backing them 100% at all times. There's nothing I want more than to bring championships to the city of Philadelphia and I want the players to know that.

Q: Is a family atmosphere between the players and front office something you'd like to develop?

A: Very much so. I see it as ... from the owner on down, I think the attitude has to be there. I plan to spend as much time as possible not only with the front office but with the players. I love football ... and I see it as a small company and it should be a small company of like-minded passionate people. And I look forward to creating as much of a family atmosphere as possible.

Q: What is your feeling regarding former players and their involvement in the organization?

A: The Eagles should be one of the proudest franchises in the history of the NFL. I certainly look forward to meeting and interacting with members of the alumni. I will also try to encourage current players as they get older and become ex-Eagles to continue to be a part of the family. As you know, I grew up in Boston and a real part of the Celtics' success was the continuity, the loyalty exhibited by Red Auerbach to his players and the loyalty that was returned by the players to Red, and the continuance by many players there in the organization whether it was through scouting, public relations, or whatever. I look at [the Celtics] as a model franchise in that regard and want to bring some of that to the Eagles.

Q: How do you plan to address the matter of signing your own veteran free agents?

A: If we're faced with some terrific players who have an opportunity to enter free agency, I hope we will, by that time, have built a relationship with the players and built a bond between the players and the city so that the motivation from those players would not be to look elsewhere. All players, assuming they have free agency, might want to look elsewhere, but you've got to try to create that type of team bond that can really provide you with some continuity in the long run, I think that's an opportunity under the new collective bargaining agreement.

Q: Why is the Eagles franchise worth $185 million?

A: It's a complicated question. It has to do with the value of a particular form of entertainment called NFL football. NFL Football is a very, very highly rated form of television entertainment. Television entertainment and other forms of so-called software have skyrocketed in value because there are so many ways of distributing those forms of entertainment. There are unique forms of entertainment that are consistently extremely popular - movies being one, and pro sports, particularly NFL football, being another. When you combine that popularity with the size of the market that is Philadelphia - one of the two largest markets in America with only one team - you then arrive at an equation that allows for a purchase price to be very fair at $185 million.

Q: Could the team have been purchased if the salary cap were not in place?

A: First of all, we would have been able to make a deal if the salary cap were not in place because there were other ways of structuring the acquisition to allow for that. I think the salary cap is a very important aspect of the Collective Bargaining Agreement as is free agency. I think a compromise was reached to allow freedom for players and freedom for teams to organize their economics in a way that can then allow an agreement to take place. There is some push and pull involved in the agreement and it's healthy .... [Good cap management] rewards teams that are the most intelligent. You have the same amount of money to use and whoever can use it in the most intelligent fashion has the best chance of winning.

Q: With the large debt service taken on with the purchase of the club, how will it be possible to improve the football operations and facilities, and to sign players?

A: We structured the acquisition - knowing what the debt service would be - to absolutely allow for us to do anything possible to create the kind of front office strategy, coaching strategy, player strategy, and real estate strategy that we need. There should be no obstacle whatsoever to the creation of a championship football team. And I wouldn't have gone ahead with the acquisition [of the Eagles] if that weren't the case.

Q: How far ranging was your opinion gathering process with people like former Cowboys coach Jimmy Johnson? How many people did you talk to and what did they tell you about the organization you were purchasing?

A: I've spoken to several people and I'm going to speak with many more throughout the league and throughout other sports. I think the one thing that is common to the opinions of those people - who I'll call championship makers - is to be extremely focused, to have a philosophy and stick with it, and to demand excellence. And we as an ownership will be demanding excellence. The fans of this city deserve that and, I think as owners we deserve that as well.

HARRY T. GAMBLE

President-Chief Operating Officer

On the same day that former Eagles' owner Norman Braman became sole owner of the club in July, 1986, he elevated Harry Gamble to president-chief operating officer of the club.

Since that time, Gamble has proven to be an extremely capable NFL executive, playing a key role in elevating the Eagles to one of the top organizations in the NFL, both on and off the field. In so doing, Gamble has fully earned the respect of his peers both for his business acumen and patience.

It is because of that respect and those qualities that Gamble was appointed to the league's prestigious Competition Committee on January 8, 1992, by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue.

During his tenure as President-Chief Operating Officer, the Eagles have returned to their winning ways. Over Gamble's eight seasons in that role, the Birds posted a 72-53-1 regular season record, including five straight winning campaigns from 1988-1992, each of which culminated in 10-or-more wins - a feat matched only by the San Francisco 49ers during the same span - and a berth in the playoffs in four of the last six years. That string of successful seasons was highlighted by an NFC East division crown in 1988.

Gamble began his rise through the Eagles' organization in 1981 when he served as a volunteer assistant coach under Dick Vermeil. In 1982, he became a full-time staff member when he coached the special teams and tight ends and was an administrative assistant to Vermeil. Gamble then concentrated his efforts in administration in 1983 as an assistant for both the coaching and personnel staffs before being named director of football operations in 1984.

In February, 1985, shortly before Braman reached an agreement with Leonard Tose to purchase the Eagles, Gamble was named general manager. On April 29 of that year, the day Braman officially became the club's majority owner, he expanded Gamble's title to vice president-general manager in charge of all daily operations with the club, a title he would hold for 14 months before again being promoted.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Gamble was a head football coach at Lafayette (1967-1970) and the University of Pennsylvania (1971-1980). In 1972, he was chosen by his peers as the NCAA District One coach of the year and by the New York Sportswriters Association as the University Division Eastern coach of the year. During several months in 1979, he also served as Penn's acting director of recreation and collegiate athletics.

Born and raised in Pitman, NJ, Gamble, 63 (12/26/30), has master's and doctorate degrees in business education from Temple University. He received his undergraduate degree in 1952 from Rider College, where he was an offensive lineman, and then became a player-coach with the 2nd Army Headquarters team at

ADMINISTRATION

Fort Meade (MD) in 1953. After coaching and teaching in the New Jersey high school ranks from 1954-1961 (at Clayton and Audubon high schools), Gamble became an assistant coach at Penn from 1962-66.

Throughout his career in football, the likeable Gamble has received much recognition. In 1985, he was inducted into the Gloucester County (NJ) Sports Hall of Fame and the South Jersey Coaches Hall of Fame. He also received the Bert Bell Award from the Bakers Club of Philadelphia. In 1987, Gamble received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Rider College. Four years later, he was honored as the Distinguished Citizen of 1990 by the South Jersey Council of the Boy Scouts and received the First-and-Goal Award from the Philadelphia High School Football All-Star Game for his commitment to the community and to the game itself. He was then honored as the 1992 Professional Sports Executive of the Year by the New Jersey Sports Writers Association. In 1994 Gamble was named Man of the Year by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia's Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) and also was honored by the American Red Cross' Camden County Chapter with their Good Neighbor Award.

Gamble is a member of numerous professional and civic groups. In his role with the NFL's Competition Committee, Gamble helps make recommendations on rule changes and other matters that enable the league to maintain its competitive balance on the playing field. He is also a member of the board of directors of the Kennedy Memorial (NJ) Hospital Health Care Foundation, the Philadelphia Police Athletic League, and the Brooks-Irvine Memorial Football Club of South Jersey, as well as a member of the board of trustees at Rider College and Philadelphia's Methodist Hospital. In addition, Gamble is involved with community groups such as Special Olympics, South Jersey Council of Boy Scouts, and the Camden County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Gamble and his wife Joan reside in Haddonfield, NJ. They have two sons, Tom, 31, a pro scout for the Eagles, and Harry, 34. An avid hobbyist, Gamble is a licensed private pilot and an owner of thoroughbred race horses. He also enjoys gardening and riding his Honda motorcycle.

JEFFREY AUERBACH
Vice President-Business Development and Broadcasting

On June 30, 1994, Jeffrey Auerbach was named to the newly created position of Vice President-Business Development & Broadcasting for the Philadelphia Eagles.

The 34-year old Auerbach, a top executive in the entertainment industry as well as a two-time Emmy-winning producer/writer, brings to the Eagles a wealth of management level experience.

"I'm extremely pleased to add Jeff to the Eagles' front office team," said owner, Jeff Lurie on the day Auerbach was hired. "It was not easy to lure a multi-talented guy like him away from the entertainment industry, but he is exactly the type of person who can add a lot to this franchise. I foresee a large growth potential for the NFL in the area of multi-media entertainment, interactive television, and related software. Jeff's knowledge of the entertainment and broadcasting industries can put the Eagles at the forefront of these new growth opportunities. When I first bought this club I said that I wanted the Eagles to be as aggressive in the front office as we were on the field. With that in mind, it is a real coup of sorts to be able to add a dynamic, aggressive executive like Jeff to the front office."

With the Eagles, Auerbach's role will be to strengthen the franchise's ties with members of the corporate and local business community, to augment already existing revenue generating operations, and to develop new business opportunities, particularly in the areas of broadcasting, multi-media products, and game-day enhancement.

After starting his professional career in a studio mailroom 11 years ago, Auerbach most recently served as President & Chief Operating Officer of Blake Edwards Television from June of 1989 through January of 1993, and then as President & CEO of The Auerbach Company in Los Angeles. In those roles, the 34-year old Auerbach was responsible for the development, production, sales, distribution, and marketing of motion pictures, made-for-television movies, series and specials. Moreover, Auerbach has an extensive background in negotiating licensing fees, distribution agreements, and talent contracts.

During his career in the entertainment field, Auerbach also served as Executive Vice President of Symphony Pictures, a production company owned by renowned actor Martin Sheen. It was with this company that Auerbach earned his first Emmy Award in 1986 as writer/producer of "Babies Having Babies," the highly acclaimed drama on teenage pregnancy for CBS television. His second Emmy came three years later for his teleplay "No Means No," a CBS drama on teenage date rape, which he also directed. Altogether, these two productions garnered a total of 12 Emmy nominations and won 6 of the coveted awards. Among Auerbach's numerous other production credits is the highly acclaimed TNT movie, "Nightbreaker," a project he produced dealing with the above ground nuclear testings of the 1950s. That project was nominated for several Cable ACE awards and won Grand Prize at the Houston Film Festival.

A native of both New York City and Ft. Lauderdale, FL, Auerbach graduated from the University of Arizona where he was a center on the Wildcats' football team and a teammate of former Eagles' fullback Hubert Oliver.

JOE BANNER

Vice President

In his inaugural press conference as the Philadelphia Eagles owner on May 17th, shortly after taking possession of the club, Jeffrey Lurie announced the hiring of Joe Banner.

In his role as Vice President with the Birds, the 41-year old Banner (2/13/53) will work directly with the owner in a wide variety of club matters.

ADMINISTRATION

"Joe is a very intelligent and very dedicated guy who will provide this club with a great deal of vision," said Lurie. "He has an extremely diverse background and will be able to help us in so many areas. Joe has been a member of the media, he has worked extensively with high-profile, highly successful community-related organizations, and has a proven track record in business."

After graduating from Denison University in 1975, Banner became a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU-AM 1210 (now WGMP). After several years, he left the broadcasting industry and started his own business, Designers Clothing, Ltd. The company prospered and grew under Banner's guidance and in 1992 he sold the business.

In January, 1993, Banner began working with Lurie in the latter's quest to purchase the New England Patriots. When that transaction did not materialize, Lurie - again with the aid of Banner - successfully pursued the Eagles.

At the same time, Banner, who has a long history of community service, particularly through his devotion of time and effort to non-profit organizations, was extremely involved with groups such as Big Brothers, Children's Hospital of Boston and City Year, a youth based organization that functions like an urban Peace Corps. City Year, in fact, is the program on which President Clinton is basing his soon-to-be announced National Service Program.

Banner and his wife, Helaine, reside in Philadelphia with their daughter, Jill, 5.

MIMI BOX
Vice President-Chief Financial Officer

Mimi Box joined the Eagles' staff in 1983 as business manager and was promoted to vice president-chief financial officer in July, 1986.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Box, 43, worked for the Internal Revenue Service for 11 years. From 1972-79, she was a special agent in the criminal investigation division of the IRS. During the next three years, she served in two managerial roles in the Mid-Atlantic Regional office and the Wilmington District office.

Born in Philadelphia (12/21/50), Box attended the Academy of Notre Dame de Namur in Villanova before enrolling at Drexel University, where she earned a business administration degree in 1972 and played four years of varsity basketball.

Mimi and her husband, Bob, reside in West Chester, PA, with their children Lauren, 13, and Daniel, 10.

SUZI L. BRAMAN

Vice President

Suzi Braman officially joined the Eagles in 1989 as an assistant director of marketing and sales and was then elevated to her present position in April of 1991.

In that role, Suzi has overseen the marketing department, including the club's Emerald Eagle sponsorship program, which involves high-profile Philadelphia area corporations - such as Mellon Bank, AMC Theatres, Rosenbluth Travel, ATX Telecommunications, McDonald's, Dupli Fax, and Pep Boys/Castrol - "sponsoring" individual games. Suzi also is credited with helping organize the Eagles/United Way Kickoff Dinner, a successful annual event that celebrates the opening of the football season and the United Way campaign. Since its inception in 1989, the event has raised over $300,000. In addition, she has overseen the production of an Eagles player calendar benefitting the United Way as well as the team's 60th anniversary calendar in 1992.

After graduating from Miami Beach (FL) High, she moved to Philadelphia where she earned a B.S. degree from Drexel University in 1989. Suzi, 27, (7/3/67) now resides in Penn Valley, PA.

DECKER UHLHORN

Vice President-Sales and Development

Decker Uhlhorn spent 12 years as an administrator at the University of Pennsylvania before joining the Eagles in November, 1985, as the club's executive director of sales and marketing. One year later, he was promoted to the position of vice president-marketing and development, a role he held for seven years before being elevated to vice-president-sales and development in 1993. In that capacity, Uhlhorn, 46, oversees the Eagles' non-football revenue generating matters.

Born in Brooklyn, NY, (9/4/47), and raised in Valley Stream, NY, Uhlhorn went on to earn a degree in history at Penn, where he played basketball from 1966-69. He also earned a masters degree in education from Rutgers in 1973. From 1969-1973, Uhlhorn was a history teacher and basketball coach at Woodrow Wilson High in Camden, NJ. He then returned to Penn in September, 1973, and worked in the undergraduate admissions department until 1979. Over the next six years, Uhlhorn was the University's director of commonwealth relations (1979-1983) and the associate director of development (1983-85).

Active in both the civic and professional communities, Uhlhorn currently serves on the board of directors for the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education, Philadelphia Mental Health Care Corp., National Adoption Center, and Lighthouse Recovery Services, and is a former president of the Penn Club of Delaware.

ADMINISTRATION

Uhlhorn and his wife Madeleine reside in Wilmington, DE. They have three children, daughters Elizabeth, 14, Madeleine, 12, and son Bradford, 10.

JOHN WOOTEN
Vice President - Player Personnel

On February 8, 1994, John Wooten was elevated to his current position of Vice President - Player Personnel. In this role, Wooten, who originally joined the organization as a scout in 1992, oversees player personnel matters and, in particular, the college draft. Said team President Harry Gamble when Wooten was promoted, "There's no one I could think of who was more qualified for this job. John has been in the business for 29 years and he knows every aspect of it."

Before coming to the Eagles, Wooten, one of the highest-ranking minorities in the NFL, spent one year as the league's director of player programs, overseeing the league's services with regard to continuing education, financial planning, off-season internships, and family assistance.

Prior to working at the league office, Wooten spent 16 years with the Dallas Cowboys, beginning as a scout before eventually ascending to the rank of director of pro personnel. Wooten headed the Cowboys' player personnel department from 1989-91 and is widely credited with helping rebuild the Cowboys into a Super Bowl winner through key drafts and trades. In his tenure as personnel director, Dallas drafted such stars as quarterback Troy Aikman, center Mark Stepnoski, and fullback Daryl Johnston. Former head coach Jimmy Johnson, in particular, credited Wooten with also orchestrating trades that enabled the Pokes to draft defensive tackle Russell Maryland and star running back Emmitt Smith.

Wooten's stint with the Cowboys followed 10 years in the NFL as a player and another as a player agent. Drafted by Cleveland in the fifth round in 1959, Wooten started nine seasons at guard for the Browns under head coaches Paul Brown and Blanton Collier and one season with Washington. So great was his impact on the Browns, he was named to the organization's all-time team by Cleveland fans in 1979. During his playing days, Wooten was selected to two Pro Bowls and, in 1965, was named all-pro while helping Cleveland to a 27-0 thrashing of Baltimore in the NFL Championship Game.

As a prep star, Wooten lettered in football and, as a basketball center, led Carlsbad (NM) High to two state championships. He then went on to an All-America career at the University of Colorado and, in 1989, was named to that school's all-century team.

The 58-year old (12/5/36) Wooten and his wife Beverly reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have two daughters, Gina and Lynette, and one son, John David.

GEORGE AZAR

Assistant to the President

George Azar begins his 10th year as an assistant to the president. In this role, Azar assists Harry Gamble and acts as an administrative liaison with the NFL office. Azar, 53 (7/26/41), also is responsible for evaluating collegiate players throughout the East, a task he performed on a voluntary basis for two years prior to joining the Eagles. Azar also worked as a volunteer administrative assistant at the Birds' 1983 and 1984 training camps.

This marks the third time that Gamble and Azar have worked together. Azar spent six years (1965-1970) at Lafayette College as an assistant football coach, the last four with Gamble, who was head coach. During that time, he also served as the Leopards' head wrestling coach. Azar was then the offensive line coach under Gamble at the University of Pennsylvania from 1971-80. He then served as the head wrestling coach and an assistant football coach at Woodbury (NJ) High School before joining the Eagles in 1985.

Born and raised in Johnstown, PA, Azar was an all-state football player, state wrestling champ, and baseball letterman at Johnstown Central H.S. He went on to earn a physical education degree from Michigan State, where he was a standout guard and linebacker (1960-62) and a catcher in baseball (1961-63).

Azar and his wife Kay reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have 29-year old twins, son Todd (who was an All-America baseball player at Old Dominion and a former member of the Seattle Mariners' farm system), and daughter Robyn ... pronounced: A-zar.

ROBERT E. WALLACE, JR.

Assistant to the President and General Counsel

Robert E. Wallace joined the Eagles in April of 1991 to assume the duties of the chief contract negotiator and legal counsel. In that role, Wallace is responsible for rookie and veteran signings, servicing the club's legal needs, and monitoring the team's salary cap.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Wallace, 38 (3/1/56), served as Counsel to and chief contract negotiator for the NFL's Cardinals from 1982-1991 while working for the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall & Shoemaker. Said Eagles' president Harry Gamble at the time Wallace joined the Eagles, "I have known Bob for quite some time and recognize the fact that he has done a superb job of handling negotiations with both veterans and draft choices. Bob's experience as a lawyer also is a big plus; it's an added dimension that he brings to our organization."

The New York City native previously served on former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as a legal intern to the league counsel and also taught classes on sports law as a professor at the St. Louis University School of Law. A graduate of Yale University where he lettered in football and was the coordinator for Black Athletes at Yale, Wallace went on to earn his law degree at the Georgetown University Law Center. He is currently on the board of directors for the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education, the Sports Lawyers Association, the Philadelphia Division of the United Negro College Fund, and is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association. He also has served on the Executive Committee for the Young Lawyers section of the Metropolitan Bar Association of St. Louis, and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public Schools.

Wallace resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, with his wife Julie and sons Grant (2/2/93) and Eric (6/10/94).

RICH KOTITE

Head Coach

After joining the Eagles in 1990 as offensive coordinator, Rich Kotite became the 18th head coach in Eagles' history on January 8, 1991, when he replaced Buddy Ryan whose contract was not renewed by then-owner Norman Braman.

In the three years since, Kotite's Eagles have consistently overcome adversity and clawed their way to a 29-19 (60.4%) regular season record, giving him more wins than any other Eagles coach in his first three seasons at the helm.

Now, as he enters the 1994 season as the senior ranking NFC East head coach in terms of longevity, Kotite has earned a reputation as a steadfast mentor who keeps his troops focused on winning, even in the face of adversity ... something Kotite has had to deal with perhaps as much, or more, than any other NFL coach in recent years. Despite the death of all-pro DT Jerome Brown in 1992, the loss of key veteran players through free agency a year later, and despite the fact that Pro Bowl QB Randall Cunningham has missed almost two full seasons due to injury in the last three years (only 20 starts in 48 games from '91-'93), Kotite has kept the Eagles' ship on course, earning a 10-6 record in 1991, an 11-5 mark and a playoff berth in 1992, and a 8-8 slate last season.

Under Kotite the Eagles have become known for fast starts and strong finishes, posting a perfect 3-0 record on opening day and an impressive, 9-3 combined mark the past three Decembers. But it was a moment in January, 1993, that marked what was perhaps Kotite's finest head coaching performance. It was then that Kotite led the Eagles to a come-from-behind, 36-20 win over the New Orleans Saints in an NFC Wild Card game. That victory marked the first time since the 1980 postseason that an Eagles team won a playoff game.

On the same day in 1991 that Norman Braman relieved Buddy Ryan of his duties, he moved quickly and decisively in elevating Kotite, then the club's offensive coordinator, to the head coaching position. The coaching change came after the Birds had reached the playoffs in 1990 for the third straight season only to once again lose in the opening round of postseason play.

In 1991, Kotite's first season as an NFL head coach, he guided Philadelphia to a 10-6 record. That season got off to a 3-5 start, marked by a season-ending injury to QB Randall Cunningham on opening day and subsequent injuries to back-up signal caller Jim McMahon. Kotite, however, rallied the Birds who rode the league's number one defense to seven victories in their last eight games. And while Philadelphia narrowly missed the playoffs, the club's success under such trying circumstances prompted Braman to say, "Richie has been a great leader. He kept this team together after everybody else had written us off." That degree of success in 1991 was also recognized outside of Philadelphia as Inside Sports columnist Gary Myers wrote, "Rich Kotite had to be [NFL] rookie coach of the year for squeezing 10 victories out of a team that got only 16 minutes out of Randall Cunningham."

Kotite originally joined the Eagles on February 6, 1990, as offensive coordinator/quarterback coach under Ryan who entrusted him with the responsibility of reviving a slumping offense. In Kotite's only season in that role, the Eagles' offense flourished, re-establishing itself as one of the National Football League's most potent attacks. In fact, Philadelphia led the league in rushing and time of possession and led the NFC in scoring and touchdown passes. In particular, Kotite's system enabled quarterback Randall Cunningham to rank among the league leaders in both passing and rushing while starting rookie receivers Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to catch 17 TD passes.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Kotite, now 51 (10/13/42), had served as the New York Jets' receivers coach from 1983-85 and offensive coordinator/receivers coach from 1986-89. In each of Kotite's years at the helm of the New York attack, the Jets finished near the top in the AFC in total offense, including a third place ranking in 1985. He also was responsible for the development of all-pro wide receiver Al Toon and Pro Bowl tight end Mickey Shuler.

Kotite began his pro coaching career under head coach Hank Stram with New Orleans in 1977 before joining Cleveland the following year. As the Browns' receivers coach under Sam Rutigliano he aided in the development of perennial all-pro TE Ozzie Newsome from 1978-1982.

During his NFL playing career, Kotite was known as a scrappy tight end and outstanding special teams performer with the Giants (1967, 1969-72) and Steelers (1968).

A native of Brooklyn, NY, Kotite graduated from Poly Prep. After a brief boxing career at the University of Miami (FL) where he was the school's heavyweight champ, Kotite then became a Little All-America tight end at Wagner College in Staten Island, NY.

Kotite, his wife Liz, and daughter Alexandra, 16, reside in both Mt. Laurel, NJ, and Staten Island, NY. The community-oriented Kotite clan was honored by the New York Catholic Archdiocese in February, 1992, as the "family of the year. Kotite, himself, is extremely involved in civic and charitable activities in New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. In particular, he has served as the celebrity chairman of the annual New York Telephone/March of Dimes Golf Tournament in Staten Island for the past seven years, an event that has raised over $720,000.

KOTITE'S RECORD WITH STARTING QBs...

In his first three years as the head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, Rich Kotite coached more games without Randall Cunningham as his starting quarterback (28) than with him (20). With Cunningham at the controls, Kotite was an eye-catching 15-5 (75%). Even without Randall, the Eagles under Kotite were still an impressive 13-7 (65%) when #2 QBs Jim McMahon and Bubba Brister started. It was only when #3 and #4 QBs were forced to start that Kotite's Eagles fell below .500 (1-7, 12.5%).

1994 ASSISTANT COACHES

ZEKE BRATKOWSKIOffensive Coordinator*

Entering his second year as the Eagles' offensive coordinator, Bratkowski is ready to handle any obstacles blocking his path to success. After all, in 1993, a year in which the club was devastated by injury, Zeke was perhaps forced to overcome more adversity than anyone. Just four games into the year, his offensive unit had lost three key starters to season-ending injuries - QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett, and RG Eric Floyd. Two games later he saw backup QB Bubby Brister sustain an ankle injury that would sideline him for the better part of five games. But Bratkowski forged ahead, overseeing an offense that, bolstered by the return of Brister, helped the Birds win four of their final six games. Under his tutelage, Brister, who had been released by Pittsburgh in June, went on to become the NFC's 4th leading passer while WR Calvin Williams ranked fourth in the league in touchdown receptions and RB Herschel Walker was the league's seventh most productive player in terms of combined yards from scrimmage.

In 1991, one of the first moves Rich Kotite made when he became the Eagles' head coach was to hire Bratkowski as the quarterbacks coach. The move turned out to be a real plus as the savvy, veteran assistant was able to hold together an Eagles quarterback position that was decimated by an unusually high number of injuries during the '91 season. Bratkowski played a key role in helping the club continue on through those injuries - injuries that sidelined starter Randall Cunningham for the year on opening day and necessitated the use of four more quarterbacks (in order: Jim McMahon, Brad Goebel, Pat Ryan, and Jeff Kemp) in just the first half of the season alone.

Prior to joining the Eagles' staff, Bratkowski served in a similar capacity under Kotite with the Jets from 1985-89 when Kotite was New York's offensive coordinator. While with the Jets, the two helped quarterback Ken O'Brien achieve the lowest interception percentage in the NFL and consistently rank among the league leaders in passer rating.

Bratkowski has been an NFL assistant coach for 23 seasons, having also served on the staffs of Green Bay (1969-70, 1975-81), Chicago (1972-74), Baltimore/Indianapolis (1982-84), the New York Jets (1985-89), and Cleveland (1990).

After a collegiate career at Georgia, where he set many passing records that still stand today and led the nation in punting as a senior, Bratkowski embarked on a 14-year playing career in the NFL. Selected in the second round of the draft by Chicago in 1952, Bratkowski played with the Bears in 1954 and from 1957-60 (serving three years in the Air Force as a pilot from 1954-56), the Rams from 1961-63, and the Packers from 1963-68 and in 1971. During his career, he completed 762 of 1,484 passes for 10,291 yards and 65 touchdowns. As a backup to Bart

Starr with the Packers, he played on three NFL championship teams (1965-67) and won 10 of 12 games as a starter during that time. Bratkowski then joined the Packers' staff from 1969-70 as an offensive backfield coach, but returned to duty as an active player for one more season with the Pack in 1971. Today, Bratkowski is a member of the Packers Hall Of Fame.

An avid golfer, the 62-year old (10/20/31), Danville, IL, native and his wife Mary Elizabeth, live in Voorhees, NJ. They are the proud parents of three children: daughter Kassie, 29, and sons Robert, 35 and Stephen (deceased). Robert, the wide receiver coach with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks, previously spent three years as offensive coordinator at the University of Miami. During his tenure there the Hurricanes won two national championships.

LEW CARPENTER

Receivers/Tight Ends

Lew Carpenter, now in his 30th year as an NFL assistant, joined the Eagles in March, 1990, to tutor the club's receivers. In his first season in that role, Carpenter was asked to coach a corp of rookie wideouts, two of whom, in particular, responded with outstanding seasons - Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett. Williams took over a starting role on opening day of that year and went on to set Eagles' rookie records for touchdowns (9) and receptions by a wideout (37). Barnett, who moved into the starting lineup for good in game 6 of that season when five-time Pro Bowler Mike Quick was injured, gave the Birds a consistent deep threat and also posted impressive numbers for a rookie (36-721-8TDs).

Over the past two years, Carpenter saw much of his work with Barnett and Williams come to fruition. In 1992, Barnett was voted by his peers to the Pro Bowl after registering 1,083 receiving yards and in 1993, Williams grabbed 10 scoring passes to lead the Birds in TD receptions for the third time in his four pro seasons.

Developing young wide receivers into all-pro caliber players is nothing new for Carpenter, however. During his 11 seasons as an assistant with Green Bay (1975-85), Carpenter was instrumental in the development of wide receivers James Lofton and John Jefferson, and tight end Paul Coffman, all of whom made the Pro Bowl following the 1983 season. As such, the three became the first trio of receivers from the same team to make the Pro Bowl in one season. Carpenter also coached Pro Bowl talent in the form of Jackie Smith, Charley Taylor, Len Burroughs, Billy "White Shoes" Johnson, Ahmad Rashad, Mel Gray, and John Gilliam.

Prior to his stint with the Packers, Carpenter served on the staffs of the Minnesota Vikings (1964-66), Atlanta Falcons (1967-68), Washington Redskins (1969-70), St. Louis Cardinals (1971-72), and Houston Oilers (1973-74). He also spent the 1986-88 seasons with Detroit before joining the college ranks in 1989 at Southwest Texas State and then returning to the NFL with the Eagles in 1990.

An eighth round draft choice of the Lions in 1953 following a collegiate career at Arkansas, Carpenter spent three seasons with Detroit, leading the club in rushing in 1954 and 1955 before being traded to Cleveland in 1957. Carpenter then wrapped up his playing career with Green Bay (1959-63) as a member of Vince Lombardi's 1961 and 1962 World Championship teams. During his career, Carpenter played five different positions - split end, flanker, tight end, fullback, and halfback.

Born in Hayti, MO, and raised in West Memphis, AK, the 62-year old Carpenter (1/12/32) now calls New Braunfels, TX, home. He and his wife Ann have four grown daughters: Cheryl, Cathy, Lisa, and Rebecca.

BUD CARSON

Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

Adding Bud Carson to his first Eagles' staff was an easy decision for new head coach Rich Kotite in the winter of 1991. When former Eagles' defensive coordinator Jeff Fisher accepted a similar position with the Los Angeles Rams, Kotite did not hesitate to call upon Carson, one of the finest defensive coaches the NFL has ever known. The two men were already familiar with each other's exploits, having coached together in New York from 1985-88 when Carson was the Jets' defensive coordinator and Kotite the offensive coordinator.

In his 18 seasons as an NFL assistant coach, Leon H. (Bud) Carson's teams have made the playoffs 12 times. In that span he was on the staff of two Super Bowl winners with the Pittsburgh Steelers (Super Bowls IX and X), and on the staff of the Los Angeles Rams who capped their 1979 season with an appearance in Super Bowl XIV, ironically enough for Carson, against the Steelers.

But it was in 1991, his first season as the Eagles' defensive coordinator/secondary coach, that Carson choreographed one of the greatest defenses of all time. Indeed, the 1991 Eagles led the NFL or shared the NFL lead in six major defensive categories. Foremost among those were outright #1 rankings in total defense (221.8 yds/game), defense vs. the run (71.0), and vs. the pass (150.8) in terms of fewest yards allowed. As such, the Eagles' defense became only the fifth team to accomplish this difficult triple and the first since the 1975 Vikings. [The other NFL teams to achieve this milestone were the '63 Bears, '59 Giants and '54 Browns, while the '69 Chiefs and '65 Chargers did so in the AFL]. In fact, the Birds' 221.8 total net yards allowed per game were the fewest by any club since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978 and the fewest overall in 18 years. The defense also led the NFL in sacks (55) and fumble recoveries (22) while tying the Saints for the league lead in takeaways (48). In addition, Philadelphia's ball-hungry defense registered 26 INTs, third best in the NFL and only three behind the top-ranked Saints.

A year later, despite facing the unenviable task of getting his unit to match its 1991 effort, Carson coached his troops to another fine season. The Eagles' 1992 defense ranked a very respectable 3rd in the NFC/7th in the NFL in terms of total yards allowed while finishing 2nd in the league in sacks and 6th in takeaways.

The 63-year old (4/28/31) Carson first gained widespread notoriety as the architect of Pittsburgh's famed "Steel Curtain" defense of the 1970's, a defense off of which four players have already been named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame (S Mel Blount, DT Joe Greene, LB Jack Ham, and LB Jack Lambert). One year after joining the Steelers as secondary coach in 1972, Carson was named defensive coordinator. In that role, he enjoyed a fabulous six-year run and helped Pittsburgh reach post-season play six consecutive times.

Carson then joined the Rams where he served as defensive coordinator from 1979-1981. In his first season with the Rams, the Los Angeles defense led the league in fewest yards allowed (including an NFL record low minus-seven yards of total offense allowed vs. Seattle on 11/4/79) and advanced to the Super Bowl. Following stints with Baltimore (1982), Kansas City (1983), and the University of Kansas (1984), Carson then joined the Jets in 1985 and, in one season, helped New York's defense improve from the NFL's 21st ranked unit to the eighth best. The Carson-led defensive turnaround was a key factor in the Jets' 11-5 record and playoff berth that season, one that followed two consecutive 7-9 campaigns.

In 1989, after 16 years as an NFL assistant, Carson was appointed head coach of the Cleveland Browns and immediately led that club to a 9-6-1 record, the AFC Central Division title, and an appearance in the AFC Championship Game vs. Denver. (His first game as head coach was a 51-0 shutout victory over Pittsburgh as the defense scored three touchdowns and caused eight turnovers). A year later, however, the Browns compiled just a 2-7 record in their first nine games before Carson was relieved of his duties.

A native of Freeport, PA, Carson went on to be a star defensive back at the University of North Carolina (he still holds the Tarheels' record for punt return yards in a game with 166 vs. N.C. State in 1951). Then, following a 30-month stint in the Marines, Carson began his coaching career at Scottsdale (PA) High in 1955 where he stayed for two years before joining the staffs at North Carolina (1957-64) and South Carolina (1965). Carson then joined the Georgia Tech staff as the defensive coordinator in 1966. One year later, he succeeded Bobby Dodd as the Yellow-jackets' head coach and compiled a 27-27-0 record over the next five years.

Carson's wife Linda is an experienced TV news journalist having worked in Atlanta, Los Angeles, Baltimore, Kansas City, Hartford, Pittsburgh, and Cleveland. The couple has four children: Dana, 33, Cliff, 32, Gary, 31, and Cathy, 17.

PETER GIUNTA
Defensive Assistant/Secondary

Entering his fourth season as a member of Rich Kotite's coaching staff is Peter Giunta (pronounced JUN-ta).

A bright, young defensive mind, Giunta played a key role in the success of the Eagles' league-leading defense in 1991, his first year with the club. Giunta helped that unit achieve its #1 ranking across the board in the NFL by pouring over game films of opponents' offenses in order to aid the defensive coaches with game-planning and by helping defensive coordinator Bud Carson tutor the defensive backs.

That work reaped great rewards as Philadelphia's defense became only the fifth group in NFL history and the first since the 1975 Vikings to achieve a rare triple, ranking first in the league vs. the run, vs. the pass, and overall in terms of fewest yards allowed. In particular, Giunta's work with the secondary in '91 helped the Birds' defense allow only 150.8 yards per game through the air, the lowest total by an NFC team since the '77 Falcons (126.8).

The Salem, MA, native began his coaching career in 1978 at Swampscott (MA) High before joining the collegiate ranks in 1981 at Penn State. After one year on the Nittany Lions' defensive staff, Giunta served as tight ends coach for the next two seasons, including the national championship campaign of 1982. In 1984 he then joined the staff at Brown University as tight end/receivers coach and was named to the offensive coordinator's post in 1986. In 1988, Giunta became the tight end/receivers coach at Lehigh where he served for three seasons before joining the Eagles.

The 36-year old Giunta (8/11/56) attended Northeastern University where he played both running back and defensive back and majored in physical education.

He and his wife Cindy have 2 children: daughter Christina, 10, and son John, 7.

BOBBY HAMMOND
Offensive and Special Teams Assistant

Bobby Hammond joined the Eagles' coaching staff in 1993 as an offensive and special teams assistant. While Hammond will continue in this role in '94, his duties are being expanded to enable him to assist with the tight ends. Now entering his 11th season as a coach on the NFL level, Hammond previously served as a running back coach for the NY Jets (1983-89) and the Arizona Cardinals (1990-91). He also handled the same duty at Colgate University in 1992.

While with the Cardinals, Hammond tutored seventh-round draft choice Johnny Johnson through a storybook rookie season in 1990 that culminated with an appearance in the Pro Bowl, making Johnson only the third Cardinal rookie back accorded that honor (Johnny Roland in 1966 and Ottis Anderson in 1979 were the others). Prior to that, Hammond helped Jets' RB Freeman McNeil earn consecutive trips to the Pro Bowl following the 1984 and '85 seasons. Three years later, Hammond helped three Jets' backs - McNeil (944 yards), Johnny Hector (561 yards), and Roger Vick (540 yards) - finish among the top 20 rushers in the AFC, making the trio the three highest-ranking backs on one team in the NFL.

A running back himself, Hammond played five seasons in the NFL, including three-plus campaigns with the NY Giants and one and one-half with Washington. The highlight of his playing career came in 1977 when he was the Giants' most valuable player with 1,466 combined yards, posted a team-high 577 yards rushing, and finished second in the NFL with a 10.4-yard punt return average. Following his midseason release from the Giants in 1979, Hammond joined the Redskins for whom he rushed for 265 yards and caught 24 passes in 1980.

The all-time career rushing leader at Morgan State University with 2,548 yards on 590 carries, Hammond surpassed the collegiate exploits of Leroy Kelly and Frenchy Fuqua at the Baltimore, MD, school from 1971-75.

A native of Orangeburg, SC, Hammond attended high school in Bayside, NY, where he was a three-year all-city football standout. Today, Hammond and his wife Deborah, reside in Marlton, NJ. They have three children - sons Robert, 14, and Jon, 10, and daughter, Alexandria, 7.

DALE HAUPT

Defensive Line

Eagles' defensive line coach Dale Haupt has long been regarded as one of the top position coaches in the National Football League. Haupt has earned this lofty status while cranking out great defensive linemen one after another during his eight seasons apiece with Chicago (1978-85) and Philadelphia (1986-present). During these last 16 years, Haupt has coached numerous all-pro and Pro Bowl linemen and molded devastating front fours for two of the most successful and feared defenses in NFL history - the 1991 Eagles and the 1985 Super Bowl champion Bears.

Before coming to Philadelphia, Haupt tutored the great Bears' defensive line made up of Pro Bowlers Richard Dent and Dan Hampton, along with Steve McMichael (who would later earn that same honor) and William Perry (who joined the Eagles in 1993). In 1985, that group helped the Bears maul their way to the top of the NFL, leading the league in nine defensive categories en route to an 18-1 record and a 46-10 victory over New England in Super Bowl XX, a game in which Dent earned MVP honors. One year earlier, Haupt's group recorded 50.5 of the Bears' NFL-record 72 quarterback sacks. Indeed, the Bears averaged a solid 48 sacks per season during Haupt's eight years with the club.

Since coming to Philadelphia in 1986 as an assistant to former Bears' defensive coordinator and then Eagles' first-year head coach Buddy Ryan, Haupt has helped build a front four that ranked among the best ever to play the game. In terms of individual players, Haupt particularly aided the development of three all-pro linemen - defensive ends Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, and at defensive tackle, the late Jerome Brown. (A current Haupt project, fourth-year pro Andy Harmon, who had 11.5 sacks in 1993, could become the fourth Eagles defensive lineman to go to the Pro Bowl during his tenure).

Under Haupt's guidance, White became perhaps the top defensive end ever to play the game and a likely Hall of Fame inductee. Along the way, White earned seven consecutive Pro Bowl starts and NFL defensive player of the year honors twice (in 1987 and 1988 after leading the league in sacks both times). In 1990 and 1991, Brown joined White in the Pro Bowl and, most recently, Simmons, too, earned a selection to the NFL's all-star game after the 1991 and '92 campaigns.

Indeed, the 1991 season will be remembered not only as the one in which the Eagles' defense ranked number one in the NFL overall, vs. the run, vs. the pass, and in sacks, but for the unique honor received by White, Brown, and Simmons, all of whom went to the Pro Bowl as starters. It marked only the sixth time in NFL history and the first time since 1981 that one team placed three defensive linemen in the Pro Bowl. Likewise, the 1989 season will be remembered as the one in which Haupt guided each of these same three players to double-figure sack totals as the Birds set a club record with 62 sacks.

Born in Manitowoc, WI (4/12/29), Haupt went on to become a defensive lineman and linebacker at Wyoming (1950-53). He then spent the 1954 preseason with the Green Bay Packers before returning to Wyoming to finish his degree in 1955. He formally began his college coaching career at Tennessee as head freshman coach from 1960-63 before moving to Iowa State (1964-65), Richmond (1966-71), N.C. State (1972-76), and Duke (1977).

Haupt and his wife Frances reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have two sons Mac, 36, and David (deceased) and daughter Helen, 26 ... pronounced: HOWPT.

BILL MUIR
Offensive Line

On January 21, 1992, 51-year old Bill Muir (10/25/42) joined Rich Kotite's Eagles' coaching staff. In an effort to increase the production of the offensive line, Kotite entrusted Muir with the responsibility of providing a more aggressive approach to the Birds' line play. Muir responded by producing an offensive line that has opened holes in opposing defenses and allowed the Eagles to be one of the more productive rushing teams in the rugged NFC the past few seasons. Furthermore, he has been instrumental in the development of young up-and-coming players, Antone Davis and Lester Holmes, while still elevating the play of proven veterans such as Dave Alexander and Broderick Thompson.

Before coming to the Eagles, Muir spent the 1989-91 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts serving as an assistant head coach/offensive line in 1991 and as defensive coordinator in '89 and '90. Prior to that, Muir served four years (1985-88) as the offensive line coach for the Detroit Lions.

A veteran of 16 NFL seasons, Muir also spent time with New England (1982-84) as offensive line coach and with Tampa Bay as a scout in 1978 and director of pro personnel from 1979-81.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Muir, a native of Pittsburgh, PA, was an assistant coach on the college level at Susquehanna (1965), Delaware Valley (1966-67), Rhode Island (1970-71), Idaho State (1972-73), and Southern Methodist (1976-77). He also served as offensive coordinator with Orlando in the Continental Football League (1968-69) and with Houston-Shreveport in the World Football League (1974-75).

Muir played collegiately at Susquehanna University as a tackle from 1962-64 and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990. He and his wife Barbara live in Voorhees, NJ, and have two children, Keelan, 25 and Brady, 23.

LARRY PASQUALE

Special Teams Coordinator

On January 16, 1992, Rich Kotite hired Larry Pasquale (pronounced pass-KWALL-ee) as the first special teams coordinator in the 60-year history of the Philadelphia Eagles. "He's the best special teams coach in the NFL," said Kotite upon Pasquale's hiring. "What [coordinator] Bud Carson meant to the defense in 1991, Larry Pasquale will mean to the special teams."

To say the Eagles improved their special teams in Pasquale's first season on board would be an understatement. After inheriting the 27th ranked unit in the NFL, Pasquale elevated the Birds' special teams to a fifth place ranking in '92. In particular, Pasquale's influence translated into vastly improved coverage teams as well as punt and kick return units that ranked among the best in the league.

In Pasquale's 15 seasons in the NFL, his special teams units have scored an incredible 27 touchdowns (in regular and preseason action). Two of those came in his first-season with the Eagles as Vai Sikahema lugged a punt return 87 yards for a TD and Ken Rose blocked a punt for a score in the same game vs. the Giants.

Prior to revamping the Eagles' special teams, Pasquale engineered a similar transformation in San Diego in 1990-91. In that short time, he turned the Chargers' special teams from one of the league's worst groups to one of its best. In his first season there, he guided the Chargers' kickoff return and punt coverage units to a #1 ranking in the league. In addition, their kickoff coverage and punt return units improved to fourth and eighth place rankings, respectively. As a result, Pasquale was voted special teams coach of the year in '90 by his peers.

Before going to the Chargers, Pasquale was the NY Jets' receivers coach in 1980 and that club's special teams coach from 1981-89, serving first under Walt Michaels and then Joe Walton (the last seven of those years coincided with Rich Kotite's tenure as an offensive coach on Walton's staff). During his time in New York, the Jets punt coverage teams ranked #1 in the NFL in 1981 and from 1986-88, and ranked second in 1989. The Jets also had the NFL's top kickoff return team in 1984. Moreover, in his nine seasons with New York, his units enjoyed an 80-percent success rate on fake field goals and punts while their opponents fell short on every such try.

Now a veteran of 30 years of coaching on all levels, Pasquale, 53 (4/21/41) first came to the NFL in 1979 as special teams coach for the Detroit Lions. He also coached receivers and special teams for Montreal in the Canadian Football League (1977-78). Prior to ascending to the pro ranks, he coached on the high school level in Connecticut for four years and collegiately for ten years, serving as an assistant at Slippery Rock St. (1966), Boston University (1968), Navy (1969-70), and Massachusetts (1971-75).

A native of Brooklyn, NY, Pasquale played collegiately at the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut where he earned Bachelor's and Master's degrees in physical education. Today, Larry and his wife Joan reside in Villanova, PA. They have two daughters, Lisa, 27, and Lauren, 21, and a son Darrel, 24.

JIM VECHIARELLA

Linebackers

After Rich Kotite added Bud Carson to the Eagles' coaching staff as defensive coordinator in 1991, the next step was the hiring of Jim Vechiarella (pronounced VEK-a-rell-ee) as linebacker coach.

For Vechiarella and Carson it would mark the fifth time that the two men worked together. And once again, the two worked well as all facets of the Eagles' defense jelled in 1991 and that unit accomplished a rare triple, ranking #1 in the NFL overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass in terms of fewest yards allowed.

Vechiarella and Carson also coached together on NFL staffs with the Rams ('81-'82), Chiefs ('83-'85), Jets, and Browns. In particular, Vechiarella spent the 1990 season on then head coach Bud Carson's Cleveland staff as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach. Before that, he spent the 1986-89 seasons (the first three of which were under then-defensive coordinator Carson) with the Jets, coaching the linebackers.

A native of Youngstown, OH, the 57-year old Vechiarella (2/20/37) was a linebacker and center at Youngstown State. He began his coaching career at two Ohio prep schools before moving to the college ranks where he served as defensive coordinator at Youngstown State (1964-74), Southern Illinois (1976-77) and Tulane (1978-80). He also spent the 1975 season as defensive line coach for the World Football League's Charlotte franchise.

Vechiarella and his wife Lucille reside in Voorhees, NJ. They have three children, sons Jim, 32, and Bill, 30, and a daughter Lisa, 28 and two grandchildren, Jimmy, 6, and Nicholas, 4.

JIM WILLIAMS

Strength and Conditioning

Jim Williams joined the Eagles early in 1991 and made an immediate impact on the club in terms of conditioning as the Birds became arguably the best second-half football team in the NFL. Evidence of this is the club's superb 9-3 mark during the past three Decembers. Indeed, head coach Rich Kotite has attributed much of the team's success in recent years to the conditioning program implemented and overseen by Williams both prior to and during the season.

The 46-year old (3/29/48) native of Kingston, PA, has been a conditioning coordinator in the sports field for the last 22 years. After serving as assistant strength coach for the Nebraska football team from 1970-71, Williams went on to become the head strength coach at Arkansas (1972-76) and Wyoming (1977-78). He then jumped to the NFL ranks with the New York Giants in 1979 before beginning an eight season stretch with the New York Jets in 1982. Williams then spent 1990 assisting the training staff of the New York Islanders prior to joining the Eagles.

"Jim's a specialist at what he does," says Kotite. "He's one of the forerunners of organizing a conditioning program and making it such a big part of athletic programs. He knows how to condition a football team. He's thorough, consistent, and when he talks you listen because of his reputation and knowledge."

RICHARD WOOD

Running Backs

Richard Wood began his second tour of duty with the Eagles in 1991, having previously served as the club's offensive coordinator/quarterback coach in 1983. This time around, however, the 58-year old (2/29/36) is tutoring the Birds' running backs, a group that includes Herschel Walker, who rushed for over 1,000 yards in 1992.

A 12th round draft choice of Baltimore in 1959 out of Auburn, Wood played quarterback for six teams in seven NFL seasons. After first serving as a reserve to the Colts' Johnny Unitas, Wood was the Jets' starter prior to the arrival of "Broadway" Joe Namath in the Big Apple. He then earned the distinction of being the first starting quarterback in Miami Dolphins' history before finishing his career with San Diego, Denver, and Oakland.

Since the end of his playing days, Wood has spent 19 of the last 28 seasons coaching in the NFL. He began with Oakland from 1969-70, before joining Cleveland (1974), New Orleans (1976-77), Atlanta (1978-82), Philadelphia (1983), Kansas City (1987-88), and New England (1989-90).

The Lanett, AL, native, started his coaching career at the University of Georgia from 1967-68, and also served on the collegiate staffs of Mississippi (1971-73), and Auburn (1986). Today, Wood and his wife Peggy reside in Marlton, NJ. They have a son, Bart, 36, and daughter, Rhonda, 34.

CHUCK BANKER

Director of Pro Personnel

On July 5, 1994, the Philadelphia Eagles hired the highly respected talent evaluator, Chuck Banker, to the newly created position of director of pro personnel.

"With the salary cap in place and with free agency being what it is today," said team owner Jeff Lurie, "a key way to increase your chances of winning championships is to be the best at gathering and evaluating information on player personnel, both on the college and pro level. The addition of a widely respected football man and talent evaluator like Chuck to the pro-scouting side undoubtedly makes us a better club."

In this important role, Banker, a veteran of 13 NFL seasons as an assistant coach and scout, will work in conjunction with John Wooten, the club's Vice President of Player Personnel, and with pro scout Tom Gamble, and be responsible for overseeing the Birds' evaluation of pro players and for making recommendations that will aid the club in the acquisition of veteran talent through free agency, trades, and waivers.

A native of Prescott, AZ, Banker's first stint in the NFL was as an assistant coach with the St. Louis Cardinals from 1980-85 under then head coach Jim Hanifan. Banker then spent the 1987-88 NFL campaigns as a special teams coach on Joe Gibbs' Washington Redskins staff, and helped guide that club to a Super Bowl victory over Denver following the '87 season. From 1989 through the spring of '94, Banker served as a scout with the Redskins who captured another NFL title in that span by defeating the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXVII.

The 53-year old (3/12/94) Banker was born in Prescott, AZ, and attended Monrovia (CA) High before graduating from Westminster College (UT) with a degree in physical education. He currently resides in the Philadelphia area with his three children, Christy, 21, Sara, 19, and Bryan, 17.

TOM GAMBLE

Pro Scout

Tom Gamble enters his seventh season as a member of the Eagles' player personnel department and his fourth as a pro scout responsible for evaluating players on the 27 other NFL teams. As such, he stockpiles information on current pros in order to aid the Eagles in the acquisition of veteran players through free agency, trades, and waivers. In addition, Gamble has helped negotiate player contracts and assisted in the operation of training camp.

Some of the veteran players obtained by the Birds during Gamble's tenure as a pro scout are RB Herschel Walker, TE Mark Bavaro, QB Bubby Brister, OL Broderick Thompson, DE William Fuller, LB Bill Romanowski and DT William Perry.

Gamble, who first worked for the Eagles' group sales and marketing departments in 1986, rejoined the organization in 1988 as an administrative assistant in player personnel. Gamble, 31 (2/14/63), then served as an assistant to the director of player personnel, primarily concentrating on college talent from Maine to North Carolina, before moving over to the area of pro scouting in 1991.

During his two-year absence from the Eagles, Gamble served as assistant baseball coach and assistant to the athletic director at Glassboro (NJ) State College while earning his masters degree in physical education.

As a collegiate pitcher, Gamble was an all-conference choice at High Point (NC) University where he earned his undergraduate degree in physical education. The son of Eagles' president Harry Gamble, Tom serves as a member of the Variety Club of Philadelphia and also was named one of Philadelphia's "100 People to Watch in 1993" by the Philadelphia Business Journal. Tom and his wife, Juliette, were married on 6/19/94 and now reside in Cherry Hill, NJ.

LOU BLUMLING

Talent Scout

Lou Blumling joined the Eagles in June, 1984, after spending the previous 14 years with the BLESTO scouting combine. At BLESTO, Blumling was an area scout for six years before becoming a regional (East) scout in 1976. Now in his 11th year with the Eagles, Blumling is responsible for the Midwest region of the United States.

Blumling, 65 (1/26/29), was born in Wheeling, WV, and graduated from Magnolia High School in New Martinsville, WV. He then went on to West Liberty State, where he was a halfback and defensive back from 1948-1951 and also lettered in basketball, baseball, and golf. Blumling was a prep assistant from 1952-53 before serving as a head coach at Pine Grove High (WV) from 1953-54, St. John's High (Bellaire, OH) from 1955-60, and at Powhatan High (OH) from 1961-62. He then joined former Miami Dolphins assistant Tom Keane's staff with the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League (eventually known as the Continental Football League) in 1963 as offensive backfield coach for three years and defensive coordinator from 1966-67. From 1968-69, Blumling was head coach of the Ironmen and compiled a 16-8 record, including a 10-2 mark in 1968 that earned him coach of the year honors. Following the collapse of the CFL, Blumling joined BLESTO in 1970.

Blumling and his wife JoAnn reside in Lafayette, IN. They have four sons: Jim, 37 (a doctor), Bob, 33, Tom, 26, Jay, 25, and one daughter, Kim, 35.

TODD BRUNNER

Talent Scout

Todd Brunner enters his first season as a full-time member of the Eagles' scouting staff. After two years of assisting the player personnel department in various manners, Brunner will now serve as a college scout in the northeast while also assisting in the area of pro scouting.

After a standout playing career at Lehigh University, Brunner earned a Master's Degree in Education/Sports Administration from Temple in 1993, while also serving as a graduate assistant on the Owls 1991 coaching staff. As the starting quarterback for the Engineers in 1989, Brunner set several school records and still ranks first on Lehigh's all-time list with a career completion percentage of 60.2%. Prior to college, he lettered in football and basketball at Lawrence (NJ) HS.

The 26-year old Brunner is single and resides in Westmont, NJ. His father, John, is currently an area scout with the San Francisco 49ers after serving as an assistant coach at Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay, and Minnesota. His brother, Scott, is a former NFL quarterback with the New York Giants, Denver and St. Louis.

DAN SHONKA

Talent Scout

New to the Birds' player personnel staff in 1994 is Dan Shonka, who joins the team as a regional college scout.

The 41-year-old native of Cedar Rapids, IA comes to the Eagles with a wide range football experience. He spent the last seven years as an area scout for National Football Scouting, a service to which 14 NFL teams subscribe, including the Eagles. Shonka's other prior scouting experience includes a year covering the midwest region for the USFL's Philadelphia Stars (1983).

Shonka's coaching resume includes stints as head coach at New Mexico Highlands (1984-86), Independence (KS) Community College (1981-82), and Highland (KS) Community College (1980). Prior to that, the University of Iowa alum was an assistant at Purdue (1977-78) and Rice (1976).

Shonka resides in Cedar Rapids with his wife, Peggy and their two children, Sarah and Teddy.

OTHO DAVIS

Head Athletic Trainer

Otho Davis, a certified and licensed athletic trainer, is one of the most highly respected men in his field. Now in his 22nd year as head trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles, Davis' skills have been continuously recognized by the National Athletic Trainers' Association which has named him "Professional Trainer of the Year" five times (1977, 1978, 1980, 1981, and 1987) and inducted him into the Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in 1981. On May 1, 1993 Davis was also enshrined into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame - Philadelphia Chapter. In 1982, he received the Distinguished Service Award for Sports Medicine from the American Orthopedics Society for Sports Medicine. His other honors include having been inducted into the Southwest Athletic Trainers' Association (Texas and Arkansas) Hall of Fame in 1987 and being a member of "Who's Who in the East." He is also a member of the Kent State University Hall of Fame and an Honorary member of the Kent State Varsity "K". Davis also holds memberships in various professional organizations, including the International Narcotic Enforcement Officers Association.

Davis was also nominated in April, 1993 by the Professional Football Writers Association (PFWA) for the Horrigan Award. This honor is bestowed upon the league or club official or player for his qualities and professional style in helping pro football writers do his or her job.

Davis formerly served as the charter president of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society. From 1971 to 1989 he also was the executive director of the NATA, an organization whose national headquarters office building in Dallas is named in his honor.

Davis is a member of the Board of Advisors of the Ed Block Courage Award which honors a player from all 28 NFL teams each season who, in the eyes of their teammates, best displays courage. He also is a member of the Board of Governors of the Maxwell Football Club and a past member of the executive committee of the Professional Athletic Trainers' Society.

A native of Elgin, TX, Davis, 60 (2/8/34), attended South Park High in Beaumont (TX) and later earned a B.S. degree in physical education from Lamar University in 1957 and an M.A. degree in 1964 from Kent State, where he was head trainer from 1957-1965. Prior to that, he served in the U.S. Army Medical Service Corp from 1954-56 with the United States Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and was trainer for the Beaumont (TX) "Exporter" baseball club in 1956.

Davis became head trainer and assistant professor of physical education at Duke in 1965 before joining the Baltimore Colts in 1971 as an associate trainer and the Eagles in 1973 as head trainer.

With the Eagles, Davis, who was named to CBS' 1993 All-Madden Team, supervises a training facility and program that rank among the best in professional sports, using state-of-the-art systems for training and rehabilitation practices. He also is very active in the education of young trainers and has established a unique program to give outstanding prospects an opportunity to work on the professional level. In 1994 Davis will be assisted by Chris D'Andrea, a 22-year old, 1994 graduate of the University of Cincinnati and by Todd Custer of Salisbury State, Ronnie Harlow of Harding University, and Steve Westereng of North Dakota University.

Davis and his wife, the former Mary Louise Buzzeo of Lynbrook, NY, reside in Blackwood, NJ. Together, they are the parents of five children: Mark, 37, Harry 35 Roy, 31, Richard, 29, Tom, 25, and Denise, 36.

DAVID PRICE
Assistant Athletic Trainer

David Price, a product of Otho Davis' intern program for athletic trainers, is beginning his ninth year as Davis' assistant. As a licensed and certified athletic trainer, he is responsible for the management and treatment of injuries, institutes preventive therapy, and oversees players' rehabilitation programs. Along with Davis, Price has also been instrumental in updating the Eagles' training room with the latest computer systems and methods for tracking players' injuries and upgrading state of the art rehabilitation equipment.

Prior to joining the Eagles on a full-time basis, Price served as head trainer for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1983-85. During that time, the club won two Championships and finished in second place once.

A native of Quakertown, PA, Price received his B.S. degree in health and physical education with specialization in sports medicine/athletic training from Lock Haven (PA) University, where he starred at linebacker for three years during the fall and was a student trainer for the winter and spring sports programs.

Price, 34 (1/28/60), broke into the NFL as an intern under Davis during the 1981 training camp and spent the 1982 season with the Eagles as an assistant trainer.

As a Certified Athletic Trainer, Price belongs to the National Athletic Trainers Association. He also belongs to the Professional Football, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey Athletic Trainers Societies. Price is single and resides in Blackwood, NJ.

JOSEPH TORG, M.D.
Team Physician

In July of 1993, Dr. Joseph Torg joined the Philadelphia Eagles as the team's physician and orthopedic specialist, bringing 31 years of clinical and academic experience in the field of orthopedic medicine.

Currently, Torg serves as professor of orthopedic surgery at the University of Pennsylvania's school of medicine as well as on the staffs at Children's, Graduate, Presbyterian and the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, all in Philadelphia. While his clinical specialty has been in knee surgery, the focus of Torg's academic work has been the prevention of injuries and, in particular, reducing the number of catastrophic cervical spine injuries in football.

Previously, Torg has worked in professional sports with the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers as well as on the collegiate level with Temple University and the University of Pennsylvania. A native Philadelphian, Torg's involvement in football dates back to his playing days at Central High School and Penn Charter where his accomplishments earned him a football scholarship to Haverford College. After earning his AB from Haverford in 1957, Torg went on to Temple University's school of medicine from which he graduated in 1961.

The 59-year-old Torg resides in St. David's, PA with his wife Barabara and their children, Joseph, Jr, 33, Elisabeth, 31 and Jay, 25.

JAY MOORE, M.D.

Team Internist

Jay Richard Moore, M.D., begins his seventh season as an internist with the Eagles. Moore, 59 (5/6/35), has been in private practice of internal medicine and nephrology at Graduate Hospital in Philadelphia since 1971.

Moore was born in West Chester, PA, and went on to receive an A.B. degree from Harvard in 1957 and an M.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1961. He served his internship, residency, and nephrology fellowship at Graduate Hospital (1961-1969), during which time he served as a flight surgeon in the US-AF from 1963-65. Dr. Moore was on the clinical faculty at Penn's Medical School from 1968 through 1983, and has received several awards for excellence in teaching at Graduate Hospital.

DAVID GREENWALD, Ph. D

Player Relations Consultant

In September of 1992, Dr. David Greenwald joined the Eagles' staff as its player relations consultant, a position previously held by Dr. Lem Burnham who left the Eagles to become the director of player relations for the National Football League.

Greenwald came to the Eagles with an extensive background in the field of psychology, including 20 years of clinical experience. He currently serves as the clinical director of the Crossroads Center for Psychiatry and Psychology, in Doylestown, PA. He also has a private practice in Philadelphia.

A native of New York, NY, Greenwald attended New Lincoln High School before earning his B.A. in sociology from Brandeis University and his Ph.D. in clinical psychology from Adelphi University.

With the Eagles, Greenwald serves as the team's psychologist as well as coordinator of NFL player programs which include continuing education, financial planning, offseason internships and family assistance.

The 47-year-old Greenwald (6/8/47) resides in Carversville, PA with his wife, Wendy, their son, Abe, 18, and daughter Anna, 14.

RUSTY SWEENEY

Equipment Manager

Rusty Sweeney has overseen the Eagles' equipment operation since 1970. Born in Sherman, TX, Sweeney, 47 (5/10/47), was raised in Nueva Coahuila, MX, and Lake Jackson, TX. He learned his trade as a student equipment manager at Lamar University in Beaumont, TX, where he majored in physical education and history. Sweeney and his wife Connie reside in Ridley Park, PA, with their daughter Kelly Anne, 17, and son Rushford Lee IV, 14.

1994 VETERANS' PROFILES

DAVID ALEXANDER, C

College: Tulsa

Height: 6-3Weight: 275Born: 7/28/64Draft: 5, 1987Year Eagle: 8Year NFL: 872

ENTERING 1994: Alexander's string of 92 straight regular season starts (in order - 12 at LG, 15 at C, 1 at LT, and the last 64 at C) is the longest current streak on the team ... is the senior member of the O-line in terms of overall years with the Eagles and in terms of number of NFL games played and started.

1993 SEASON: "The glue that holds the line together," is how offensive line coach Bill Muir referred to Alexander in '93 ... indeed, Alexander once again called all adjustments at the line of scrimmage for the O-line ... "He's our air traffic controller out there, making sure all our wide-bodies line up and go where they're supposed to," Muir added ... the durable center missed just one play all season - in the 3rd qtr. of game 6 @NYG, snapping his string of 2,387 consecutive plays dating back to 11/4/91 when he was rested for the final 4 downs of a lopsided win over NYG ... signed a series of three one-year contracts with the club on 12/23 that will keep him with the Eagles through '96.

PRO CAREER: An extremely versatile player, Alexander is one of very few offensive linemen to have played all five line positions at the NFL level ... it is at center, however, where the 1987 draft pick has made his mark with the Eagles ... although considered smallish by some for an NFL center, routinely compensates with intelligence and veteran savvy ... a solid, consistent player who comes to play week in and week out, Alexander started 79 of the Birds' 80 games from '89-'93 at center ... during that 80-game span, Alexander anchored 27 different offensive line combinations (9 LTs, 7 LGs, 1 C, 8 RGs and 4 RTs) ... 1987: Was drafted by the Birds in the 5th round (121st overall) ... as a rookie, played on special teams and as a reserve tackle (played some RT @Wash. after starter Joe Conwell injured a knee) ... 1988: Began camp as a backup but started 2 preseason games at center for the injured Gerry Feehery until injuring a foot ... was then set to open the season at RG before the acquisition of RT Ron Heller and C Dave Rimington moved Reggie Singletary to RG ... soon replaced Singletary at RG, however, during game 4 @Minn. ... a week later, made his first pro start at LG and remained there through the playoffs ... then-head coach Buddy Ryan called him the Birds' most consistent lineman ... 1989: Excelled in his first season as a center, earning 1st team All-NFL recognition (N.Y. Daily News) ... moved into the #1 center role when the Birds inserted Plan B acquisition Mike Schaad at LG (Alexander's 1988 position) ... started at LT in season finale and playoff game when Matt Darwin and Ken Reeves had injuries ... 1990: Enjoyed one of his best seasons and was the Eagles' most consistent offensive lineman ... was an offensive captain along with Randall Cunningham ... selected offensive player of the game vs. Phx. (9/16) and @Mia. (12/9) ... helped the offense rank 1st in the NFL in rushing yards and time of possession, and 3rd in scoring ... injured his right knee in the season finale @Phx. and missed all but three 4th qtr. plays of the Wild Card playoff game ... also snapped on FGs and PATs for 4th straight year ... 1991: Started every regular season game and proved to be 100% recovered from off-season knee surgery as he was one of the Birds' top linemen ... centered for all but 4 plays, sitting out only the final series vs. NYG on 11/4 ... received a game ball vs. Pitt. as the offense dominated time of possession and churned out 374 yards ... 1992: Started every contest, including both postseason games ... was the only member of the Birds' line to play every offensive down in '92 ... helped the rushing attack rank 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL, while also paving the way for RB Herschel Walker to become the first Eagle since '85 to rush for 1,000 yds ... made all O-line calls at the line of scrimmage ... earned a game ball along with linemates @Phx.

COLLEGE: As a senior guard at Tulsa, was selected honorable mention All-America and 1st team All-Missouri Valley Conference ... was a 1st team All-MVC choice in 1985 after being the only sophomore named to the 1st team in 1984 ... red-shirted in 1982 and switched from defensive line to offense.

PERSONAL: Resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Tulsa, OK, in the offseason with his wife Kathy and sons, Jacob (1/9/91) and Kyle (3/14/94) ... the Alexanders actively raise money to fight Cystic Fibrosis and have helped organize Monday Night Football functions and an Eagles' fashion show to benefit the charity ... in '89 & '90, played Santa Claus at the Eagles' and Phillies' "No Greater Love" Christmas party for orphans and children who have lost parents in the armed forces, as police, or firefighters ... has appeared in a public service announcement for the PA State Police Crimestoppers Unit ... a 5-handicap golfer, he and Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham teamed with golf pro Lee Elder in June of '92 to win the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic at Sawgrass (FL) Country Club ... has a degree in business ... born in Silver Spring, MD ... has brother Matt and sister Dawn ... was an all-conference choice and defensive player of the year in football as a senior at Broken Arrow High in his hometown of Broken Arrow, OK.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1987 (12/0), 1988 (16/12), 1989 (16/16), 1990 (16/16), 1991 (16/16), 1992 (16/16), 1993 (16/16); TOTALS: (108/92). PLAYOFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1988 (1/1), 1989 (1/1), 1990 (1/0), 1992 (2/2); TOTALS: (5/4).

EAGLES' RETIRED NUMBERS

15 - Steve Van Buren; 40 - Tom Brookshier; 44 - Pete Retzlaff;
60 - Chuck Bednarik; 70 - Al Wistert; 99 - Jerome Brown

	ERIC ALLEN, CB College: Arizona State Height: 5-10 Weight: 180 Born: 11/22/65 Draft: 2, 1988 Year Eagle: 7 Year NFL: 7	21
--	--	-----------

ENTERING 1994: Enters the season with 31 career interceptions, good for 3rd place on the club's all-time interception list behind Bill Bradley (34) and Herman Edwards (33) ... also starts '94 just 3 INTs behind Washington's CB Darrell Green for the lead among active NFC interceptors ... has started the last 53 regular season games (the last time he did not start was 11/25/90 vs. NYG when the Birds opened in a 4-4-3 set).

1993 SEASON: Earned a 4th trip to the Pro Bowl (his 3rd straight and 1st as a starter) as well as a spot in the NFL record books after returning 4 interceptions for TDs ... that latter feat enabled him to join Jim Kearney (K.C. '72) & Ken Houston (Hou. '71) as the only players ever to turn 4 INTs into scores in a single season ... overall, his 6 INTs led the team and brought his career total to 31 ... a flare for the big play was evident early and often in '93 as he made a key INT in each of games 2-4 ... at GB, his theft off Brett Favre set up a FG in the comeback win while the next week vs. Wash., he returned an INT off Cary Conklin 29 yds for a TD ... but he made the biggest play of his career in the 4th qtr. @NYJ when he picked off a Boomer Esiason pass and displayed outstanding open-field running in taking it 94 yds for the game-winning TD ... the play tied him with Irv Cross (10/24/64 @Pit) for the 2nd longest INT return in club history, trailing only Jerry Norton's 99-yarder (10/5/57 vs. NYG) ... again demonstrated his all-pro form late in the year with a pick of a Jim Kelly pass in the end zone vs. Buf. and a 2-INT/2-TD performance vs. Saints' QB Steve Walsh ... that effort made him the first Eagle and 18th player in league history to return 2 INTs for scores in a single game ... also was a key member of the Birds' pass rush in games 10-11, logging the first two sacks of his career (vs. NYG's Phil Simms & Wash.'s Rich Gannon).

PRO CAREER: One of the top cornerbacks in the NFL, Allen has been a mainstay on the right side of the Eagles' defense since his rookie season of 1988 ... likewise, he has also been a fixture in the Pro Bowl, having made 4 trips to the NFL's all-star game in his first 6 seasons ... in that span he has amassed 31 interceptions - an average of 5 per year - and ranks 3rd in team history in the INT department ... 1988: The Eagles' 2nd round draft pick, Allen was selected when the Birds orchestrated a draft-day trade with Tampa Bay, swapping a 2nd (39th overall) and 4th round choice for the Bucs' 2nd round pick (30th overall) ... was penciled in as the starter at RCB on draft day by then head coach Buddy Ryan and went on to earn NFL all-rookie honors after making 5 INTs, 4 of which came inside the Eagles' 20 ... made his first pro INT @TB off QB Vinny Testaverde (9/4) ... 1989: Earned 1st-team All-NFL honors (AP, Football Digest, Pro Football Weekly), 1st-team All-NFC recognition (UPI, Football News, Pro Football Weekly), and a Pro Bowl trip after leading the NFC with 8 INTs (2nd in NFL) ... also was named 2nd-team All-NFC by College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... missed most of the last three games with an ankle injury (DNP at N.O.; DNS playoff game vs. Rams) ... paced club with 25 passes broken up ... had one INT in each of his 7 road games ... 1990: Was voted as an alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad after snaring 3 INTs ... the low INT figure was the result of his excellent pass coverage which meant opponents threw his way only rarely ... made his first INT in game 11 and had 2 vs. Dal. on 12/23, including one for a TD (35 yds. off QB Babe Laufenberg) ... added another theft off Redskin Mark Rypien in the Wild Card Playoff ... 1991: Earned 2nd team all-pro honors from the AP and his 2nd Pro Bowl berth ... tied for the team lead in INTs with 5 (@GB, @Wash, @TB, @Phx, and @NYG) and led the team with 15 passes knocked down ... helped the Eagles become the first team since the '75 Vikings to rank #1 in the NFL across the board in terms of allowing the fewest total yards, rushing yds, and passing yards ... his excellent pass coverage also helped the Birds lead the NFL in sacks and share the lead in takeaways ... 1992: Despite missing the preseason due to contract negotiations, was again superb and, indeed, one of the NFL's best CBs ... evidence of such was his 3rd trip to the Pro Bowl (this time as a backup to starters Deion Sanders of Atl. & Audray McMillian of Minn.), as well as 1st team All-NFL (Football News) and All-NFC (UPI) honors ... made one of the biggest plays of the year on the final down of game 15 vs. Wash., with the Redskins at the P5, when he stepped in front of WR Gary Clark in the end zone and batted away a Mark Rypien pass to seal a 17-13 win and a playoff berth ... grabbed 4 reg. season thefts, including the 2nd 2-INT day of his career when he picked off Raiders Todd Marinovich and Jay Schroeder ... also recorded 2 postseason thefts off Bobby Hebert in the 2nd half of the Birds' 36-20 Wild Card playoff victory, the 2nd of which he returned 18 yards for a TD.

COLLEGE: As a four-year starter at ASU, made 18 INTs (2 TDs) ... was a 1st team All-Pac 10 selection in 1987 after his 8 INTs included a 92-yd. TD vs. Wash. St. and 35-yd. TD vs. Cal. ... as a junior, won honorable mention All-Pac 10 acclaim and capped that season with an INT in a Rose Bowl win over Michigan ... still stands as the only Sun Devil to ever notch an INT in the Rose Bowl.

PERSONAL: Resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and San Diego, CA, during the offseason with his wife Lynn ... in 1993, helped raise over $18,000 for The Caring Foundation, a subsidiary of Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Philadelphia through his efforts on the field ... in this unique program, various local corporations pledged money to the foundation based on the number of tackles and interceptions he registered - the money was then used to provide health care coverage to needy children ... during the '93 season, served as the weekly co-anchor on KYW-TV/Ch. 3's Sports Extra on Sunday evenings and was also a regular on the post-game show of Eagles' flagship radio station, WYSP/94.1 FM ... was featured in a 1988 public service announcement for C.A.D.E. (Corporate Alliance for Drug Education) to enhance anti-drug awareness ... also was the Eagles'/Louis Rich representative in their '89 and '90 "Team Up Against Drugs" campaign and has participated in anti-drug seminars in high schools for the NJ State Police ... was honored by the NJ March of Dimes as the 1990 Eagle of the Year and will again be so honored in November by the Philadelphia chapter of the United Negro College Fund for his play in 1993 ... also lit the torch to open the 1990 Phila. Special Olympics ... has a degree in broadcasting ... the youngest of 3 children, he has a

1993 SEASON: After being selected in the 2nd round of the NFL draft (50th overall), put together a very impressive rookie season, first as a nickel receiver, then as a starter in 10 games in place of injured Pro Bowler Fred Barnett ... finished the year with 41 receptions, the most ever by an Eagles' rookie wide receiver ... Bailey's 13.3-yds-per-catch avg. was tops among Eagles with over 14 catches while his 545 rec. yds ranked 3rd on the club ... likewise, his 41 grabs ranked 4th on the team and 2nd among WRs ... also demonstrated the ability to get deep, catching a 40-yd TD @GB, and 58 & 41-yd passes vs. Chi & @NYG ... after being the Birds' 4th WR on opening day, moved up to #3 a week later @GB and was 3-56-1TD with a 40-yd TD that tied the game with 4:14 to play ... two games later when Barnett was injured in the 2nd qtr. @NYJ, Bailey moved up to the 1st unit (a role he was familiar with having started 4 preseason games when Barnett was unsigned) and led the club with 5 catches ... started the next 2 games and stepped up with a 4-94-58LG effort vs. Chi. & 4-63-41LG outing @NYG ... was then slowed by a pulled hamstring that kept him from starting games 7-8 ... returned to the 1st unit for the final 8 contests and starred in games 12-13, posting 6 receipts. @Dal. and topping that effort with personal bests of 7 receipts. & 95 yds. vs. Buffalo.

COLLEGE: Finished his career as the Tigers' all-time leading receiver with 128 receptions for 2,114 yards and 12 TDs ... as a senior, he caught a school record 75 passes for 1,201 yards and 6 TDs to rank 4th in the nation in receiving ... transferred to Missouri after his freshman year as a reserve receiver at Texas-El Paso.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ ... majored in sociology ... stand-out wide receiver and baseball player at Dunbar High in his hometown of Fort Worth, TX ... has three siblings, sister, Eursla, and brothers Larry and Eric, the latter of whom was a tight end for the Eagles in 1987 as a member of the replacement team during the NFLPA's player's strike ... hobbies include bowling and playing pool.

1993 SEASON: Once again, Baldinger showed why he is considered one of the most versatile offensive linemen in the game, playing right guard, center, left guard and left tackle ... started one game at each of those positions except center, but it was his value as the top back-up all along the front wall that meant the most to head coach Rich Kotite, who said at midseason, "When [Brian] has to start, it takes away from our flexibility in other areas....I don't ever remember someone who can play all five positions or who could be the first replacement at all five positions" ... saw his first action of the season as a RG, filling in for the injured Eric Floyd & Rob Selby during the opener and again for Floyd in game 3 vs. Wash. when the starter was lost for the year with a knee injury ... subsequently replaced Floyd at RG in the starting lineup @NYJ ... in game 9 vs. Mia., came off the bench when LG Mike Schad injured a knee and started the next game at that spot ... but after only one series vs. NYG, was moved to LT to replace Broderick Thompson who strained his left calf ... played the rest of that game at LT and then started there in consecutive games @Wash. & vs. Dal. ... missed the rest of the season due to a groin pull suffered in week 13 @Dal.

PRO CAREER: While slugging it out in the trenches for the past 12 years, the versatile Baldinger has carved himself a niche in league history as the only lineman to start at every offensive line position including tight end ... said Birds' offensive line coach Bill Muir on 11/29/93, "[Brian] is one of the most unique players I have ever been around. He is so valuable to us because of his ability to play each line position and play each of them very well." ... originally signed with Dallas as a rookie free agent in 1982 and remained with the Cowboys through '87 before signing with the Colts as a FA on 7/19/88 ... four seasons later, the Colts left him off their 37-man protected roster and he signed with the Bills on the last day of the 1992 Plan B period (4/1) ... but after being waived by the Bills on the cut to 47 that summer, Baldinger was shark-watching in Florida when the Eagles called and asked him to fill-in for injured G/C John Hudson who was placed on Injured Reserve with a fractured right hand ... 1992: In his first year with the Birds, proved to be one of the club's most valuable in-season free agent acquisitions ... signed with the Birds on 10/1 ... replaced injured RT Antone Davis (spr. knee) for the final 2 series @Wash. (10/18) and as a starter vs. Phx. (10/25) ... then saw mostly special teams duty until starting - and playing well - at LG in place of the injured Mike Schad in games 15-16 and both playoff games ... was the intended pass receiver on a fake FG vs. the Raiders that earned a 1st down via penalty ... 1991: Started 14 games for Indy. and had seen action in 64 consecutive games through the season finale ... started at RG @NE (9/1), then started the last 13 at center for the injured Ray Donaldson ... joined RT Kevin Call as the only line members to appear in every game ... 1990: Started all 16 games in his first full season as a starter - started 1st half of season at RG, 2nd half at RT ... was utilized as a tackle-eligible in short yardage situations ... 1989: Made 1 start at RT (vs. SF), 2 at LT (@NE and vs. Clev.) and 1 at TE (vs. NE) ... 1988: Signed as a FA on 7/19 and saw action in all 16 games at 4 different positions ... made his 1st pro reception as a tackle eligible on a 37-yd pass from Ricky Turner ... 1987: As a member of the Cowboys, spent 1st 5 weeks on IR (knee) ... then played every line position, plus TE but was inactive for 6 of final 8 games ... 1986: Saw reserve duty after returning from IR (knee) ... 1985: Spent entire season on IR and had surgery on his left knee ... 1984: Played in all 16 games with 4 starts - 2 at tackle, 2 at guard ... 1983: Was a reserve guard and center ... saw action in the playoff game vs. Rams ... 1982: Was the only rookie FA to make the Cowboys' squad ... saw action in 4 of the 9 games in the strike-shortened season ... played in all 3 playoff games with Dal. vs. TB, GB and the NFC title game @Wash.

COLLEGE: Was an All-Coastal Conference tight end at Nassau Community College on Long Island before transferring to Duke following his freshman year ... converted to guard with the Blue Devils ... started 11 games as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ ... played football, basketball & track at Massapequa HS in his hometown of Massapequa, NY - also the hometown of such notables as comedian Jerry Seinfeld, actors Alec and William Baldwin and actress Jessica Hahn ... older brother Rich (NYG 1982, Kansas City 1983-93, New England 1993) & younger brother Gary (Kansas City 1986-88, Buffalo 1990-91) have also earned their stripes in the NFL ... was in Islamorada, FL, scuba diving in shark tanks when the Eagles called and offered him a contract during the '92 NFL season ... along with his brothers and a number of former NFL players, formed a group called the "Travel Dogs" - each year the group journeys to the site of a world-class event ... past junkets included stops in Australia for the America's Cup, Paris for the French Open, Italy for the World Cup and Brazil for Carnivale ... also has been to Thailand to celebrate the Chinese New Year and has rented a charter boat for a tour of the Greek Islands ... spent 2 weeks in Europe in May of '93 on tour with Bruce Springsteen as a member of Springsteen's security staff ... acted in the same capacity with Billy Joel in May of '94 while touring in Ireland ... future plans include a run with the bulls in Pamplona, Spain, once his NFL career is over ... has BS degree in psychology.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: (Cowboys 1982-87, Colts 1988-91, Eagles 1992-present); 1982 (4/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/4), 1985 (IR), 1986 (16/0), 1987 (3/0), 1988 (16/3), 1989 (16/4), 1990 (16/16), 1991 (16/14), 1992 (12/3), 1993 (12/4); TOTALS: (143/48). PLAY-OFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1982 (3/0), 1983 (1/0), 1992 (2/2); TOTALS: (6/2).

1993 SEASON: Was deactivated for 6 games but saw action on special teams and in certain extra-DB alignments in the other 10 contests ... saw most of his playing time as a nickelback in game 12 @Dal. when injuries limited Ben Smith (back) & Otis Smith (ankle) ... notched 2 preseason interceptions in his role as the primary nickelback before Ben Smith returned to action from a '91 knee injury.

PRO CAREER: Was drafted by the Eagles in the 5th round (129th overall) in 1992, but was placed on the Physically Unable to Perform (PUP) list on 8/25 with a staph infection in his hip that caused him to miss the entire season.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at cornerback for Auburn, his head coach Pat Dye called Barlow the best defensive back he's ever had ... as a senior, had a team-high 4 interceptions (including one for a game-winning 29-yard TD vs. Texas), and blocked 3 punts and a field goal ... was a first team All-Southeast Conf. and All-America honorable mention pick by Football News as a junior.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Atlanta, GA, during the offseason ... attended Fulton High in his hometown and birthplace

FRED BARNETT, WR

College: Arkansas State

Height: 6-0

Weight: 199

Born: 6/17/66

Draft: 3, 1990

Year Eagle: 5

1993 SEASON: Coming off a Pro Bowl season, Barnett inked a 3-year pact on 8/31 and immediately picked up where he left off in '92, registering game-high receiving figures of 7-76 on opening day vs. Phx ... three games later, Barnett was leading the Birds in recepts. & rec. yds. (17-170) when he tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee @NYJ ... the injury, which ended his season, occurred when he was tackled by Eric Thomas & Brian Washington after a 2nd qtr. 21-yd reception ... subsequently had surgery performed in LA on 10/7 by Dr. Clarence Shields, the same doctor who operated on QB Randall Cunningham's left knee in Sept. '91 and left fibula in Oct. '93.

PRO CAREER: Prior to suffering a knee injury in the 4th game of 1994, Barnett had established himself as one of the NFL's premier wide receivers and a Pro Bowl player ... a true deep threat, 18 of his 182 career receptions have gone for TDs, including bombs of 95, 75, 71 and 70 yds - in fact, 8 of those TDs have covered 35 yards or more ... now, following an offseason of dedicated rehabilitation on his knee, Fred looks to return to form as one of the league's swiftest, and most acrobatic receivers ... 1990: By the end of his rookie year, Barnett, one of four receivers drafted by the Eagles (with a 3rd round pick, 77th overall), had emerged as a star ... hauled in 8 TD passes, including 4 of over 30 yards, the most memorable being a 95-ydr. from Randall Cunningham @Buf. - the 2nd longest play from scrimmage in Eagles' history and the longest in the NFL in '90 ... began playing in the nickel and then shuttled in plays with starters Mike Quick and Calvin Williams before making his first pro start in game 4 when Quick rested his knees ... took over the starting role opposite Williams in game 6 when Quick was placed on Injured Reserve ... at season's end, ranked 2nd on the club in both receiving yds. (721) and TD recepts. (8, tied for 4th in the NFC) ... had two other TDs nullified by penalties ... his 8 TD recepts. tied Bobby Walston for 2nd on the Eagles' all-time list among rookies behind Williams' 9 ... recorded three 100-yd. rec. games (including a season-high 114 yds. vs. Minn.), and made his first NFL TD recept. on a 21-yd. pass from Cunningham vs. Colts ... also turned in the first 2-TD day of his career @Phx. ... 1991: Finished the season ranked 12th in the NFC with a 15.3 yards-per-catch average and 19th in total yards from scrimmage ... began '91 on a tear, catching a 75-yard TD pass on opening day; added a 70-yarder @Cleve. and never looked back ... was the club's receiving leader in terms of receptions (62) and yards (948) while hauling in 4 TD passes ... flourished as a long-ball threat despite the merry-go-round at QB where injuries put 5 different passers in the lineup over the first 8 games ... registered five games of 6-or-more catches, including then career-highs of 8 recepts. and 146 yds. @Cleve. ... was the first Eagle receiver to have consecutive 100-yard outings since Mike Quick in '86 ... 1992: Earned his first Pro Bowl berth after finishing 67-1,083-6TD receiving, making him the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard receiving mark since Mike Quick did it in '85 ... those numbers also placed him 5th in both the NFC and NFL in receiving yards and 8th in the NFC/tied for 13th in the NFL in receptions ... his team-leading 67 receptions also were a career high ... had a huge day @Sea. going 9-161 - the recepts. were a personal best while the ydgs. was his 2nd most ever ... at Phx., he had a career-high 193 yds. on 8 catches, incl. 17 and 71-yd TDs, the 1st of which he set up with a 51-yd catch ... vs. Den., was 5-102-1TD as he and Calvin Williams became the 1st pair of Eagle WRs to each top the century mark in rec. yds. in the same game since Harold Carmichael and Mike Quick did it vs. Wash. on 9/11/83 ... starred in a Wild Card playoff game @NO. going 4-102 rec. with 57 and 35-yd. TDs ... on the 2nd TD, Fred outleaped two Saints in the end zone to narrow NO.'s 4th-qtr. lead to 3 and ignite the Birds' comeback win ... missed most of the preseason with a left shoulder separation suffered in practice on 8/5.

COLLEGE: His career totals in both receptions and receiving yards (95-1,571) broke Arkansas State's 22-year old records held by Gerald Jumper (93-1,396) ... flourished despite playing in a run-oriented offense, scoring 9 TDs ... as a senior was 38-643-4TDs receiving ... led the Indians in receiving as both a soph. & jr. ... redshirted in 1985 and lettered in track.

PERSONAL: Fred and his wife, the former Jackie Jeffries, were married on 6/19/93 and reside in Philadelphia, PA ... Jackie is an accomplished ballet dancer ... in March of '94, Barnett made a one-night, guest appearance as an actor in the Philadelphia stage production of "The Will Rogers Follies," playing the role of aviator Wiley Post ... has appeared in public service announcements for Boy Scouts, Boys/Girls Clubs, the PA Special Olympics, and the United Negro College Fund, the latter of which honored him as the Eagles 1992 player of the year ... majored in law enforcement ... did not play football until his senior year at Rosedale (MS) High because his mother Earlean, thought it was too dangerous ... still earned all-district and team MVP honors as a WR (5-60-4TDs) and DB (7 INTs), in addition to handling the kicking duties ... was a two-time MVP in basketball and set a state high jump record (6'11") ... born in Shelby, MS, and raised in Gunnison as the oldest of four children, brothers Dwayne (a junior WR at Mississippi Valley State) and Marcus, and sister Joanna ... comes from an athletic family - his father Fred, Sr., played amateur baseball; his uncle, John Barnett, was a RB with the LA Express (US-FL); and his cousin Tim Barnett is entering his 4th season as a WR for the KC Chiefs ... enjoys the theatre, ballet, bowling, tennis, golf, and music ... also plays the drums.

MARK BAVARO, TE

College: Notre Dame

Height: 6-4

Weight: 245

Born: 4/28/63

Free Agent: 1993

Year Eagle: 2

1993 SEASON: Proved to be a very solid free agent acquisition when he, in the words of head coach Rich Kotite, "showed there's plenty of gas left in the tank." ... the former Pro Bowl tight end who sat out the '91 season with knee problems some said would end his career, indeed showed that he wasn't through yet ... in fact, he started all 16 games, provided his customary fine blocking, and again ranked among the league's top pass-catching TEs ... among NFC tight ends, Bavaro finished 1st in TDs (tied for 3rd among NFL TEs), while ranking 4th in both receipts. & rec. ydg. ... his 43-481-6TD rec. numbers also ranked him 2nd on the club in TDs, 3rd in catches, and 4th in yds. ... had his best reception and ydg. totals since '88 while his 6 TDs were his most since tallying 8 in his Pro Bowl season of '87 ... was a key target no matter who was at QB as his first 3 TD grabs came from different passers ... had his best outing in game 12 @Dal., making a season-high 7 catches, including 2 TDs.

PRO CAREER: Over the last 10 years, Bavaro has been regarded throughout the NFL as the one of the league's top tight ends, both as a blocker and receiver ... revered for his toughness and all-around play, many observers have called him a throwback ... indeed, his gritty determination to play and his genuine love for the game enabled him to overcome serious knee problems that nearly ended his career in 1991 ... as such, Bavaro, a legendary performer with the two-time Super Bowl champion NY Giants from '85-'91, has enjoyed a rebirth of sorts, first with Cleveland in '92, and then with Philadelphia in '93 ... 1992: Signed with the Cleveland Browns after missing all of the '91 season following a bone graft operation on his knee ... made an amazing comeback and started all 16 games ... re-established his reputation as one of the NFL's best tight ends, making 25 receptions for 315 yards and remaining one of the game's most solid blockers ... won the Halas Award, given annually by the Pro Football Writers Association to the player who has played with abandon despite injury or other personal problems ... 1991: Missed the entire year after a bone graft operation in February ... 1990: Although relegated to light practice workouts during the week (due to knee surgery on 1/5 and subsequent removal of a screw on 7/30), undeniably showed up to play on Sunday and missed only 1 game while helping the Giants to a Super Bowl title ... finished with 33 catches for 393 yards and 5 touchdowns, including a career-high 61-yd. gain vs. Wash. ... moved into 5th place on the Giants' all-time receiving list with 266 career receptions ... led all NYG receivers in the playoffs with 13 catches and had big receptions in both final scoring drives vs. the 49ers in the NFC title game and vs. the Bills in Super Bowl XXV ... 1989: Went down with a knee injury in the seventh week of the Giants' season and was lost for the last nine games after having been 22-278-3TDs receiving ... 1988: Missed some of training camp because of a contract holdout, but despite the late start was 53-672-4TDs for NYG ... 1987: Led the Giants in receiving for the 2nd straight year with 55-867-8TDs receiving numbers ... was unanimously voted All-NFL by the wire services and major news outlets ... was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 2nd straight year and named NFL tight end of the year by the NFL Alumni Assoc. ... had four 100-yd. receiving games ... caught 11 passes vs. St. Louis, the 2nd-highest one-game total in Giants' history to the 12 catches he had against the Bengals in '85 ... 1986: Set all-time Giants records in receiving for tight ends while winning unanimous All-NFL honors and a starting nod in the Pro Bowl ... caught 66 passes for 1,001 yards - both club marks for a tight end ... in 3 big games was 6-106 vs. the Raiders, 7-110 vs. NO, and 5-111 vs. Wash. ... led Giants' receivers in the playoffs with 8 catches and had TD grabs vs. the 49ers in the NFC title game and vs. the Broncos in the Super Bowl ... 1985: Replaced incumbent starter Zeke Mowatt when Mowatt went down with a preseason knee injury that sidelined him for the year ... a powerhouse blocker and receiver, he became a unanimous All-NFL Rookie selection ... finished 2nd among Giants in receiving 37-511-4TDs and set a club record with 12 receptions (176 yards) vs. the Bengals ... led NYG receivers in the playoffs with 9 catches for 103 yards, including a spectacular one-handed grab of an 18-yd TD pass in a 17-3 Wild Card victory over the 49ers ... also developed into a ferocious blocker who helped the Giants' set all-time club rushing records in a season.

COLLEGE: Was an All-America selection in his senior season at Notre Dame and was voted the Offensive MVP by teammates after a year in which he was 32-395 receiving ... served as the starting TE for the Fighting Irish for two years after sitting out the '82 season with a broken hand.

PERSONAL: He and his wife Susan reside in Danvers, MA, and Ft. Myers, FL, with their 2 children, Grace and Dominic John ... has a degree in history ... was an all-around star at Danvers H.S. where he was an All-America selection in football and won four letters in track as a high jumper, hurdler, and triple jumper ... won a bronze medal at age 15 in a national scholastic track event in Los Angeles ... has been a National Chariman of the March of Dimes fundraising program.

BUBBY BRISTER, QB

College: Northeast Louisiana

Height: 6-3

Weight: 207

Born: 8/15/62

Free Agent: 1993

Year Eagle: 2

ENTERING 1994: Re-signed with the Eagles on 4/6 and is expected to be the backup quarterback to Randall Cunningham in '94.

1993 SEASON: A tough, gutsy performer, Brister proved to be an extremely valuable free agent acquisition by the Eagles in '93 ... after a mutual parting of the ways with the Steelers on 6/15, Brister came to Philadelphia wanting only an opportunity - and when he got it, he made the most of it ... signed a one-year deal on 7/19 and took the place of #2 QB Jim McMahon who had gone to Minn. via free agency ... by season's end, a rejuvenated Brister ranked 4th among NFC passers, while posting passing numbers of 309-181-1905, including 14 TDs vs. just 5 INTs ...

while his trademark mix of grit and toughness was always evident, it was in the area of consistency that Brister truly elevated his game ... opportunity knocked when starter Randall Cunningham was lost for the season after fracturing his left fibula in game 4 @NYJ ... Brister went on to start 8 games and finished the year with an 84.9 passer rating - 4th best in the NFC and 7th in the NFL - despite missing nearly 5 games himself with an injury ... in his 8 starts (vs. Chi, @NYG, @Wash, @Dal, vs. Buf, @Ind, vs. NO, @SF) the Birds were 4-4 although he played less than a qtr. @NYG due to injury ... but in the 9 games in which he played at least a half (@NYJ, vs. Chi, vs. NYG, @Wash, @Dal, vs. Buf, @Ind, vs. NO, @SF), Philly was 5-4 ... in particular, Brister starred in games 11-16 after returning from ankle and neck injuries ... in those six games he led the Birds to a 4-2 record, engineered four important 2-minute drills, led a game-winning FG drive in OT and put up impressive passing #s (236-141-59.7-1,479-3-11TDs) ... Bubby's return to the lineup also kick-started the Birds' offense ... after topping 300 yds. each time in their 4-0 start under Cunningham, the Birds lost 6 straight games and went 7 straight without gaining 300 yds., most of the time having Ken O'Brien at QB in place of an injured Brister ... but with a healthy Brister back at the helm, the Eagles reeled off 300-yd. efforts in their final 5 games ... in games 11-16, Bubby also posted a sparkling TD-to-INT ratio of 11-to-3 and fired 20-or-more completions and a TD strike each time (incl. 2 @Dal, 3 vs. NO, & 3 @SF) ... a summation of his 2-min. drives in the final 6 games incl. (in order) a 75-yd. game-winning TD drive @Wash, a 69-yd. FG march prior to halftime @Dal, a 58-yd. drive to set up a game-tying FG try vs. Buf, and a 35-yd. march that set up a FG vs. NO. ... he also led a game-winning 68-yd. drive in overtime @SF ... after originally replacing Cunningham during a 2nd qtr. series @NYJ, Brister capped that drive with a TD pass and later threw another in a 35-30 come-from-behind win ... the next 2 games marked Brister's first starts since games 14-16 a year earlier for Pitt., however, a sprained ankle suffered on a sack by NYG Corey Miller - and a neck problem - sidelined him until midway through game 10, when he replaced O'Brien ... returned to the starting lineup a week later and led a 17-14 comeback win @Wash., capping the game-winning 75-yd. drive with a 2-yd. TD pass to RB James Joseph with :46 to play ... game 12 @Dal. saw Brister lead Phila. to its first 300-yard day in the 8 games since Cunningham was injured and also saw him set personal career-highs of 45 atts. & 27 comps. ... then went 48-28-299-1TD vs. Buf, surpassing the career-bests in atts. & comps. he set only a week earlier ... Bubby then closed out the season with 3 straight wins and two very strong performances - vs. NO, when he tossed 3 TD passes & 0 INTs, and @SF, where he had another 3 TD strikes & 350 passing yds. (the 2nd highest ydage. total of his career) and led a 68-yd. drive in OT that set up Roger Ruzek's game-winning FG ... the back-to-back 3-TD outings were the 5th & 6th of his career and his 1st since a 4-TD effort vs. the Rams on 12/23/90.

PRO CAREER: This former third round pick of the Steelers (the 67th selection overall in 1986) spent the first seven years of his career with Pittsburgh where he carved out a niche for himself in the NFL as a tough, gritty competitor ... but after giving way to QB Neil O'Donnell at Pittsburgh in '92, Brister and Pittsburgh parted company prior to the '93 campaign ... what followed was a rebirth of sorts in Philadelphia ... although signed by the Eagles as a #2 signal caller, Brister took over for injured starter Randall Cunningham for 8 games and acquitted himself quite well, finishing as the NFC's 4th rated passer ... 1992: Played in six games, starting the last four games of the season when Neil O'Donnell was injured ... led the Steelers to two wins down the stretch including a 23-13 win over Cleve. which clinched a home playoff game ... failed to see action in the playoffs following O'Donnell's return ... 1991: Started games 1-5 before a sprained knee in game 5 caused him to miss the next 8 contests ... returned to the starting lineup for the final 3 games of the season ... finished the year 190-103-1,350-9-9TDs passing and had a 5-3 record as a starter ... in the opener vs. S.D. was 13-of-21 for 189 yards with 1 TD, 2 INTs passing ... threw TD strikes on first 2 drives @Phila., and finished the game 16-13-190-2-2TDs passing ... started the next week vs. NYG on Monday Night Football, but struggled through first half before being replaced by O'Donnell ... was on inactive list for next 3 games to rest knee, and did not play in the next 5 as O'Donnell started 8 straight ... returned to lead team to 2-0 finish in games 15 and 16 ... in game 15 vs. Cin. he was 28-15-184-2-2TDs passing and in the season finale vs. Cleve. was 26-7-113-1TD vs. Cleve. ... 1990: Started all 16 games for first time in his career and enjoyed his best season as a pro with career-highs in attempts (387), completions (223), passing yards (2,725), TD passes (20), and rating (81.6) ... twenty TD passes were the most by a Steeler since Terry Bradshaw's 22 in 1981 ... his passer rating ranked 6th in AFC/10th in NFL and he threw 4 TD passes 3 times ... through first 4 games was 101-52-506-6INTs passing as the offense failed to score in that span ... however, over the next 12 weeks, posted passing numbers of 286-171-2,219-8-20TDs ... exploded in week 6 @Den. with career-high 353 yards and 4 TDs, completing 21 of 28 (75.0%) including a 90-yarder to WR Dwight Stone ... threw 4 TD passes 2 weeks later in Monday night win vs. LA Rams to earn AFC offensive player of month honors for October ... named AFC off. plyr. of wk in game 9 vs. Atl. with 216 yards and 2 TDs ... had 4 TD passes vs. Cleve. for his 3rd 4-TD game of season ... 1989: Posted 73.1 passer rating to rank 11th in AFC and was 8-6 as starter in regular season, 1-1 in postseason ... missed games 6 & 7 with sprained left knee ... tossed 3 INTs in 51-0 opening day loss vs. Cleve. but was not picked off again until 10 weeks later ... set a Steelers' record with 15 consecutive completions at Detroit (10/1), and finished 27-21-267-1TD, to earn AFC off. plyr. of wk. honors ... sprained his left knee in the 4th qtr. of game 5 vs. Cin. forcing him to sit out the next 2 games ... returned to throw for 253 yards and 2 TDs vs. K.C. ... led team to wins in 5 of the last 6 games and in the AFC Wild Card game @Hou., led the Steelers to a 26-23 overtime victory as he posted passing totals of 33-15-127 ... followed that effort with a super 29-19-229-1TD effort in a 24-23 loss @Den in the AFC Divisional Playoff game ... 1988: Won starting job over Todd Blackledge and Steve Bono and led team with 6 rushing TDs, 2nd-most ever by a Steelers QB ... passer rating of 65.3 ranked him 12th in the AFC while 5 of his 11 TD passes covered 89, 80, 80, 72, and 65 yards ... earned his first win as starter on opening day vs. Dallas ... missed 3 games after dislocating index finger on throwing hand vs. Cleve. in game 5 ... completed AFC's longest pass of year with 89-yard TD strike to WR Louis Lipps vs. Phila. (11/13) ... named AFC offensive player of week for 37-34 upset of Houston (12/4), completing 17 of 36 for 311 yards with 3 TDs including 65 and 80-yarders to Lipps ... 1987: Made just 2 brief appearances @Cleve. (9/20) and vs. Hou. (11/15) ... completed 4 of 12 passes with 3 INTs ... 1986: Was drafted in the 3rd round by Pittsburgh as the 67th player selected overall and the 4th QB taken behind Jim Everett, Chuck Long, and Jack Trudeau ... made 2 starts for the injured Mark Malone, with his first on Mon- day Night Football @Cin., a 24-22 defeat ... in his only other start of the year was just 9 of 27 for 100 yards with 2 INTs the next week vs. New England (10/19) ... did not play the rest of the season.

COLLEGE: Ranked 7th in nation as senior with 134.8 pass efficiency rating, completing 191 of 342 (55.8%) passes for 2,880 yards and 17 TDs ... had five 300-yard games in leading Southland Conference in passing and total offense ... named first team All-SC and Louisiana's 1985 most valuable offensive player ... originally signed letter of intent with Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama before opting to play pro baseball ... enrolled at Tulane in 1982 and transferred to Northeast La. after 2nd game of 1983 season ... majored in general studies.

PERSONAL: Married the former Bonnie Creaghan on 4/30/94 ... the couple lives in Mt. 1993 SEASON: Was named NFC offensive player of the month for the 2nd straight September, but just four days later suffered a fractured left fibula when hit by the Jets' Scott Mersereau & Marvin Washington in the 2nd qtr. of game 4 ... as a result, Dr. Clarence Shields (who had operated on RC's left knee in '91) performed surgery in LA, affixing a plate to the fracture site ... two months later, Randall expressed hope for a return to action in game 14 @Indy ... that possibility, however, was squelched on 12/15 when Shields and the Birds' medical staff determined that RC would not be healed in time to see action in '93 ... said team trainer Otho Davis of the decision, "The risk is too high; there is nothing to gain and everything to lose if further injury were to occur. It is not [medically] 100% at this point." ... RC's injury followed a Sept. in which he led the Birds to a 3-0 mark (just as he did in '92), including consecutive come-from-behind wins in the final seconds @GB & vs. Wash. ... in his super Sept., RC was 97-66-68.0%-761-4-5TDs with a 91.5 passer rating ... the injury came a week after #12 played one of his finest games ever ... it was in game 3 vs. Wash. that he was 39-25-360-2-3TDs passing/5-49 rushing en route to Miller Lite NFL player of the week honors ... RC was phenomenal in the 4th qtr. of that game, leading the comeback by going 13-17-163-0-2TDs through the air ... on the final drive, he marched the Birds 83 yds in 1:50 and hit WR Calvin Williams with a 10-yd TD strike with :04 left to play; it was the 3rd C'gham-to-Williams TD of the day (the others covered 80 & 9 yds) ... the week before @GB, #12 overcame a sluggish 1st H (2 fumb. lost, 1 INT) to finish with a superb 29-23-79.3-209-2TD passing effort and rally the Birds to 13 pts. in the 4th qtr. ... the 79.3% passing was the 9th 70%-plus game of his career (with the Eagles going 8-1 in those games [see box on page 46]) ... in the opening day win over Phx., earned a game ball for a solid all-around effort that incl. a 9-yd. TD run & a 6-yd. run on 3rd-n-5 late in the 4th qtr. to seal the win ... in the process, RC - who already ranked as the NFL's all-time #1 rushing QB - surpassed the 4,000-yd mark for his career.

PRO CAREER: In his nine years as a pro, Cunningham has proven to be one of the most talented and versatile QBs of all time, if not the most exciting ... some have said he has revolutionized the position by confounding defenses not only with a rifle arm, but with outstanding running ability as well ... these attributes, coupled with a unique and uncanny ability to improvise and make big plays when none seem possible, led Sports Illustrated in their 1990 NFL preview issue to dub Cunningham "the prototype quarterback of the '90s" ... now, just four years later, Cunningham enters 1994 ranked 2nd in club history in the four main passing categories - attempts, completions, yardage and TD passes (see box on page 56) ... moreover, he is also the NFL's all-time leading rusher among QBs, a ranking he achieved in 1992 when he surpassed Hall of Famer Fran Tarkenton's mark of 3,674 yards ... in fact, Cunningham has gained more career rushing yards than 36 of the 37 running backs drafted in '85, with the only exception being teammate Herschel Walker ... oh yeah, the multi-talented QB also just happens to own the Eagles' record for the longest punt, a 91-yarder he boomed in 1989 ... over his first four full seasons as a starter, 1987-90, he ranked 2nd in the NFL in pass atts. (1,980), 3rd in completions (1,096), 4th in passing yds. (13,592), and 3rd in TD passes (98), and became the first QB in NFL history to lead his club in rushing four straight years ... 1992: After enduring nearly 10 months of rehabilitation on his surgically repaired left knee, successfully returned to action and helped lead the Eagles to the playoffs for the fourth time in five years ... so complete was RC's return that he earned comeback player of the year honors from Pro Football Weekly and 2nd team All-NFL acclaim from the AP ... along the way, fired 19 TD passes and ran like the Ramblin' Randall of old while racking up 549 rushing yards ... began in brilliant fashion before struggling a bit at mid-season, but rebounded to lead the Eagles to the playoffs ... finished the year 384-233-60.7-2,775-11-19TDs passing and as the Birds' third best rusher and the league's best ground gainer among QBs, 87-549-6.3-5TDs ... through the first 3 games, was superb while leading the Eagles to a 3-0 start and earning himself NFL player of the month honors for Sept. ... during that period, was 72-53-704-73.6%-0-8TDs-141.2 passing and posted a better than 70% completion rate in each outing ... in fact, going back to 1965, no Eagle QB had ever had back-to-back games over 70%, let alone 3 straight ... at Wash., rushed for 39 yds to move past Fran Tarkenton (3,674) and become the NFL's all-time leading rushing QB ... in terms of passer ratings, ranked 4th in the NFC and 5th in the NFL with an 87.3 mark, trailing only 49er Steve Young (107.7), Falcon Chris Miller (90.7), Cowboy Troy Aikman (89.5) and Oiler Warren Moon (89.2) ... took every snap until being replaced by Jim McMahon for the 2nd half of game 8 @Dal. and all of the following game vs. the Raiders ... returned to the lineup @GB and a week later @NYG threw for 2TDs ... truly got back on track in game 12 @SF, going 26-19-174-0-2TDs after intermission and marching the Birds to the 11 in the closing moments where they were stopped an inch short on a 4th-n-15 pass to Calvin Williams ... rode that momentum thru the next 3 games as he had his 2nd best career rushing day (12-121-2TDs) vs. Minn. and a huge day @Sea., going 44-27-365-1-0TDs through the air & 8-38-1TD on the ground ... 1991: Enjoyed his best preseason ever and looked primed to put together his finest season as a pro ... in five preseason games finished 46-35-356-1-5TDs passing and 15-89-1TD rushing and led the Birds to TDs on 8 of the 17 possessions he QB'd ... then suffered a season-ending knee injury on opening day @GB ... the injury occurred on the first play of the 2nd quarter and the Eagles' 11th play from scrimmage as he was hit by LB Bryce Paup while unloading an incomplete pass to Fred Barnett ... the hit tore the medial collateral and posterior cruciate ligaments in his left knee ... had surgery performed in L.A. on 9/4 by Dr. Clarence Shields, the same surgeon who had operated on his right knee when the QB was a senior in high school ... this time, Shields fused the medial collateral back together and replaced the posterior cruciate with an Achilles tendon from a cadaver ... 1990: In his finest season as a pro, was named the NFL player of the year by NFL Films and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... also received the Bert Bell Award from the Maxwell Club as the league's MVP, thus becoming only the second player in history to win that award more than once (Colts' QB Johnny Unitas did so three times) ... also received NFL offensive player of the year honors from Pro Football Weekly and NFC player-of-the-year honors from Football News and the NFLPA ... additionally, for the second time in his career, was AP's runner-up to 49ers' QB Joe Montana as league MVP and trailed only the Oilers' Warren Moon as AP's offensive player of the year (in '88, he was runner-up for these same two honors to Boomer Esiason and Roger Craig, respectively) ... was named All-NFL and All-NFC by numerous other organizations ... was voted to the Pro Bowl as the backup QB but started for the third straight year, this time in Montana's absence ... one of 4 Eagles' captains, he also was voted offensive MVP by his teammates after becoming the first Eagles' QB to throw for 3,000 yds. in three consecutive seasons ... was responsible for 69.8% of the Birds' total net offense ... led the NFC with 30 TD passes (2nd in NFL behind Moon) surpassing his previous best of 24 in 1988 and falling just short of Sonny Jurgensen's club record of 32 ... also ranked among the top QBs in passer rating (91.6, 2nd in the NFC/5th in the NFL); atts. (465, 4th/7th); comp. (271, 3rd/6th); comp. % (58.3, 3rd/7th); yds. (3,466, 3rd/6th); TD % (6.5, 1st/2nd); and INT % (2.8, 3rd/9th) ... after being shut out on opening day, threw at least one TD pass in 13 straight games and two-or-more in 10 of those ... had a career-best streak of 138 attempts without an INT (3+ games) from 10/15 through 11/12 and, over the previous 14 regular season games, threw only 8 INTs while tossing 28 TDs ... again led the club (for the 4th straight yr.) and all NFL QBs (for the 5th consecutive yr.) in rushing with a career-high 942 yards ... fell just 26 shy of Bobby Douglas' NFL record of 968 rushing yds by a QB (1972) ... his 942 rushing yds ranked 4th in the NFC and 9th in the NFL overall ... top runs were a 52-yd TD vs. N.E. (the longest run of his career) and, a 17-yd TD run vs. G.B. on which he hurdled a Packer defender at the goal line, prompting CBS-TV analyst John Madden to say he "set a new long jump and high jump record" ... for the second time in his career, was the NFC off. player of the month in Nov. after leading the Birds to a 4-0 record, this time with these #s: 102-59-815-1-10TDs passing and 29-249-2TDs rushing ... had one of the best all-around games of his career vs. N.E., running for 124 yds and 1 TD (the 5th highest NFL total ever for a QB) and throwing for 240 yds & 4 TDs ... as such, he became the first QB ever to throw 4 TDs and rush for 100+ yds in a game and only the second QB to pass for 200+ yds and rush for 100+ yds in a game (Tobin Rote did it twice 11/22/51 and 10/12/52) ... made his 100th career TD pass (12/2 @Buf.) a memorable one as he avoided a safety by Bruce Smith, scrambled, and threw the ball 60 yds into the wind to Fred Barnett who then completed a 95-yd scoring play (Cunningham's career longest, the 2nd longest in Eagles' history, and longest in the NFL in 1990) ... 1989: Was hindered somewhat with top pass catching targets Mike Quick and Keith Jackson sidelined by injury much of the year ... still used his outstanding ability to engineer some key rallies ... as a passer, ranked 2nd in NFC/3rd in NFL in atts., 3rd/5th in comps., 6th/10th in ydg., 5th/9th in TDs ... was the NFL's leading rusher among QBs (11th in NFC overall) and the first QB in modern NFL history to lead his team in rushing three straight years ... had the best passing game of his career @Wash. (9/17) where he turned a 20-point deficit into a victory with career-high passing figures for yds (447 - an Eagles' record), compl. (34), and TDs (5, including three in the 4th qtr.) en route to NFL offensive player-of-the-week honors ... threw for 401 yds on a team-record 62 atts. @Chi. (10/2) ... ran for 2 TDs and led two 4th qtr. TD drives in a 20-19 comeback win vs. NYG (10/8) ... truly was a triple-threat with a key 91-yd punt - the longest in Eagle history and the then 3rd longest (4th entering 1994) ever in the NFL - in a big victory @NYG 12/3 ... was voted to the Pro Bowl as an alternate but started the game in the absence of Joe Montana, Don Majkowski, and Jim Everett ... 1988: Capped an outstanding season by being selected as a starting QB in the Pro Bowl and was MVP in that game ... also received the Bert Bell Award as the NFL player-of-the-year from the Maxwell Football Club and NFC P.O.Yr. honors from the Washington Touchdown Club ... was Associated Press' runner-up to Boomer Esiason as NFL MVP and to Roger Craig as the league's offensive player-of-the-year ... set Eagles' single-season passing marks for atts. (560 - 1st, NFC), comps. (301 - 2nd, NFC), and yds (3,808 - 2nd, NFC) ... also had a personal-best 6 rushing TDs and became the first NFL QB to lead his team in rushing yds two straight years since the Packers' Tobin Rote (1951-52) ... led Birds to victories by engineering late 4th qtr. rallies @Pitt., vs. Dal., and in OT @NYG ... was named NFC offensive player-of-the-week after a brilliant effort in his first-ever Monday Night Football game - when he set his then single-game passing highs for comps. (31), yds (369) and TDs (3, tie) - in a 24-13 win over NYG (10/10) ... was NFC player of the month in Nov. after leading Eagles to a 4-0 record while accounting for 81.5% of their total offense (1,096 of 1,369 yds) ... had an 18-game TD pass streak (the longest of his career) broken @Cleve. ... 1987: In his first full season as a starter, was selected by his peers as the 1st alternate at QB to the NFC Pro Bowl squad and by teammates as the Eagles' offensive MVP ... ranked 6th in the NFC with a passer rating of 83.0 ... threw 118 straight passes without an INT (incl. 3 full games and 2 OTs), the 2nd longest such streak of his career ... also was the leading rusher among NFL QBs and the first QB to lead his team in rushing since Bobby Douglas (968) led Chicago in 1972 ... led consecutive come-from-behind wins @StL and vs. Wash - at StL (11/1), earned NFC off. P.O.Wk. honors after throwing 3 TD passes, incl. the 9-yd. game-winner to Gregg Garrity with 0:50 to play that capped a 70-yd drive; vs. Wash., threw for 3 TDs and capped the day with a 74-yd drive culminating in a 40-yd TD pass to Garrity with 1:06 to go ... 1986: Spent first half of the season as Birds' 3rd down-and-long specialist at QB before starting 5 of the final 6 games in place of Ron Jaworski who injured a finger while attempting a pass vs. NYG ... led Eagles in rushing TDs and finished 2nd in rushing ... in those 5 starts, was impressive as a passer (83-150-55-3-4-5 TDs) ... had 110 rushing yds vs. Det. (11/16), then the 2nd highest total ever by an Eagles' QB (Jack Concannon ran for 129 vs. Pitt. 12/4/66) ... 1985: Was the Eagles' 2nd round draft choice, the first QB and 37th player chosen overall ... started games 2-5; rushed for 90 yds vs. Rams in his first pro start (9/15) ... threw his first career TD pass at Wash. (9/22), a 17-ydr to RB Earnest Jackson.

COLLEGE: Was only the third quarterback in NCAA history to throw for over 2,500 yds. in three straight seasons (John Elway and Doug Flutie preceded him) ... progressed from 4th-string as freshman (when he considered on his own a switch to wide receiver) to starter by the second game of his sophomore season and went on to set every Pacific Coast Athletic Association and UNLV passing record, including comp. pctg. (57.9), comp. (614), yds (8,290), and TDs (60) ... as a punter, posted a 45.2-yd career avg. and was a 1st team Kodak/Coaches All-America pick as a junior ... chosen All-PCAA 1st team QB and punter three straight years ... was the first two-time PCAA player of the year (1983-84) ... caught a 10-yd TD pass from current Chargers' WR Vance Johnson in East-West Shrine game.

PERSONAL: Was married to Felicity de Jager on 5/8/93 ... the couple resides in Moorestown, NJ, during the season and Las Vegas, NV, in the offseason ... donated $100,000 to St. John's Baptist church in Camden, NJ, in Jan., 1990 ... the money was then used to build a gym adjacent to the church and dedicated in memory of Jerome Brown ... was featured in the Eagles' 1992 United Way public service announcement; he also did a similar spot for the United Negro College Fund in 1991 ... has created an anti-substance abuse poster for schools ... hosted two Philadelphia-area shows entitled "the Randall Cunningham Show" in '89 - one on TV (KYW, Ch. 3) and one on radio (WIP, 610 AM) - but limited himself to just TV the last four years (WCAU, Ch. 10) ... was a guest on "The Arsenio Hall Show" three times ... is a member of the "Quarterback Club" operated by NFL Properties, the league's licensing and merchandising arm ... had a candy bar named after him - The Randall Bar - as well as potato chips ... an avid golfer, he teamed with Eagles center David Alexander and golf pro Lee Elder in June '92 to win the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic at Sawgrass (FL) Country Club ... majored in recreation/business ... formerly operated a sign painting business out of his NJ home and now owns a business handling endorsements and promotions called "Scrambler, Inc." ... born in Santa Barbara, CA, and was a football (All-America), basketball, and track performer at Santa Barbara High ... followed in the footsteps of his brother, Sam, a star RB for USC and the New England Patriots ... credits Sam (the best man in his wedding) with being a strong influence in his life ... as a youth, spent endless hours with all three older brothers at a local Boys' Club - Anthony played LB at Boise State, Bruce was a DB at UNLV.

In his tenth season with the Eagles, Cunningham could move closer to Ron Jaworski, the Eagles all-time career leader in several passing categories. The number needed to surpass each mark is in parentheses.

ATTEMPTS

1. 3,918 Ron Jaworski (1,168)
2. 2,751 Cunningham

COMPLETIONS

1. 2,088 Ron Jaworski (549)
2. 1,540 Cunningham

ANTONE DAVIS, T

College: Tennessee

Height: 6-4

Weight: 325

Born: 2/28/67

Draft: 1, 1991

Year Eagle: 4

78

1993 SEASON: The Birds' massive starter at right tackle, Davis showed signs that he is truly becoming a force in the NFL ... was a dominant force in the running game and improved his pass blocking dramatically ... so solid was Davis' play that line coach Bill Muir said, "He is definitely one of the better tackles in the NFL; now it's time for him to take it to the next level and become the best tackle in football." ... joined center David Alexander as the only Eagles offensive linemen to start all 16 games ... was particularly sharp in games 1-4, 6-7 & 10-16 when he held his opponents at bay, allowing only a half-sack (in game 10 vs. NYG).

PRO CAREER: Was chosen in the first round of the 1991 draft by the Eagles who made a draft-day trade, switching first round picks with the Packers and giving up their 1992 first round selection in order to move from the 20th spot to the 9th ... 1991: Davis actually was the 8th player drafted overall as the Jets had previously used their pick in the 1990 supplemental draft ... his blocking in the second half of the season - and during the Birds' six-game winning streak in particular - helped a resurgent running game double the output of its opponents after midseason ... earned NFL all-rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... started all but game 7 vs. N.O. ... 1992: Showed remarkable improvement as he settled comfortably into the right tackle spot and helped the Eagles' rushing attack rank 1st in the NFC and 2nd overall in the NFL ... started 15 regular season games and both playoff games and helped RB Herschel Walker become the first Eagle since '85 to rush for 1,000 yds ... a knee injury @Wash. sidelined him for the following game vs. Phx. ... returned to the lineup for every game thereafter and was a solid performer.

COLLEGE: Was a consensus All-America selection and a two-time 1st team All-Southeast Conference pick as a right tackle at Tennessee ... as a senior in 1990, teamed up with All-American Charles McRae (Tampa Bay's 1st rnd. pick in '91), to give UT one of the best tackle tandems in college football history ... as a sophomore, switched from defense to offense and started at left guard before becoming a fixture at right tackle at mid-season.

PERSONAL: Pronounced AN-tone ... he and his wife Carrie, reside in Voorhees, NJ, during the season and Knoxville, TN, during the offseason ... has a degree in city planning and has taken graduate courses at Tennessee where he received the Chancellor's Citation for his outstanding contributions to the community ... is active with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, American Cancer Society, and the New Jersey State Police "Just Say No" program through which he speaks to students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol ... born and raised in Fort Valley (GA) ... is the youngest of seven children ... attended Peach County (GA) High where he lettered three seasons in football ... was responsible for nominating Woody Freeman, one of his elementary school teachers at Fort Valley Middle School, who was selected as the NFL Teacher of the Month for December, 1993 ... the NFL Teacher of the Month Program was created in 1990 by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and the NFL member clubs to honor primary and secondary school teachers who had a positive influence on NFL players.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1991 (16/15), 1992 (15/15), 1993 (16/16); TOTALS: (47/46)
PLAYOFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1992 (2/2).

BYRON EVANS, LB

Weight: 235

Born: 2/23/64

Draft: 4, 1987

Year Eagle: 8

56

1993 SEASON: In all likelihood, Evans would have finally been on his way to the Pro Bowl were it not for a broken arm that sidelined him for 5 games at midseason and stifled what might have been his finest year as a pro ... at season's end, CB Eric Allen and his 4 interception returns for TDs earned team defensive MVP honors in a vote of the Birds' players; but if the vote had been taken after 7 games, Evans might have been the man ... at the time of his injury, Byron led the club in tackles with 71 ... despite sitting out 5 games with the injury, his lead in that department held up until after the 10th game when he was finally surpassed by LB Seth Joyner ... when the season closed, Evans still ranked 2nd in tackles with 109 while also contributing 1 interception, 9 QB hurries, 3 forced fumbles, & 2 fumble recoveries ... led the Birds in tackles in each of games 2-4 with his biggest stop coming @NYJ where he leveled QB Boomer Esiason short of the sticks on 4th down in Eagle territory to seal a 35-30 win ... on 10/31 vs. Dal., played all but one 2nd half series after fracturing the ulna bone in his right forearm early on ... the injury, however, did sideline him for games 8-12 ... returned to action vs. Buf. and to the starting lineup a week later ... picked up where he left off, pacing the team in tackles in each of the final 3 contests and making big plays ... recovered a fumble vs. NO to set up a TD, and @SF returned a Steve Young fumble 30 yds for a TD, forced a fumble, and registered an INT off Steve Bono.

PRO CAREER: After coming into the NFL with a reputation as a hard-hitting middle linebacker, Evans spent many offseason hours learning the intricacies of the Eagles' defense and made himself into a real quarterback on that side of the ball ... he first mastered the complicated "46 Defense" of former head coach Buddy Ryan, and then the defense implemented in 1991 by coordinator Bud Carson ... along the way, combined that hard-hitting style of play with his growing knowledge of the game to become one of the top MLBs in the NFL today ... with the departure of Reggie White through free agency and the death of Jerome Brown, Evans stepped up as one the leaders of the defense in '93 and finally began to receive the national media attention he so richly deserved but did not receive in previous seasons ... 1987: Originally was the Eagles' 4th round draft pick (the 93rd selection overall) ... played in all 12 non-strike games mostly on special teams ... started for injured MLB Mike Reichenbach vs. Miami and retained #1 role for final two games, leading Birds with 9 solo tackles vs. Jets and intercepting a Jim Kelly pass vs. Buff. ... 1988: After taking over the starting MLB role and leading the team in tackles through 5 games, gave way to Reichenbach, who at that time possessed a greater knowledge of the "46 Defense" ... 1989: Regained #1 MLB role after extensive offseason study increased his ability to lead the defense ... was called the Eagles' most improved player and the NFL's hardest hitting MLB by Buddy Ryan ... led team with 184 tackles and had three games with 20+ stops, incl. a career-high 22 tackles @Chi. (10/2) ... recorded 3 INTs, caused 2 fumbles, and recovered 3 more ... 1990: Although he didn't get the national recognition he perhaps deserved, Evans continued to show the rest of the NFL that he was rapidly becoming one of the best middle linebackers in the game ... quarterbacked the Birds' defense and finished 2nd on the club with 112 tackles ... also was one of 4 captains ... intercepted a deflected Phil Simms pass vs. NYG on 11/25 and went 22 yds. for his first career TD ... was Eagles' defensive player of the game on 11/12 vs. Wash. after making 11 tackles and deflecting a Stan Humphries pass that was INT'd by Reggie White ... 1991: Finished the season ranked fifth on the team with 111 tackles ... served as the defensive signal caller and helped Birds become only the sixth team in NFL history to finish a season ranked #1 in the NFL across the board vs. the pass, the run, and overall in terms of fewest yards allowed ... made a season-high 15 tackles vs. S.F. and registered his only interception @Phx. off Tom Tupa ... was named by coach Rich Kotite as a defensive co-captain along with Reggie White ... 1992: Put together his best season to date, a year many felt was deserving of his first berth in the Pro Bowl ... his fine play was, however, recognized by Pro Football Weekly which named him to its 1st team All-NFC squad ... the Birds' defensive signal caller finished the year as the club's leading tackler with 175 stops and tied for the team lead in both forced fumbles (3) and interceptions (4) ... was one of the club's top big-play makers ... set up 2 TDs vs. Dal. (10/5) - one with an INT off Troy Aikman and one with a forced fumble ... two weeks later he prevented a Redskins' score, intercepting a Mark Rypien pass in the end zone and returned it 43 yds. ... vs. Phx. (10/25), made a season-high 20 tackles and forced a fumble that led to an Eagles' TD in a 7-3 win ... at Dal., made 13 tackles and set up the Eagles at the D12 with his 3rd INT of the year (and his 2nd in '92 off Aikman) ... made two more big plays @GB with a forced fumble that led to a FG and a 4th qtr INT off Brett Favre that nearly sealed a win (before 2 Birds' fumbles helped GB stage a comeback) ... he then tipped a Rypien pass in game 15 vs. Wash. that William Thomas INT'd at the P19 to help earn a win and a playoff berth.

COLLEGE: Was a 2nd team All-America and 1st team All-PAC 10 selection as a senior at Arizona ... also was PAC-10 defensive player of the year and a finalist for the Butkus Award as the top college linebacker in 1986 after leading the conference in tackles (196) for the second straight year ... was NCAA def. player of the wk. after his 29-tackle, 1-sack, 2-forced fumble effort vs. USC ... also was Aloha Bowl def. MVP ... as a junior recorded 118 tackles and was Sun Bowl def. MVP vs. Georgia.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia, PA, during the season and his hometown and birthplace of Phoenix, AZ, in the offseason ... over the last four off-seasons, arranged a weekend youth sports camp in Phoenix and enlisted the help of several Eagles' teammates as well as members of the Cowboys and Cardinals; over 800 boys and girls attended the camp this past March ... majored in liberal arts ... wants to be an actor when his playing days are over ... the 6th of 8 children to Dorothy Scott; brothers Clifford and Veryl, and sisters Connie, Cynthia, Crystal, Corliss, and Cora ... was an honor student and all-state LB/QB, and lettered in basketball (guard) at South Mountain High.

Weight: 256

Born: 12/1/66

Draft: 11, 1991

Year Eagle: 4

96

1993 SEASON: After seeing limited playing time in his first two pro seasons, Flores became the Birds' starting LDE for the final 10 games when free agent acquisition Tim Harris was sidelined by an infected elbow ... finished with 49 tackles, including 3 sacks ... originally filled in for the ailing Harris in the 4th Q of games 2 & 4, and even made his 1st NFL start in game 3 in Harris' LDE role ... returned to the starting LDE spot for games 7-16 ... made his 1st NFL sack vs. Mia.'s Scott Mitchell and two weeks later @Wash. posted the first 2-sack game of his career, earning a game ball in the process ... in preseason vs. Atl., caught an 11-yd TD pass from holder Jeff Feagles on a fake FG.

PRO CAREER: As a young defensive end on a team that featured starting DEs the likes of Pro Bowlers Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, Flores saw little playing time in his first two seasons with the Eagles before seeing an increased amount of action on defense in '93 ... but this 11th round draft pick in 1991 earned his NFL stripes on special teams and as a pass rusher in some nickel situations before getting his chance as a starter in '93... 1992: Saw limited action as a pass rusher in 3rd-down situations but played on special teams in 15 games (did not play @Wash.) ... 1991: Started the final two preseason games in place of unsigned incumbent RDE Simmons, registering 2.5 sacks ... made the initial 47-man roster but was one of three players waived two days prior to the opener when veteran starters Simmons, Jerome Brown, and Seth Joyner inked contracts ... was resigned on 9/3 and spent rest of the season on the 47-man squad ... played in five of the eight games for which he dressed, primarily on special teams, but was deactivated for eight other games.

COLLEGE: Broke his own Louisville record with 17 sacks as a senior after notching 13 as a junior ... played alongside DT Ted Washington, San Francisco's 1st round draftee in 1991 (traded to Denver on 4/20/94).

PERSONAL: Mike and his wife Stephanie reside in Marlton, NJ, with their three children, Tarrah (2/24/87), Brittany (2/6/90), and Briona (7/13/91) ... has a BA degree in art and has had several designs published in children's books and flyers ... is the illustrator and creator of a comic book, "Ultimate Man" ... also created artwork for an Eagles' weightlifting T-shirt the past two seasons and has had his artwork featured on a weekly segment of "The Rich Kotite Show" entitled, "Flores Stories" ... is the youngest of eight children - sisters Denise, Maria, Sonya, Voleta and brothers Joe, Gary, and Danny ... attended East High in his hometown of Youngstown, OH ... also enjoys basketball and reading.

ERIC FLOYD, T/G

College: Auburn

Height: 6-5

Weight: 310

Born: 10/28/65

Plan B: SD 1992

Year Eagle: 3

61

1993 SEASON: The Birds' starting right guard since joining the club as a Plan B free agent prior to the '92 season, Floyd was off to a great start in '93 ... that solid beginning came to an abrupt end, however, in game 3 vs. Wash. when he tore the posterior cruciate and medial collateral ligaments in his left knee on a 4th qtr. TD play that tied the game at 24 with 8:23 to play ... then underwent surgery by Dr. Lawrence Lemak at the Alabama Sports Medicine/Health South Clinic in Birmingham, AL, on 9/23 and spent the rest of the season rehabilitating in Philadelphia.

PRO CAREER: Hard work and perseverance has indeed paid off for Floyd, a former rookie free agent who eventually earned a spot on the Chargers' roster in 1990 after two unsuccessful tries in 1988 and 1989 ... after joining the Eagles as a Plan B free agent in the spring of the '92, that same effort helped him earn a spot on the Birds' starting O-line that year and again in '93 until a knee injury in the third game sidelined him for the remainder of his second Eagles' campaign ... 1988: Originally signed with San Diego as a rookie, but was released on the final cut ... 1989: Returned to the Chargers and spent 13 weeks on the developmental squad ... 1990: Started all preseason games at left tackle due to an injury to starter Leo Goeas ... went on to make the roster and started at left tackle in games 1-4, 9, and 16 ... 1991: Played in games 1-2 for the Chargers before a back injury put him on injured reserve for the rest of the year ... 1992: A valuable off-season acquisition, Floyd joined the Eagles as a plan B free agent from San Diego on 4/1 ... started all 16 games and both playoff contests after winning the right guard job in preseason and helped the Birds lead the NFC in rushing ... also helped RB Herschel Walker become the first Eagle since '85 to rush for 1,000 yards ... teamed with RT Antone Davis to form a massive right side of over 600 pounds.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year starter at Auburn after being redshirted as a freshman ... is one of five former Auburn players on the Birds' '94 preseason roster (Corey Barlow, John Hudson, James Joseph, and Rob Selby are the others).

PERSONAL: Was married to the former Aletris Gibbons on 6/16/93 ... the couple resides in Marlton, NJ, during the season and Lutz, FL, during the offseason ... was an all-state offensive and defensive tackle for West Rome High ... also was a state titlest in the shot put and discus ... has been nicknamed both "Pink," for the rock group Pink Floyd, and "Sleepy," after the NBA guard Eric "Sleepy" Floyd; but is commonly called "Pink" by his Eagles teammates ... majored in education.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1990 (16/6), 1991 (2/0), 1992 (16/16), 1993 (3/3); TOTALS (37/25). PLAYOFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1992 (2/2).

1993 SEASON: Started the first two games of the season at strong safety in place of incumbent Andre Waters who was recovering from an infected toe ... was then replaced in game 3 by Wes Hopkins, a long-time Eagle starter who had been reacquired by the club at the end of preseason ... saw action in the next 14 games as a mainstay on special teams and occasionally in the "dime" defense ... finished the season with 27 tackles on defense and 13 stops on special teams.

PRO CAREER: From Detroit to Philadelphia to Tampa Bay and back to Philadelphia again, the scrappy Frizzell has carved out a solid career as a versatile defensive back and valuable special teams player ... returned to the Eagles in '92 after spending a season with Tampa Bay ... prior to that he had played 5 seasons with the Eagles and 2 seasons with the Lions ... has played all 4 defensive backfield spots with the Eagles and has been a key performer in "nickel" situations ... 1992: Was re-signed as a free agent on 10/21 to fill the vacancy created when Andre Waters broke his leg @Wash. on 10/18 ... earned the job over ex-Bill Leonard Smith and former Buc Mark Robinson in a workout ... has been coaching the DBs at his alma mater, NC Central, at the time ... played on special teams in games 7-16, in the "dime" defense in games 8-10, and as a 3rd safety in games 13 & 15-16 replacing LCB Mark McMillian when the Birds went to a 3-safety/1-CB set ... also played FS for the final 1.5 qtrs @SF for the injured Wes Hopkins (knee) ... 1991: Appeared in all 16 games (5 starts) for the Bucs after being signed as a Plan B free agent ... registered 44 tackles ... 1990: One of the Eagles' top special teams performers and a key "nickel" defender, he played in all 16 games and started at strong safety vs Dal. (12/23) ... made 30 tackles and intercepted 3 passes, including a Jeff Rutledge pass vs. Wash. (11/12) that he returned 30 yards for his 1st TD ... earned a game ball after a stellar performance vs. Minn. (10/15) in which he had a sack and an INT ... 1989: Played in all 16 games as a back-up corner and safety and on special teams ... made 27 tkls and INT'd 4 passes ... 2 of his INTs sealed Eagle victories over the Giants and Vikings ... recovered a Phil Simms fumble @NYG and lateraled it to Andre Waters who scored a TD ... 1988: Selected by teammates as the special teams player of the year as he led that unit in tkls (24) ... made 35 tkls on defense and INT'd 3 passes, including 1 thrown by NYG's Phil Simms at the Eagles' one ... 1987: Made 1st pro start at left CB @Wash. in the season opener ... also started last 4 games at right CB ... made 33 tackles and had 1st career QB sack vs. Wash. (11/8) ... 1986: Eagles head coach Buddy Ryan - remembering Frizzell's aggressive play for Detroit in summer workouts with the Eagles - brought him to Philly as a free agent (10/8) after the DB had been released by the Lions (8/26) ... was then waived on 11/6 but re-signed on 11/24 ... 1985: Missed 1st half of season with Det. due to preseason ankle injury suffered vs. Eagles ... 1984: A 10th-round selection of the Lions, he was primarily a reserve DB and special teams player as a rookie ... blocked a punt by Wash.'s Jeff Hayes and made 21 tackles.

COLLEGE: Recorded nine career INTs at North Carolina Central where he was selected All-Carolina Intercollegiate Athletic Association as a senior.

PERSONAL: Played football, basketball, and track while at Rose (NC) HS ... he and his wife Cheryl reside in Raleigh, NC, with their two daughters, Ashley Lauren and Faren ... majored in political science.

WILLIAM FULLER, DE

College: North Carolina

Height: 6-3

Weight: 274

Born: 3/8/62

Free Agent: 1994

Year Eagle: 1

93

ENTERING 1994: This high profile unrestricted free agent from the Houston Oilers was signed to a three-year contract by the Eagles on 3/31 ... the biggest off-season acquisition for the Birds, Fuller was signed to be the club's starting left defensive end.

1993 SEASON: Once again was a top notch pass rusher who started all 16 games at left end for the Oilers ... totals included 37 tackles, a pair of forced fumbles, and eight passes knocked down ... more importantly, registered 10 sacks which rated 10th best in the AFC ... teamed with fellow Oilers' DE Sean Jones (now with Green Bay via free agency) to be the only AFC teammates with double-digit sacks in '93 ... had his best outing in game 11 @Pitt. where his 4 sacks earned him AFC defensive player of the week honors ... it marked the first time an Oiler had 4 sacks in a game since Jesse Baker did so vs. the Chiefs on 9/16/79.

PRO CAREER: Throughout his NFL career in Houston, Fuller, a former all-pro, has combined his abundant strength and quickness to develop into one of the steadiest defensive ends in the NFL today ... in fact, Fuller has registered 8-or-more-sacks in 5 of the last 6 seasons ... Fuller, however, began his pro career not in the NFL but in the fledgling USFL right here in Philadelphia ... a first round pick of the Rams in the NFL's supplemental draft of 1984 (the 21st pick overall), he instead spent his first two seasons as a pro with the USFL's Philadelphia-Baltimore Stars ... granted free agency when the USFL suspended operations on 8/7/86, he then signed with the Rams on 9/10 only to be traded to Houston one week later in a package that sent first round pick Jim Everett to the Rams ... over the next 8 seasons, Fuller became a mainstay of the Oilers defense and a participant in 7 straight postseasons before returning to Philadelphia this spring to join the Eagles as a veteran free agent ... 1992: Enjoyed another productive season for Oilers as he played in 15 games with 14 starts at left end ... missed season's first game and DNS the 2nd due to contract holdout (signed 9/11) ... still contributed 52 tackles, ranked 4th on club in sacks and chipped in a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, and 2 pass knockdowns ... in 26-10 triumph over Cin. (10/25), had 7th multi-sack game of career (2) ... in Oilers 24-21 Thanksgiving Day win @Det., scored his first NFL touchdown by returning QB Erik Kramer's fumble (forced by safety Bubba McDowell) 10 yds for a score ... in 41-38 OT playoff defeat @Buf. (1/3/93), got the first 2 postseason sacks of his career ... 1991: Capped the best season of his career by being voted as a starter on the AFC Pro Bowl squad (his 1st selection) ... other honors included first team All-AFC accolades from UPI, Pro Football Weekly, and Football News ... was named by a vote of NFLPA members as the AFC's defensive lineman of the year ... career-best 15 QB sacks led the AFC and tied for 2nd in NFL (with Eagles' Reggie White, behind New Orleans' Pat Swilling) ... thus became first Oiler to ever lead conference in sacks with 2nd highest total in team history (behind only Jesse Baker's 15.5 in 1979) ... his overall performance earned him the nickname "The Fuller Rush Man" from his teammates ... started all 16 games at LDE and ended up 9th on club's tckl. chart with 54 while pacing all linemen in pass knockdowns for fourth year in row with 4 ... also contributed two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble ... had three multi-sack games and a streak of 6 games with at least a half sack ... had best game of season in 42-14 rout of Den. with 7 tkls, a then career-best 3 sacks, a forced fumble that was returned by Cris Dishman for TD, and a fumble recovery on Denver's 13-yard line that led to a TD ... in a Monday night loss to Phila. (12/2), chipped in with pair of sacks, then had 1.5 the following week vs. Pitt. ... was named AFC defensive player of the week for his 2-sack performance in 17-14 edging of Browns ... started both postseason games ... 1990: Started all 16 games at LE in Oilers' new 4-3 base defense ... tied for 2nd on the club in sacks with 8 and was 3rd in passes defended with 7 ... on Hou.'s first defensive play of season, sacked Atl.'s Chris Miller ... 1989: Played in 15 games with 8 starts, 4 at RE and 4 at LE ... contributed 42 tkls, 6.5 QB sacks (2nd on club), 4 pass breakups (led all DLs), and one forced fumble ... started first 2 games at LE in place of Ray Childress who moved to NT due to knee injury to Doug Smith ... had 2.5 QB sacks in 47-41 OT loss to Bills (9/24) ... was on two-man inactive list for Cle. game (10/29) due to ankle sprain ... started at RE @K.C. on 11/26 in place of Richard Byrd (back) ... moved back to LE in place of injured Childress (leg) for final 2 reg. season games plus playoff loss ... 1988: Appeared as sub in season-opener, then started remaining 15 regular season games at RE ... statistics included 56 tkls, 8.5 QB sacks, a linemen-leading 8 KDs, one INT, and a FF ... his 8.5 sacks tied him with Ray Childress for team's sack lead and also tied for 8th best in the AFC ... was a prime reason why Oilers tied for 3rd in AFC sacks ... in opening win @Indy, had 1.5 sacks and forced a Gary Hogeboom fumble (recovered by Childress) at the Hou. 18 with the score tied 14-14 ... had outstanding game in 38-35 edging of Raiders (9/11) with 2.5 sacks ... got his first NFL INT off QB Steve Grogan vs. NE (9/25) ... in 41-6 defeat of Cin. (12/11), led all players with personal-best 10 tkls plus a sack ... started both playoff games ... 1987: Appeared in all 12 non-strike games with one start ... had his first NFL multi-sack game with a pair against Buf. (9/20) ... got first NFL start vs. Cin. (11/1) in place of injured Richard Byrd ... played in both playoff games ... 1986: Acquired by Oilers from Rams (9/18) along with Kent Hill, the Rams' number one draft choices in '87 and '88, and L.A.'s fifth round selection in '87 in exchange for the rights to QB Jim Everett ... finished with 22 tckls and one sack in 13 games ... had season-high 10 tckls @Cle., then recorded his first NFL sack vs. Minn. (Wade Wilson, 12/14) ... 1985: Playing for Baltimore Stars, earned Sporting News first team All-USFL honors, finishing season with 8.5 QB sacks and 4 FR ... helped lead team to 28-24 win over Oakland Invaders in league championship game ... 1984: Was a USFL territorial selection of the then-Philadelphia Stars ... as a rookie, appeared in 13 games with 12 starts, contributing 57 tkls, one sack, and one FR ... missed 5 games due to broken ankle suffered against the L. A. Express (5/13) ... also started all three postseason games and had a sack in 28-3 title game victory over Arizona Wranglers.

COLLEGE: Was an outstanding defensive lineman at North Carolina where as a senior, he had 81 tkls, and led the team in QB sacks (5) and tackles for losses

(17) ... honors that season included Football Writers, Football News and Playboy first team All-America, plus All-America accolades from Walter Camp, AP, UPI, and Sporting News ... was also first team All-ACC choice and Tar Heels' Defensive MVP ... invited to play in Japan Bowl ... as a junior, was a finalist for the prestigious Lombardi and Outland trophies won that year by Tony Casillas (Kansas City) and Mike Ruth (out of football), respectively.

PERSONAL: William and his wife Precilla reside in Houston with daughters Karen (3/9/84) and Krystal (8/4/88) ... wife is a C.P.A. who holds master's degree from North Carolina ... previously worked in off-season for University of North Carolina's Educational Foundation and is presently on its Board of Directors ... is also on Board of Directors for Juvenile Diabetes Foundation ... father has diabetes, so donated $500 per sack (plus $6,000 in corporate matchings) in 1991 and 1992 to JDF ... while in Houston, was an active volunteer for Special Olympics, Ronald McDonald House, and Boy's Clubs of America ... hobbies include fishing, playing pool, and traveling ... attended Indian River High School in Chesapeake, VA, lettering in football, basketball, and track ... born March 8, 1962 in Norfolk, VA ... majored in psychology.

ENTERING 1994: Was acquired from the San Diego Chargers on 4/6 in exchange for an undisclosed, conditional, 1995 draft choice ... is expected to compete for playing time at left defensive end this season.

1993 SEASON: This scrappy, tenacious, and witty competitor started the first 10 games of the year before his season came to a crashing halt vs. L.A. Raid. (11/26) when he injured his left shoulder ... subsequently, underwent surgery the next week and missed the final six games of the season ... still managed to finish the year as the team's third leading sacker with 4.5 and also had 23 tackles.

PRO CAREER: A former Philadelphia high school football star, Grossman has seen his football career take him from the University of Pittsburgh to the NFL's San Diego Chargers and finally back to his hometown team, the Eagles ... during his five years with the Chargers, Grossman developed into one of the key performers along the defensive line ... quick feet and a powerful upper body combine to make Grossman a force as a pass rusher ... has notched 38.5 career sacks, including 3 for safeties, during his career ... as a member of the Chargers, teamed with fellow first-round choices Leslie O'Neal and Chris Mims to give San Diego one of top pass-rushing units in the NFL ... has shown toughness and durability by playing through injuries and by missing only 8 games in 5 NFL seasons ... 1992: Gained more than 20 pounds during offseason before the '92 campaign and responded with solid year ... started 14 of 15 games and finished the season 3rd on team with 8 sacks ... led Chargers with 2 safeties to tie team and NFL marks, with one coming vs. Indy's Jeff George and one vs. Stan Gelbaugh @Sea. ... named NFL's defensive player of week by The Sporting News after notching season-high 2 sacks, 9 tckls and one forced fumble in 26-0 shutout of Indy ... played his best game in playoffs with a career-high 2.5 sacks in a 17-0 win over KC (1/2/93) ... missed all of the game vs. Raiders (11/29) and most of following game @Phx. with sprained ankles ... returned the following week to notch 1.5 sacks vs. Cin. (12/13) ... 1991: Started all 16 games and was the club's 3rd leading sacker (6) ... posted a season-high 2 sacks and 8 tckls vs. KC (12/15) ... 1990: For the second time in as many pro seasons, racked up 10.0 sacks to finish second on the team in that department despite missing final game @Raiders (12/30) due to rib injury suffered the week prior ... paced team with 2 sacks, 7 tckls, and one pass defense vs. Cin. (9/16) ... sacked Ken O'Brien in end zone for safety @NYJ (10/14) ... 1989: Jumped into starting lineup immediately as a rookie and started all 16 games at RDE ... started slowly but became a pass-rushing demon in 2nd half of the season ... finished 3rd on team and tied for 7th in AFC with 10 sacks, with 9 of those coming in final 9 games ... was constantly in opponent's backfield and recorded second-highest rookie sack total in club history behind Leslie O'Neal's 12.5 in 1986 ...

his 10 sacks also tied KC's Derrick Thomas for the NFL rookie lead while his 64 tckls ranked 7th on team and 2nd among defensive linemen ... consensus all-rookie selection, earning honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, Football Digest, and UPI ... was the eighth player selected overall and the first defensive lineman taken in the '89 draft.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter at defensive end for the University of Pittsburgh ... earned first-team East Coast Athletic Conference honors as senior ... registered 26.5 sacks in three seasons including 12 as sophomore and 7 as senior ... was a college teammate of Mike Chalemski, now an Eagle lineman.

PERSONAL: Resides in LaJolla, CA, with his wife, Deprise, a former mainstay on ESPN's fitness show, "Body Shaping" ... born 3/10/67 in Philadelphia ... was an economics major at Pittsburgh after graduating from Archbishop Carroll High in Bala Cynwyd, PA, a suburb of Philly ... first-team all-state and USA Today honorable mention All-America selection as senior lineman for the Patriots ... in track and field he ranked 2nd in the nation with 63-9 shotput mark ... as a prep senior, was the Maxwell Club Award winner as state's outstanding defensive player ... Eagles' ticket manager Leo Carlin coached Grossman in football at Saint Mathias grammar school ... cousin of former Pittsburgh Steelers' tight end Randy Grossman ... featured on Sports Illustrated's Sept. 1990, cover entitled "Big Mouth", the quick-witted Grossman is known to frequently quip and rip, directing light-hearted and not so light-hearted barbs at both teammates and opponents alike ... nonetheless, Grossman has a genuine soft spot for youngsters in need and while with the Chargers was a key contributor to Bates Street Community Resource Center.

	BRITT HAGER, LB		54
	College: Texas Height: 6-1 Born: 2/20/66 Year Eagle: 6

1993 SEASON: A mainstay of the special teams units and an extra LB in spot situations in his four previous seasons, Hager got a chance in '93 to prove just how talented a middle linebacker he is ... to be sure, Hager again filled the role of a 4th LB in certain alignments (he started @NYG in a 4-4-3 set), but it was in a 5-game stint as the starting MLB that he showed his true mettle ... that opportunity came after starter Byron Evans fractured his right arm in game 7 ... as a result, Hager, whose only prior career starts had come in extra-LB sets, took over the MLB slot in games 8-13 ... Hager seized the opportunity, notching a career-high 15 tackles @Phx. and 13 two weeks later vs. NYG when he also snared his 1st career interception (off Phil Simms) ... his stint at MLB ended in the 2nd Q vs. Buf. when a healthy Evans returned ... he did, however, play RLB in overtime @SF after William Thomas sprained a knee.

PRO CAREER: Throughout his five-year NFL career, Hager has demonstrated an abundance of raw strength, intelligence, and hard work that has enabled him to become a constant on the Eagles roster as a dependable special-teamer and backup linebacker ... was the Birds' 3rd round draft pick (the 81st selection overall) in 1989 with a pick acquired from Chicago in exchange for the Eagles' 5th and 7th-12th round picks ... as a rookie, was the Eagles' special teams player of the year after leading those units with 21 tackles ... saw linebacker duty vs. double-tight end sets ... also played the 2nd half vs. Minn. for injured LLB Seth Joyner (knee), recovering a fumble at the Eagles' 1, and over the next two weeks filled Joyner's role as the only LB used in nickel situations ... 1990: Played on short-yardage defense vs. various multiple TE sets, and - for the 2nd consecutive season - led the special teams in tackles (23) ... made his first NFL start vs. NYG (11/25) in place of CB Eric Allen as the Birds opened in a 4-4-3 defensive set ... started the first 3 preseason games while incumbent MLB Byron Evans was unsigned and led the club in tackles during that time ... 1991: Was an extra linebacker in running situations and played on special teams ... was most impressive in a goal-line stand vs. Cin., making solo stops on 3rd and 4th down from the 2 ... made his biggest play on spec. teams @Cle., recovering Webster Slaughter's fumbled 4th qtr. punt return at the Browns' 1, setting up the game-winning TD in the 2nd greatest comeback victory in club history ... 1992: Was a key extra LB in running situations and provided veteran leadership on special teams before he suffered a herniated cervical disc @GB (11/15) ... was placed on Injured Reserve on 11/17 and missed the remainder of the season after undergoing surgery.

COLLEGE: Was a two-time 1st team All-Southwest Conference choice at Texas ... as a senior, was team MVP, 3rd team All-America (AP), and was nominated for the Butkus Award given to nation's premier LB ... in his final two seasons, wore jersey

#60, the number given to the UT linebacker who demonstrates the leadership and character displayed by previous Longhorn greats Tommy Nobis and Johnny Treadwell ... set school single-season tackle record (187) as a junior, topped that with 195 as a senior (5 sacks), and finished with over 500 career stops ... returned an interception 25 yards for a TD vs. Oregon State in 1987.

PERSONAL: Resides in Austin, TX, with his wife Bridgette and sons Bron (8/5/89), Bryce (5/4/92), and Brayven (6/8/94) ... frequently visits schools on behalf of the NJ State Police's "Say No to Drugs" campaign ... majored in speech communications ... enjoys hunting and deep sea fishing ... rushed for over 1,000 yards and 17 TDs as a senior FB/LB at Odessa Permian High (in his hometown of Odessa, TX) en route to prep All-America honors ... is the 2nd of 3 sons, Kevin and Parker ... given name is Harley Britt Hager.

most ever by an Eagles' defensive tackle ... as such, he bested the mark of 10.5 set by the late Pro Bowl DT, Jerome Brown, in 1989 ... among NFL DTs only Minnesota's John Randle (12.5) had more sacks ... was slowed first by a pulled hamstring and then by a strained achilles that severely limited his playing time in games 3-4 and held him sackless in the first 5 games ... a healthier Harmon, however, came on strong at midseason, registering all of his 11.5 sacks in the last 11 games ... had his best outings vs. playoff clubs, tallying 2.5 & 2.0 sacks in two meetings vs. Dal. and a career-high 3.0 @SF ... after opening the season at the LDT spot, started games 5-6 at LDE for the injured Tim Harris (elbow) ... but it was a return to health and his familiar LDT role in game 7 that started his great run ... also finished with 89 tackles and ranked 2nd on the club with 26 QB hurries.

PRO CAREER: Over the last three seasons, the strong, quick-footed Harmon, has established himself as one of the best all-around, up-and-coming defensive tackles in the NFL ... indeed, Harmon made the rest of the league take notice of him during the second half of '93 when he made 11.5 sacks in the season's final 11 games ... 1991: The Eagles' 6th round pick in 1991 (157th selection overall), Harmon got his feet wet as a rookie by playing on special teams and short-yardage situations and by occasionally spelling Pro Bowl ends Reggie White and Clyde Simmons ... replaced RDE Simmons (bruised elbow) for three plays on a goal-line stand vs. Bengals ... also vs. Cin., played briefly in the 4th qtr. in place of White (hyprextended knee) ... saw considerable action at RDE in preseason (3 sacks) in place of the then unsigned Simmons, including starts against Cin. and Pitt. ... 1992: Displayed a wealth of potential and showed marked improvement every week ... a move from defensive end to tackle in '92 allowed Harmon to display his strength and quickness and provided the Eagles with a glimpse of the bright future for Harmon ... after breaking his left ulna & radius at Atl. in preseason, played with a cast early on and recorded a sack in each of games 2-4 ... earned his 1st start as a DT in that 4th game (vs. Dal.) and forced a fumble that led to an Eagles' TD ... held down a starting DT spot the rest of the season (RDT in games 4-6 & 14-16 and LDT in games 7-13) and was very impressive ... after becoming a starter, made 4.5 more sacks, including 2.5 vs. Minn., and raised his season total to 7.5.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter at Kent State who shifted from outside linebacker to defensive tackle in his senior year ... was the Mid-America Conference defensive player of the year, an All-MAC choice, and honorable mention All-America that season with 91 tackles, including 9 sacks ... as a junior, earned All-MAC honors with 71 stops, including 5 sacks.

PERSONAL: Married the former Kristy Garber on 5/14/94 ... the couple resides in Marlton, NJ, during the season and Kent, OH, in the offseason ... majored in business ... was voted the top lineman in the Western Ohio Conf. and earned all-state honors at Centerville High in his hometown of Centerville, OH ... born in Dayton, OH ... has an older brother, Mike ... enjoys biking.

1993 SEASON: A season that seemed so bright in July - when Harris manhandled Saints' linemen in practice in Tokyo - was snuffed out as an infected elbow slowed him early in the regular season and then sidelined him for the final 12 games ... on 10/8, underwent the 3rd surgical procedure since June on the bursa sac in his right elbow ... this one, performed by Dr. Ray Tesner at the Grant Medical Center in Columbus, OH, found no damage to the joint itself but revealed that the infection had spread to the triceps muscle and sapped his arm strength ... while it had been hoped that this procedure would keep him out only 8 weeks, that timetable was scrapped on 12/17 when Harris was put on Injured Reserve because the elbow was not responding ... subsequently, Harris had a 4th procedure on the ailing elbow in Feb. '94 in order to enhance the rehabilitation process ... after signing with the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent from the 49ers on 4/22, Harris began the preseason by switching from his accustomed role as a rush-linebacker with Green Bay and San Francisco to the left defensive end spot for the Eagles ... originally had surgery in June but the infection re-surfaced and a subsequent surgery kept him out of the final 2 preseason games ... with his play limited by the elbow, he then missed part of reg. season game 2, did not start game 3, and underwent surgery again after game 4 ... ironically, it was in that game @NYJ, his last of '93, that Harris contributed the most, first forcing a Johnny Johnson fumble to set up a TD and, on the next series, knifing thru on 3rd-n-short to stop FB Brad Baxter and force a punt in a comeback victory.

PRO CAREER: One of the premier pass-rushing linebackers in the league while at Green Bay and San Francisco, Harris looks to return to his all-pro form of previous years for Philadelphia in '94 ... a tenacious competitor, Harris has thrived by using a rare combination of strength and quickness to beat opponents off the ball ... consequently, he has led his team in sacks in 6 of his 8 pro seasons (5 times in as many years with the Packers and once with the 49ers) ... 1992: In his first full season with the 49ers, Harris paced SF with 17 sacks, 2nd best in the NFL behind Clyde Simmons' 19 ... was named 1st team all-pro by Football News and USA Today ... registered 3 sacks twice - vs. NYJ and vs. Det. ... had multiple sacks in 3 other contests - 2.5 @Minn. and 2 each @NYG, and vs. Phila. ... also had 1 sack vs. Wash. in the NFC Divisional Playoff and 1 sack vs. Dal. in the NFC Championship Game ... 1991: Acquired by San Francisco in a trade with Green Bay on 9/30 (for a 2nd round draft pick) after holding out all of training camp and the first 5 weeks of the season ... made his 49ers' debut vs. Atl. on 10/13 and went on to team with 49er LB Charles Haley to form one of the game's most dominant pass rushing tandems ... posted 3 tackles and recovered a fumble while lining up at end as an inside pass rusher @Phila. ... forced a critical fumble to preserve a win @Sea. and made 2 sacks vs. KC a week later ... 1990: For the 5th consecutive year, was the Packers' team leader in sacks (7) ... his top effort included 7 tkls, including 2 sacks, and a fumble recovery @Raid. ... 1989: Was voted to the Pro Bowl with a career-high and team-leading 19.5 sacks (2nd in the NFL behind Minn.'s Chris Doleman's 21) ... also was a consensus all-pro and winner of the George Halas trophy, given annually to the league's premier defensive player by the World Almanac ... team leader in forced fumbles (4) and shared the team lead in fumble recoveries (3) ... had 6 games with 2-or-more sacks, including a 4-sack effort vs. Atl. (10/1) that earned him NFC defensive player of the week honors ... 1988: Was the Packers' leader in sacks with 13.5 ... tied Green Bay and league marks with 2 safeties in a season (@ Minn. 10/16 and vs. Minn. 12/11) ... in that first Vikings' contest, he also had 5 solo tkls, 2 sacks, and blocked a punt (which he returned 10 yards for a TD) en route to NFC defensive player of the week honors ... 1987: Recorded 69 tkls and was the team leader in sacks with 7 ... 1986: The Packers' 4th round draft pick (84th overall), Harris made an immediate impact and finished his rookie campaign as the team leader in sacks with 8 ... registered 10 solo tkls, including 1 sack, and a forced fumble in his first start @Cle. (10/19) ... had 2 sacks in the season finale @NYG.

COLLEGE: Established Memphis State's record for most tackles for lost yardage in a season (17 in '83) and career (47-270) as a 3-year starter ... also set MSU's mark for sacks in a game (3 vs. Vanderbilt in '83) ... co-captain as a senior.

PERSONAL: He and his wife, Barbara, reside in Freemont, CA, with their daughter, Marissa Jenni (7/23/88) and son Leonard (12/27/92) ... was a star football and basketball player at Woodlawn (AL) High and Memphis (TN) Catholic and averaged 15 points and 20 rebounds a game during his senior basketball campaign at the latter ... has been involved in activities for Children's Hospital of Wisconsin, Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer, Special Olympics, and Muscular Dystrophy ... has three brothers - Archie, Billy, and Chris ... born in Birmingham, AL.

1993 SEASON: A rookie free agent who impressed the coaches from day one, this quick and shifty running back was called the most pleasant surprise of the pre-season by head coach Rich Kotite ... finished the preseason as the club's leading rusher (34-234-7.0-1TD) ... in the regular season, led the team in rushing TDs and ranked 3rd in rushing yds. (84-297-3TDs) ... early on, was used mostly in the 2nd half of games when Kotite inserted him as a "changeup to throw at the defense" ... in the opener vs. Phx, had a game-high 66 rushing yds on 10 atts., including a 5-yd. TD he set up with a 33-yd. jaunt ... then saw only limited action until re-emerging with a bang in game 9 vs. Mia, leading the club with 61 rushing yds after replacing Heath Sherman in the 2nd qtr. ... that effort, along with a finger injury to Sherman, earned him his 1st starting assignments in games 11-13 ... in that span, had 2 key runs @Wash - a 1-yd TD jaunt and a tackle-breaking 16-ydr. to the W3 on the game-winning 4th qtr. drive ... in the final 5 games, however, saw little RB duty as, first, Sherman returned to health, and then when Kotite teamed James Joseph with Herschel Walker in the "big backfield."

COLLEGE: Finished sixth on Virginia Tech's all-time rushing charts with 2,327 yards and 15th on the school's all-time receptions list with 60 (first among RBs) ...

1993 SEASON: The first of the Birds' two 1st round picks (the 19th selection overall), Holmes turned a slow start into a very strong finish ... was initially set back after missing all of the Eagles' rookie camp in June and the first three weeks of training camp in July due to a contract dispute ... but it was over the course of the final 6 games that Holmes took over the starting right guard spot and showed why he was such a highly touted pick ... early on, was deactivated in games 1, & 3-5, and otherwise played only on special teams ... got his first taste of O-line play vs. Mia. in game 9 when Rich Kotite inserted him at RG in place of veteran Ron Hallstrom for two 2nd half series ... after playing well in that brief stint, was set to continue rotating into the lineup the following week vs. NYG but an injury to starting LT Broderick Thompson early in that game resulted in lineup changes that saw Holmes moved into the RG spot for the rest of that contest and, subsequently, the season ... said line coach Muir, "Lester missed a lot of mental preparation time when he held out of camp. But he made that up and improved by leaps and bounds throughout the season. If he continues to improve that way, he'll be a dominant lineman for many years." ... added Kotite on 12/18, "This kid is coming on; he's going to be a stud for 10 years." ... Holmes was drafted by the Eagles with an extra first round pick awarded to the club by the NFL as compensation for the departure of DE Reggie White to Green Bay through free agency (the Eagles actually traded this pick to Houston for the Oilers' first and third round selections and with the former, selected Holmes).

COLLEGE: Started at tackle in his last three seasons at Jackson State and was a consensus All-America as a senior as well as an All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first team selection in each of his final two years ... in '92 he was the only Division 1-AA player to be nominated for the Outland Trophy, given annually to the nation's top offensive lineman ... in particular, excelled as a dominating run blocker.

1993 SEASON: A key defensive stalwart for the Giants last year, Jackson started all 16 regular season contests and 2 postseason games at both safety positions ... registered 71 tackles and a team-high 4 interceptions (tied with Mark Collins) ... paced the club with 9 tkls, an INT, a forced fumble, and 3 passes defended vs Wash. (11/14) ... during the postseason, posted 7 tkls, a fumble recovery, and 2 passes defended.

PRO CAREER: A solid, versatile safety who was a mainstay in the New York Giants secondary the past five seasons and as a starter on their 1990 Super Bowl champion, Jackson has shown consistently fine play and leadership throughout his NFL career ... 1992: Once again, was a regular in the Giants secondary as he started all 16 games at free safety ... finished 2nd on the team with 79 tackles behind only ILB Pepper Johnson (115) ... led the team with 3 forced fumbles and 4 INTs (the second-highest single-season output of his career) ... also broke up 7 passes and recovered a fumble ... had 11 tkls vs. Sea. and 9 solo stops @Chi. where he also recorded his first INT of the season ... made his 3 other pass thefts in consecutive games vs. GB, @Den., and vs Phi. ... 1991: Missed three games because of an ankle injury but still managed to start 12 of the 13 games he played at strong safety ... finished with 59 tkls, an INT (@Phx.), and 2 passes defended ... 1990: Helped the Giants win Super Bowl XXV by starting 14 games at strong safety and leading the secondary with 83 tkls ... finished 2nd on the team with a career-high 5 INTs, broke up 9 passes, forced 2 fumbles and made 4 QB sacks ... was named NFC defensive player of the week after his performance @Wash. when he recorded 7 tkls and 2 INTs off QB Stan Humphries, the second of which ended a final Redskins rally ... two weeks later vs. Wash., picked off another Humphries pass in the end zone in a Giants victory ... logged 9 tkls vs Phi. and @Ind. ... in Super Bowl run, had 4 tkls in each of his three postseason starts and recorded a pass defended in the NFC title game @SF ... 1989: Saw action in all 16 games, including one start @Wash. in the season opener ... played as a reserve in the nickel defense and on special teams the remainder of the season ... finished with 19 tkls and a FF on defense and 7 stops on special teams.

COLLEGE: Was a first team All-Southeast Conference and third-team All-America selection following his senior season at LSU where he led the nation with 219 interception return yards on 7 thefts ... returned 2 of those INTs for TDs - 100 yds vs. Mississippi St. and 71 yds vs. Tulane ... finished his career with 199 tackles, and 11 INTs, three of which were returned for TDs ... also saw action as punt returner, avg.'g 10.1 yds. per return ... was a team captain as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single ... as a member of the Giants, was active with local DARE programs, American Cancer Society, and the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation ... also has worked to educate and motivate children with learning disabilities in New Jersey public schools ... majored in communications ... was an all-city quarterback at American HS in Miami, FL ... was born in Hialeah, FL.

1993 SEASON: The top backup to starter Mark Bavaro, Johnson played in all 16 games, mostly on special teams and in double-tight end sets ... registered career-highs in catches and yardage (10-81) ... started the opener vs. Phx. & game 3 vs. Wash. along with Bavaro when the Birds opened with 2 TEs ... a solid blocker, Johnson also notched a career-high 3 catches @NYJ and again vs. NO.

PRO CAREER: An extremely solid blocker who has primarily seen action in double-tight end sets, Johnson originally signed with the Eagles as a rookie free agent in 1990 and started all four preseason games during incumbent Keith Jackson's contract extension holdout that year ... was then released on the final cut to 47 (9/3) after the Birds signed Mickey Shuler, a veteran free agent and former Jets' Pro Bowler ... was, however, later re-signed to the practice squad on 10/1 ... 1991: Was released on the final cut when the Eagles trimmed their roster to 47 on 8/26 ... was re-signed on 9/25 after a recurring back injury put veteran backup Mickey Shuler on the injured reserve list for the remainder of the year ... a solid blocker, Johnson played in the final 10 games, mostly in extra tight end sets, and started six games in that role ... made his first NFL reception @Cle. from Jim McMahon ... finished the year with a TD catch in each of the final two games - a 31-ydr (his first pro TD) from Jeff Kemp vs. Dal. and a 6-ydr vs. Wash. ... 1992: Returned to the active roster on 10/14 after being hampered by a preseason hamstring injury that caused him to miss the first 5 games ... earned his first start of '92 in game 8 @Dal. when the Birds opened with 2 TEs ... then started games 9 & 10 as the lone TE.

COLLEGE: Played in all 44 games during his four years at Temple and was 71-725-1TD receiving ... led the Owls in receiving in 1989 with 31 catches (290 yards) ... was 18-242 receiving as a junior and 14-151 as a sophomore.

ENTERING 1994: This former Arizona Cardinal was signed as an unrestricted free agent by the Eagles on 6/6 and is expected to provide the club with veteran depth at linebacker.

1993 SEASON: As a member of the Cardinals, Jones appeared in 7 contests - games 1 & 11-16 - and registered 3 special teams tackles ... was inactive for games 2-10 with a sprained knee.

VETERANS

PRO CAREER: Throughout his four-year NFL career, Jones has been a steady performer on special teams and a valuable backup linebacker ... this former 1990 eighth round selection of the Cleveland Browns spent the last two-plus seasons with Arizona ... in 46 career games with the Cardinals, he logged 21 tackles, 1 sack and 1 interception ... 1992: Enjoyed his finest season in the NFL as he started 2 games (vs. NO 10/17 and vs. SD 12/6) for the Cardinals and recorded a career-best 18 tkls ... his only INT of the season came off the Rams Jim Everett with :12 left to play and sealed a Cards' victory (11/8) ... was placed on Injured Reserve for the final 2 games after he suffered a dislocated ankle vs. NYG (12/12) ... 1991: Signed with the Cardinals as a free agent on 11/13 after being waived by Cleveland on 11/6 ... played in the Browns' first 9 games and then appeared in the Cardinals' final 5 contests ... 1990: Was drafted in the 8th round (the 212th selection overall) by Cleveland and saw action in 11 games ... in his first NFL game, @NO (10/14), blocked a punt by Saints' punter Tommy Barnhardt.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at outside linebacker for Virginia Tech, Jones finished his senior season with 85 tackles and 1 interception ... began his collegiate career as a tailback before switching to linebacker prior to his junior season.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Ashland, VA ... rushed for 1,306 yards in senior year at Lee-Davis HS in his hometown and birthplace of Ashland ... also was a hurdler for the track team in high school ... majored in sociology ... born 3/13/68.

1993 SEASON: A long shot to make the club as a rookie free agent quarterback, Jones got an opportunity and made the best of it ... in preseason, saw action only in the opener vs. the Saints in Tokyo (5-3-42-LG33-0-0TD) but showed enough poise and potential in training camp to earn a spot on the Eagles' roster for 15 of 16 regular season games ... before making the club's 53-man roster as the #3 QB behind starter Randall Cunningham and Bobby Brister, Jones was first waived on the cut to 60 on 8/23 and then re-signed on 8/31 when the roster was upped from 47 to 53, a day after '92 4th round pick Casey Weldon, a QB, was waived ... during the regular season, dressed but did not play as the #3 QB/deactivation in all but two games - game 5 when he was on the practice squad, and game 8 @Phx. when he dressed (but DNP) as the primary back-up to Ken O'Brien who started in place of an injured Brister ... Jones' one-week stint on the practice squad came after O'Brien was signed in the wake of Cunningham's injury ... the move was necessary in order to keep C'gham on the 53-man roster ... Jones then re-joined the 53-man squad on 10/12 after LB Ken Rose went on the injured reserve list with a fractured fibula.

COLLEGE: Played in 26 games - mostly as a back-up - at Georgia where he finished 87-185-1,066-6TDs passing ... had his best game in a reserve role against Temple in '89 as he completed six of ten passes for 166 yards and a 73-yard TD.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Marlton, NJ, during the season and Anderson, SC, during the offseason ... was a high school All-America QB at Hanna High in his hometown of Anderson, SC, where he passed for 4,197 yards and led the team to the state championship as a senior ... majored in finance ... born 7/3/70.

1993 SEASON: The versatile Joseph was used as an H-back, a 3rd TE, a reserve RB, and even flourished as a starting RB alongside FB Herschel Walker in the final 5 games ... ranked 5th on the club in both receipts. & rec. yds. with career-bests of 29-291, including 1 TD ... that score was the game-winner @Wash. where he hauled in a 2-yd toss from Bobby Brister with :46 to play for a 17-14 victory ... although slowed by a preseason hamstring pull, finished the year as a starting RB and established himself as a powerful runner and very capable receiver ... early on, saw spec. teams action and spot duty on offense, mostly as an H-back ... started games 5-6 vs. Chi. & @NYG in the backfield while Heath Sherman rested a sore knee ... thru 13 games, had just 5 rushing atts. but served as a solid blocker and receiver when called upon ... returned to the starting backfield alongside Walker for the final 3 games when coach Rich Kotite went with his "big backs" ... was then 13-46 rush/3-24 rec. vs. the Saints and closed the year in style by registering career-bests of 160 tot. yds of offense and 109 rec. yds. (on 6 catches) @SF ... he also led the club in rushing atts. & yds. (13-51) in that OT win over the 49ers.

PRO CAREER: A big, strong, powerful runner, Joseph, has been a dependable offensive performer and special teamer throughout his three years in the NFL ... 1991: After seeing primarily special teams duty over the first half of his rookie campaign in 1991, this 7th round draft pick emerged over the final 8 games and finished as the Eagles' rushing leader in terms of yards (440), TDs (3), and attempts (135) ... moreover, Joseph finished as the 3rd leading ground-gainer among '91 rookies behind only NE's Leonard Russell (959) and Wash.'s Rickey Ervins (680) ... burst on the scene at midseason first replacing an injured Keith Byars in the 2nd half of game 9 vs. NYG and was 18-68-2TDs rushing ... a week later @Cle., his 89 yds included 23 and 21-yd runs that enabled him to crack the lineup alongside Byars in game 11 ... was then slowed by an ankle injury over the final 3 games ... 1992: After leading the Eagles in rushing as a rookie a year earlier, a preseason knee injury and the emergence of RBs Herschel Walker and Heath Sherman relegated Joseph to mostly special teams duty ... was a key contributor on those units but saw limited action on offense, mainly as an extra tight end.

COLLEGE: Was a versatile RB at Auburn excelling at blocking and goal line running ... finished his collegiate career ranked 6th on the Tigers' all-time rushing list with 2,264 yards and 16 TDs on 452 carries ... also was 69-725-2TDs receiving for his career ... as a senior, started five games at tailback, four at fullback and was 94-413-3TDs rushing, 22-234 receiving ... ran behind two current Eagle linemen - Rob Selby and John Hudson.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Phoenix City, AL, during the offseason ... majored in liberal arts ... as a senior at Central High in his hometown and birthplace of Phoenix City, was a Parade All-America after rushing for 1,569 yards and 18 TDs on 231 carries ... enjoys basketball, fishing, and hunting.

TOM McHALE, T

College: Cornell

Height: 6-4

Weight: 290

Born: 2/25/63

Free Agent: 1993

Year Eagle: 2

68

1993 SEASON: A proven NFL veteran, McHale was signed by the Eagles as a free agent on 9/7 after backup guard Rob Selby's season ended with a knee injury on opening day ... by season's end, McHale had indeed proven to be a valuable acquisition ... after seeing little action in games 2-11, McHale - primarily a guard throughout his career - was forced into action at left tackle in the wake of injuries to starter Broderick Thompson and his replacement, Brian Baldinger ... as such, McHale took over the LT spot in the 3rd qtr. of game 12 @Dal. ... he then started the final 4 games and acquitted himself rather well against tough competition ... in game 13 vs. Buf., made his 1st start ever as a LT and held all-pro Bruce Smith in check ... he then earned game balls in back-to-back wins @Indy & vs. NO, the first of which he earned for his individual effort and the latter when the entire line was so honored ... prior to being inserted @Dal., had dressed but DNP in games 2-4, saw special teams duty in games 5 & 11, and was deactivated for games 6-9 ... began the year with Tampa Bay but was waived on the final cut.

PRO CAREER: After first making the Buccaneers' roster as a rookie free agent in 1987, McHale proved to be a versatile athlete who not only made the switch from defense to offense with Tampa Bay in 1988, but also moved from tackle to guard during the 1989 season ... went on to play in 59 games and start 30 in six seasons with Tampa Bay ... 1987: As a rookie defensive lineman, he spent most of the season on Injured Reserve after suffering a back injury in training camp ... was activated on 11/29 @L.A. Rams and made 3 tackles and recovered a fumble ... finished the year with 8 tckls and 2 QB hurries ... 1988: Moved to offensive line from the defensive line during training camp ... became Bucs' long snapper for 4 weeks when Dan Turk was placed on IR ... suffered a broken thumb during preseason but continued to play ... saw action in 10 games, primarily on special teams ... 1989: Began the year as a backup at right tackle, but moved to LG for 10 games due to injuries along the line ... first NFL start came vs. NO (9/24) ... returned to backup duty 2 weeks later before again taking over the starting LG spot @Cinn (10/29) and for the next 8 games ... 1990: Started at LG for 7 games, but missed the other 9 with a knee injury ... sustained the aforementioned left knee injury against Det. (9/23) and subsequently went on injured reserve ... later in the season, returned to action for the final 4 games ... 1991: Started the first three games at left guard ... saw action at RG @NO (10/20) after an injury to starter Ian Beckles ... returned to the starting lineup in place of injured LG John Bruhin vs Det. (11/10) and was credited by Buc coaches with playing perhaps the most inspired game of his career ... started the last seven games of the season at LG ... 1992: Opened the season as the Bucs' starter at right guard and stayed there until he injured an ankle in game 3 @Minn. (9/20) ... never went to injured reserve, but was inactive or did not play for the next seven weeks ... returned to action for the final six games, but was used primarily on special teams.

COLLEGE: Was a first-team Kodak and UPI Division I-AA All-American as well as an All-Ivy League selection and Ivy defensive player of the year as a senior at Cornell in 1986 ... finished fourth on the team in tackles with 74 and had 13.5 sacks in his only full season at Cornell ... played in 3 games at Cornell as a junior before being ruled ineligible under NCAA transfer rule ... began his college career at Maryland in 1984.

PERSONAL: Tom and his wife, Lisa, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, during the season and in Tampa, FL, in the offseason ... was a two-year letterman in football and track at Gaithersburg (MD) High ... earned all-league and all-county honors in football and was an all-state track performer (shot put and discus) ... also competed in tennis ... enjoys cooking and would like to own a restaurant in the future ... obtained a real estate license in '91 ... picked up a new hobby in '92 - skeet shooting ... Tom's wife Lisa served as a football trainer while obtaining her psychology degree at Cornell ... majored in hotel administration.

1993 SEASON: Despite beginning the year as the starting left cornerback, many observers felt McMillian was just minding the store until a healthy Ben Smith could return to the #1 role ... but by season's end, McMillian would flourish in his own right as the Birds' starting LCB ... indeed, McMillian held down the LCB job through the first 6 games (starting all but game 6 @NYG when the Birds opened with 3 DBs & 4 LBs) before giving way to the bigger, stronger Ben Smith who had been the Birds starting LCB until severely injuring a knee on 11/10/91 ... in games 7-9 McMillian moved into the nickelback role, but by game 10 was back in the lineup as flu & back problems hampered Smith ... held onto the job the rest of the way and played brilliantly in the final 7 games, displaying excellent coverage ability against bigger, stronger WRs ... was most impressive in a Monday night clash @Dal. where he held the 6'3" Alvin Harper to just one catch for 17 yards and knocked down 3 passes ... recorded his 2 interceptions just three plays apart in game 6 @NYG where he picked off a Phil Simms pass only to fumble it away and then bounce back to snatch another Simms offering 3 snaps later.

PRO CAREER: This diminutive (5'7"), but speedy (4.35) cornerback, has established himself as one of the best young coverage men in the league ... what he lacks in size, McMillian makes up for in quickness and desire ... on 12/23/93, signed a series of two one-year deals that will keep him with the Eagles through the 1995 season ... 1992: A 10th round draft pick and the 272nd selection overall, McMillian earned a roster spot with his special teams play and excellent pass coverage ... said defensive coordinator Bud Carson in training camp, "I think he's the best rookie cover cornerback I've ever been around....He's not real big but sometimes he plays real big." ... and that's exactly what he did - played big ... after being primarily a special teamer in games 1-9, came on strong, seeing his first major action on defense @GB as the 6th DB in the "dime" ... then entered games 11-12 as the nickelback, but in the 2nd qtr. of game 12 @SF replaced John Booty as the #1 LCB and played well enough to earn his 1st start a week later when Booty moved to FS for the injured Wes Hopkins ... started every game after that, including the playoffs, and was very solid ... made his 1st career interception off Stan Gelbaugh @Sea. ... said McMillian on his size: "Some people say I'm at a disadvantage, but I don't see it that way. Guys may be bigger but not everybody has the same amount of heart. I think for a guy to be my size and weight in the NFL is a big plus for me. There are a lot of bigger guys who haven't made it this far. Out on the field, I play with an attitude. I have to because the big guys are always going to try and pick on the little guy."

COLLEGE: Was the best man-to-man coverage defensive back at Alabama in 1991 according to Crimson Tide head coach Gene Stallings ... transferred to 'Bama after excelling at Glendale (CA) J.C. ... in two seasons at Alabama he was credited with 21 starts, 72 tackles, and three interceptions.

PERSONAL: Single ... pronounced mik-MILL-an ... resides in Voorhees, NJ, during the season and Los Angeles, CA, during the offseason ... excelled in track as well as football at John F. Kennedy High in his hometown and birthplace of Los Angeles ... was an all-city and all-league sprinter in the 100 and 200 meters ... his uncle, Gary Davis, was a running back for the Miami Dolphins from 1976-79 ... enjoys basketball and running ... majored in broadcasting ... one of five children - has sisters Beverly, Latrina and Regina, and one brother, Raymond.

RICH MIANO, S

College: Hawaii

Height: 6-1

Weight: 200

Born: 9/3/62

Free Agent: 1991

Year Eagle: 4

38

1993 SEASON: A smart, durable safety for the Birds the last three seasons, Miano had arguably his best season as an Eagle and one of the finest of his 9-year career ... started all but games 14-15 at free safety and posted a career-high 4 interceptions, surpassing his previous best of 3 set with the Jets in '87 ... had a theft in each of games 2-4 with the other INT coming in game 9 off Mia. 's Scott Mitchell ... after registering picks off Brett Favre & Cary Conklin in games 2-3 @GB & vs. Wash., came up with his biggest of '93 @NYJ when he one-handed a Boomer Esiason pass to halt a Jets' drive deep in Eagle territory ... his 104 tackles were the third most in his career and ranked 4th on the team.

PRO CAREER: For a man who entered the U. of Hawaii on a diving scholarship and made the football team as a walk-on, no challenge could seem too tough ... but it was an even bigger hurdle that Miano overcame in 1991 when he joined the Eagles as a free agent and resurrected his NFL career, one that many thought was over following a knee injury in 1989 ... the second of two sixth round picks by the Jets in '85, Miano moved up from special teams duty to become NY's strong safety in '87 and '88 ... but his career was put on hold the following year when in week 2 at Cle. he sustained the knee injury that kept him on injured reserve through '90 ... was then acquired by the Birds as a free agent on 5/16/91 and went on to prove he was fully recovered ... 1992: Was slated to once again fill a nickelback role, but after Andre Waters fractured a leg in game 6 @Wash., he started the remainder of the games at SS ... struggled at first due to a lingering knee injury, but played very well in the season-ending 4-game win streak ... finished with 125 tackles, best among the team's DBs and 2nd only to MLB Byron Evans' 175 ... made one INT vs. NYG's Jeff Hostetler (12/27) ... 1991: Proved to be an extremely valuable off-season acquisition ... despite having been out of action since undergoing reconstructive knee surgery in '89, proved that he was all the way back ... played primarily in the nickel defense and made 3 INTs ... started all 5 preseason games in the absence of unsigned incumbent Wes Hopkins, who regained the #1 role for the opener ... INT'd 2 Troy Aikman passes @Dal. (the second 2-INT game of his career and his first pass thefts since 1988) ... notched his 3rd INT off the Saints' Bobby Hebert ... started the season finale vs. Wash. when the Birds opened with their nickel package ... 1988: Started 16 games for the Jets at SS ... finished 3rd on the team in tkls and made two INTs ... made a key INT off Dan Marino @Mia. with 3:46 left to set up the clinching TD ... 1987: Played in all 12 Jets non-strike games and started 11 at SS ... took over as the starter after Lester Lyles was injured on opening day ... finished with a team-high 8 passes defended and contributed 73 tkls, 4th best on the squad ... also tied for the team lead with 3 INTs ... had an INT vs. N.E. in his first start ... earned a game ball vs. Cin. after he returned a blocked FG 67 yds for the winning TD (the only TD of his high school, college or pro career) with 1:48 left to play and then sealed the victory with an INT ... 1986: Played in 14 games, mostly on special teams, and started one (in special formation @Cin.) ... missed 2 games due to an ankle injury ... 1985: As a rookie, played in all 16 Jets games primarily in extra-DB sets and on special teams; made one start as a FS.

COLLEGE: Was a 1st team All-Western Athletic Conference pick as a senior at Hawaii when he led the team in tackles ... a year earlier, was runner-up to the WAC defensive player of the year and a 1st team All-WAC choice ... originally was a diver on the swim team before being a football walk-on in 1980 ... was redshirted in 1981, earned a scholarship, and then broke into the starting lineup in 1982.

PERSONAL: Resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Honolulu, HI, during the offseason ... majored in education ... while recovering from his '89 knee injury, worked as an assistant DB coach at Hawaii ... also has done much volunteer work with the Heart Association, Say No To Drugs, and the Special Olympics in Hawaii ... models in the offseason and was pictured in the September '91 issue of "Muscle & Fitness" magazine ... a workout fanatic, he trains in the offseason with world heavyweight kick-boxing champion Dennis Alexio ... earned all-state honors as a safety and as a diver while also competing in track at Kaiser High in Honolulu, the same school attended by Baltimore Orioles' pitcher Sid Fernandez and Akebono (champion sumo wrestler Chad Rowan) ... was born in Newton, MA, and moved to Hawaii during high school.

ENTERING 1994: Was claimed off waivers from Dallas on 5/17.

1993 SEASON: After catching 4 passes in preseason action, the Eagles' 7th round draft pick was waived on 8/31 when the club reduced its roster to the league-mandated 47 players ... although the Birds intended to re-sign Mickey the following day when roster limits grew to 53, Dallas claimed him off waivers on 9/1 and he spent the rest of the year on the Cowboys roster ... appeared in five regular season games for the Cowboys (0 receptions) but was deactivated for the other 11 as well as for each postseason contest.

COLLEGE: Was a two-year starter for the run-oriented Sooners and caught 12 passes for 188 yards as a senior ... used mainly as a blocker, he finished his collegiate career just 27-351-1TD receiving but was 5 for 55 with two TDs in the 1991 Gator Bowl vs. Virginia.

PERSONAL: Single ... a business major at Oklahoma, he hopes to attend law school when his playing days are over ... an outstanding athlete at Millwood High in his hometown of Oklahoma City, OK, Mickey played every down in his four years there as a tight end/defensive lineman while also starring on the basketball team ... hobbies include playing and watching both basketball and baseball.

ENTERING 1994: Was signed to a two-year contract by the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 3/22 ... enters the season as the NFL's 10th all-time leading scorer with 1,263 points (see chart on page 99) and moved into 2nd place among active scorers behind Nick Lowery (1,473) ... has not missed a PAT since 12/11/88 (@Chi.) as his streak currently stands at 162, the longest in the NFL ... is expected to bring veteran leadership and stability to a position that was one of the club's key weaknesses in '93.

1993 SEASON: Was signed by Dallas on 9/14 to replace the struggling Lin Elliott and went on to help the Cowboys win the Super Bowl ... despite not playing in the first two weeks of the season, managed to finish 3rd in NFC/6th in NFL in scoring with a career-high 122 points ... connected on a club record and career-high 28 of 33 FGs and extended the NFL's longest current streak of consecutive PATs made to 162 by booting all 38 tries ... was perfect in postseason (6-6 FG, 11-11 PAT) including 3 FGs in Dallas' Super Bowl XXVIII triumph over Buffalo ... a 41-yd kick @NYG in OT of the season finale lifted the Cowboys to their 2nd consecutive NFC East crown ... his 3 FGs of 50+ yds upped his career mark to 20, tying him with Nick Lowery on the NFL's all-time list behind Morten Andersen's 22 ... tied a personal best by nailing 5 FGs vs. GB (10/3).

PRO CAREER: A 15-year NFL veteran and a two-time Pro Bowl selection, Murray is regarded as one of the best, and most accurate, kickers in the history of the league ... enters '94 having made 277 of 367 (75.5%) FG attempts, and 432 of 437 (98.9%) PAT tries ... his 277 successful FGs are 10th most in league history, and 3rd among active kickers, trailing only NYJ's Nick Lowery and Pitt.'s Gary Anderson ... ranks 8th on the NFL's all-time FG pct. list by kicking at a 75.4% clip ... spent the first 12 years of his career with Detroit and at the time of his release by the Lions prior to the '92 season, ranked - and to this day still ranks - as the top scorer in Lion history with 1,113 pts ... spent the '92 campaign away from Detroit for the first time in 12 years as he kicked for Kansas City in one game and for Tampa Bay in the final 7 ... a year later, he replaced Dallas' struggling Lin Elliott in week 3 and went on to help the Cowboys earn their second straight Super Bowl title ... 1992: After 12 seasons, was released by the Lions following the '92 Draft (4/29) ... for one week at midseason, filled in for injured KC Chiefs kicker Nick Lowery (groin) and hit a 52-yd FG in his only attempt vs. Pitt. on 10/25 ... was then released 10/27 and spent the final 7 games of the season with TB ... hit 4 of 8 FG attempts, but was 4 for 5 going into the season finale @Phx. where sloppy field conditions led to 3 misses in 3 attempts ... 1991: Murray led the playoff-bound Lions with 97 points, hitting 19 of 28 FGs and all 40 of his PATs ... pitched in with 3 FGs vs. GB (9/8) and vs. Chi. (11/28), to put up his highest point total since '85 ... also added 12 points in 2 playoff games ... 1990: Slowed by a hip injury causing him to miss 5 games, but still hit 13 of 19 FGs and all 34 PATs ... for the first time in his career, did not lead the Lions in scoring, trailing Barry Sanders' 96 points ... placed on Injured Reserve (10/23), but returned on 11/22 vs. Den. and promptly drilled 5 FGs ... surpassed 1,000 pt. plateau with an 8-pt. night vs. Chi. (12/16) ... 1989: Earned his 2nd trip to the Pro Bowl by connecting on 20 of 21 FGs for the 2nd straight year ... his string of 19 consecutive FGs made during the '88 & '89 seasons is still a Lion record ... named All-NFC by Football News ... 1988: Paced the Lions in scoring with 82 pts. and tied a then league record for FG accuracy in one season by hitting on 20 of 21 FGs (95.2%) ... 1987: His 81 pts. led Det. and included a 53-ydr. vs. the Rams on 12/6 ... also filled in at punter during the season opener @Minn. and responded with kicks of 46 & 33 yds ... 1986: Surpassed Errol Mann as the Lions' all-time leading scorer ... his 41-yd FG with 0:12 left @Phila. sank the Eagles, 13-11 ... recorded his first NFL punt - a 37-ydr - @Atl. (12/15) while in FG formation ... 1985: Logged his 4th 100-pt. season in 6 years ... missed extra point vs. Dal (9/15) was his first since 1980 ... 1984: Twice won games for the Lions with a 48-ydr in OT @Atl. (9/9) and a 41-ydr @Min. (10/21) with 0:49 left to play ... 1983: His 113 pts. aided the Lions to their 2nd consecutive playoff appearance ... nailed a career-long 54-yd FG @Cin. (12/11) and matched that feat in the playoffs @SF (12/31), a FG that is tied for 2nd longest in NFL postseason history (Pete Stoyanovich, 58 yds in 1990; Steve Christie, 54 yds in 1993) ... 1982: In the strike short-ened season, was good on 11 of 12 FGs while leading the Lions with 49 pts. ... 1981: In only his 2nd season racked up 121 pts., 46 of those coming by way of PATs - still a Lion single season record ... booted 3 of 4 tries from 50+ yds, including a 53-ydr vs. Chi. (10/19) ... 1980: After winning a training camp battle for the placekicking spot as a 7th round pick, turned in a Pro Bowl season by connecting on 27 of 41 FGs ... led the team in scoring with 116 pts. and hit his first NFL FG, a 52-ydr vs. the Rams (9/7) ... in the Pro Bowl, kicked 4 FGs to become the only rookie ever to win the game's MVP award.

COLLEGE: The holder of virtually every kicking record at Tulane, Murray was in-ducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1987 ... his school records include 84 ca-reer PATs, 45 field goals and 219 points ... also tied a school record with a 52-yd FG as a junior ... was a first-team All-Metro conference selection all four years of his collegiate career ... scored 68 points in his senior campaign and extended a Tulane record with a string of 62 straight successful extra points, earning honor-able mention All-America honors along the way.

PERSONAL: Resides in Detroit, MI, with his wife, Cindy, and son, Robert Michael ... a native of Canada, Murray participated in soccer, track, football and rugby at Spectrum High School in Victoria, British Columbia ... spent most of his childhood in England ... an active participant in the Detroit community, was twice nominated for the NFL's Byron "Whizzer" White Award (given to players who make great con-tributions of time and effort to the community) and also was honored as the Lions' Man of the Year in 1984 and 1985 ... in addition, was chosen the S.E. 	College: Alabama
	Height: 5-11	Weight: 230
	Born: 9/29/70	Draft: 6, 1994
	Year Eagle: 2	Year NFL: 2

1993 SEASON: Was one of six 1993 draft choices to make the final roster ... chosen in the 6th round (163rd overall), this heavy hitter was impressive right from the beginning of training camp ... saw most of his playing time on special teams where he notched 18 tackles ... also saw action at the MLB spot late in game 8 @Phx. when he spelled the injured Britt Hager but was deactivated the next two weeks due to a pulled hamstring ... returned to special teams duty in games 10-14, but an ankle injury @Indy led to his being deactivated for the final 2 games.

COLLEGE: Was Alabama's starting middle linebacker in each of his last three years of school, including the Tide's 1992 national championship campaign ... finished with 189 career tackles, including 129 solos and three sacks ... also was a key contributor on 'Bama's special teams units his entire career.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia ... majored in criminal justice ... was an all-state inside linebacker as a junior and senior at Hillcrest (AL) High where he also played tailback, rushing for 1,242 yards in his final two seasons ... Derrick's father, Richard, played football at Alabama State ... born in Los Angeles, CA.

	Born: 12/16/62	Draft: Waivers '93
	Year Eagle: 2	Year NFL: 10

1993 SEASON: Said head coach Rich Kotite on 12/18, "William made us a better club the second he stepped off the plane in Philadelphia" ... indeed, Perry played a major role in the defense's turnaround at midseason after he was claimed off waivers from Chicago (11/10) ... on the second play from scrimmage in his Eagle debut, Perry stopped Mia's Keith Byars for a loss ... just that quickly, Perry displayed his biggest asset, run defense, and set the defensive tone for the rest of the season ... started the final 7 games of the season and helped the run defense improve greatly (from 151 yds/game in games 1-8 to 109 yds/contest in games 9-16) ... primarily saw action on 1st & 2nd downs ... said Kotite of Perry at season's end, "He did an awful lot for us on the field and in the locker room. He has a great work ethic. I didn't know much about him when we first got him. All I knew was what I read about him in terms of his weight, about [his relationship with former Bears' coach Mike] Ditka and all that. He was in our locker room at dawn and on the Stair-master for an hour; he lifted and worked out...He was under his weight ....He had a change of scenery that was good for him. He enjoyed football again."

PRO CAREER: One of the NFL's best linemen against the run, "The Refrigerator" has been a defensive stalwart since he entered the league in 1985 ... became the most publicized rookie in NFL history - not to mention a marketing phenomenon - after playing as both a defensive tackle and a bulldozing fullback, the same year the Bears won Super Bowl XX ... although his last appearance on the offensive side of the ball was as a blocker vs. Det. 12/2/90, Perry has posted 3 career rushing TDs ... 1992: In his final full season with Chicago missed all of training camp before signing a new contract on 9/2 ... saw first action in week 2 @NO (9/13) ... earned a start the following week vs. NYG (9/21) and remained in the lineup for the rest of the year ... top efforts included a forced fumble and 7 tckls vs. TB (10/18) and a 7-tckl, 1 sack game vs. Min. (11/22) ... 1991: Led Bears with 3 forced fumbles ... totalled 9 tckls, a sack, and a blocked field goal to preserve Bears' win vs. NYG (9/15) ... received a game ball for his effort @NO (10/27) for a FF and 6 tckls, including key third-down stop late in the game that set up the Bears' game-winning TD ... registered a sack, FF, and 8 tckls @Ind (11/17) and made 8 tckls and 2 sacks of Dan Marino vs. Mia (11/24) ... 1990: Started all 16 games at LDT for the first time since '86, and finished with 70 tckls, also his best effort since '86 ... rotated by series at the DT spots with all-pro Dan Hampton and Steve McMichael ... was awarded a game ball for his 8 tckls, one FF, and a sack @GB (9/16), and @Phx. (10/28) for his 6 tckl/1 sack effort ... had one rush vs. GB (10/7) in goal line situation and lost one yard when hit by LB Brian Noble ... totalled a career-high 13 tckls in playoff loss to NYG (1/3/91) .... 1989: Stepped in as the starting LDT in Week 5 when Dan Hampton was lost for season ... responded with a then career-high 11 tckls and 1 sack vs. TB (10/8) in first start ... later in the season, had 2 sacks and a FR @Pitt. (11/12) ... injured his left knee @Minn. (12/3), was placed on Injured Reserve for the remainder of year and underwent arthroscopic surgery on 12/18 ... 1988: Started first three games of season at LDE before a broken right arm suffered in the 4th qtr. vs. Minn. (9/18) resulted in his being placed on IR (9/22) for remainder of season ... 1987: Started 11 of 12 games at RDT in the strike-shortened season ... for the year, totalled 3 sacks, 2 passes defended, and 55 tckls ... had season-high 8 tckls vs. KC (11/1) ... played a reserve role in final regular season game and vs. Wash. in the playoffs as Hampton moved inside and Al Harris played end ... fumbled on his only carry of the season @Den. (11/16) ... 1986: Turned in solid performance as full-time starter at RDT ... had 10-tckl performances vs. Eagles (9/14) and vs. Rams (11/3) and registered 2 sacks @TB (11/9) ... appeared as fullback in goal line situations, but had only one carry, fumbling vs. GB (11/23) ... 1985: As a Bears rookie, started 2nd half of season at DT, replacing Mike Hartenstein ... although he got his first taste of ballcarrying at the end of a game @SF on 10/13 (gaining 2 yds. apiece on 2 carries), "The Fridge" rumbled to fame the following week on Monday Night Football vs. GB (10/21), scoring on a one-yard run and making a devastating lead block on 2 Walter Payton TD runs ... caught 4-yard TD pass from Jim McMahon @GB (11/3) ... made first pro sack vs. Minn. (10/27) and finished year with 5 ... made 5 tckls in playoff win over Giants and 1 sack vs. Rams ... also had a one-yard TD run vs. NE in Super Bowl XX ... drafted in first round (22nd overall).

COLLEGE: When he signed with Clemson in February of 1980, Perry was the most highly recruited player to ever sign with the Tigers ... after earning Parade and Adidas Prep-All-America honors in high school the ample Perry made an equally big imprint at Clemson ... one of the top collegiate linemen in the country, he was an Outland and Lombardi trophy finalist as a senior when he paced squad with 100 tackles, becoming the first down lineman to lead the Tigers in that category ... all-time school sack leader with 25 (10 as senior) and leader in fumble involvement (caused and recovered) with 15.

PERSONAL: Resides in Mundelien, IL, with his wife Sherry and daughters, Latavia, Norie, and Shanta, and son, William, Jr. ... nicknamed "The Refrigerator" by a college teammate who took note of Perry's wide configuration while standing in an elevator ... was a three-sport letterman at Aiken (SC) High ... brother, Michael Dean, is all-pro defensive lineman with the Cleveland Browns ... hobbies include fishing and playing basketball.

1993 SEASON: One of six rookies to make the opening day roster, Reid spent most of his first season learning the intricacies of coordinator Bud Carson's defensive scheme ... while he saw only spot duty in the secondary, head coach Rich Kotite saw enough of him in practice and on special teams to say, "I see him making a real big impact next year. It's just a matter of getting him experience in training camp. He's big, he's strong, he can run, and he's got good hands" ... was deactivated for the first 7 games before seeing action on defense late in game 8 @Phx. due to injuries at the safety position ... then played only special teams until being inserted at FS in the 2nd half & in OT of the season finale @SF where he posted 3 tackles.

COLLEGE: Was a consensus first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection following a senior campaign at N.C. State in which he recorded 88 tackles, 3 interceptions, and a pair of forced and recovered fumbles ... finished his career with 188 tackles (133 solos), 5 INTs, and 28 passes knocked down.

BILL ROMANOWSKI, LB

College: Boston College

Height: 6-4

Weight: 231

Born: 4/2/66

Trade: SF, 1994

Year Eagle: 1

53

ENTERING 1994: Was acquired by the Eagles on draft-day (4/24) when Philadelphia traded its 3rd and 6th round choices in '94 to the 49ers for Romanowski ... the deal, which was consummated prior to the start of the draft, gives the Birds a top-notch replacement at LLB for Seth Joyner who signed as a free agent with Arizona.

1993 SEASON: In his finest season as a pro, this gritty, hard working linebacker led the 49ers with a career-high 105 tackles, including 3 sacks ... led the team in tkls 8 times ... his best game came vs. Cin. (12/5) when he made a career-high 15 tkls and forced a fumble ... also had 2 tkls and a sack for 15 yds vs. Phila (1/3) ... in the playoffs, recorded a team-leading 6 tkls vs. NYG in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/15) and was credited with 5 stops @Dal. in the NFC Championship Game (1/23).

PRO CAREER: In an age of specialization and mass substitutions on every play, Romanowski is a rarity in the NFL - a true, every down linebacker who is called upon to play the run, blitz, and drop off into pass coverage throughout the game ... it was in this role that Romanowski flourished as a starter for the 49ers over the last four years ... moreover, he was durable, starting all 16 regular season games and each playoff contest during that span ... prior to that, Romanowski was a part-time starter and key special teams contributor in his first two NFL seasons when the 49ers won Super Bowls XXII and XXIII ... 1992: Finished his sixth season with the 49ers as the team leader in tackles with 80 ... registered 7 tckls and a pass defended while starting at outside linebacker @NYJ (9/20) after starting at inside linebacker in the first 2 games of the season ... posted a season-high 8 tckls and recovered a fumble @Atl. (11/9) ... recorded 3 tckls, including a sack, vs. Det. (12/28) ... totaled 5 stops, including a sack, and had a pass defended vs. Dal. in the NFC Championship Game (1/17) ... 1991: Started all 16 games and finished the year with 76 tckls, 1 sack, 1 interception and 2 forced fumbles ... posted a then career-high 10 tckls @LA Rams (11/25) ... 1990: In only his 3rd year with the 49ers, Romanowski started all 16 games and finished as the team leader in tckls with 79 ... led the team in tckls 6 times during the season ... played his best game of the year in the NFC Championship Game vs. NYG (1/20) as he finished with a team-high 8 stops ... 1989: Started 4 games and was the team leader in the playoffs with 6 special teams tckls ... made an INT vs. Buff. (12/17) ... 1988: In his rookie season, started on opening day @NO and earned a game ball for his efforts ... went on to start 7 more games but made his biggest play of the season in the 49ers' Super Bowl XXII victory over Cin. when he deflected, then INT'd, a Boomer Esiason pass ... was a 3rd round draft pick and the 80th selection overall.

COLLEGE: As a senior at Boston College, was among the finalists for the '87 Butkus Award given annually to college football's top linebacker as he led the Eagles with 156 tackles ... was selected as the Defensive MVP of the '85 Cotton Bowl with 13 tckls ... had at least 7 tckls in every game as a junior in '86, and intercepted 4 passes for 44 yards ... registered a team-high 150 tckls as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Resides in Milpitas, CA, with his wife, Julie, and newborn son, Dalton James (3/15/94) ... born in Vernon, CT ... in addition to playing football, he lettered twice in basketball and was a standout on the baseball squad at Vernon Rockville High ... majored in general management.

1993 SEASON: The Eagles' special teams captain, Rose was lost for the season in game 5 vs. Chi. when he fractured his left fibula on punt coverage duty ... subsequently underwent surgery by Dr. Joseph Torg on 10/11 and, after being placed on the Injured Reserve list, aided special teams coordinator Larry Pasquale for the remainder of the season ... in particular, Rose manned the coaches booth during games ... had started at the RLB spot in preseason vs. Atl. when William Thomas rested an injured knee.

PRO CAREER: One of the strongest and fastest special teamers in the league, Rose is renowned for his ability on kick and punt coverage units ... although not big for a LB, he is considered by many to be - pound for pound - the strongest Eagle ... for Rose, a truly talented special teams player, the words dedication and perseverance became a way of life ... after beginning his career with the CFL's Saskatchewan Rough Riders from 1983-84 he attended NFL training camps with the Buccaneers and Raiders as a free agent in 1984 and 1985, respectively, but was waived in preseason both times ... he then played with the Tampa Bay Bandits of the now defunct USFL in 1986 before taking one more shot at an NFL job with the Jets in 1987 only to be waived on the final cut ... three weeks later, however, he was re-signed to the Jets' replacement team during the NFL players' strike ... started all 3 replacement games at LB and played well enough to earn a roster spot when the strike ended ... went on to play in 7 more games mostly on special teams ... 1988: Ranked 3rd on the Jets with 5 sacks ... had his best game as a pro vs. the Giants on 12/18, making 3 sacks in a 27-21 victory that, ironically, helped the Eagles win the NFC East crown (an Eagles' victory @Dal. that day, coupled with the Giants' loss, gave the title to Phila.) ... 1989: Was released by the Jets on the final cut to 47 but then re-signed on 9/12 ... went on to lead the club with 22 spec. teams tackles ... 1990: Signed with Cle. as a Plan B free agent and played in games 1-6 under then head coach Bud Carson (Rose's defensive coordinator during his tenure in NY and here in Phila.) ... was then waived on 10/17, re-signed on 10/31, and waived again on 11/6 ... joined the Eagles as a free agent on 11/7 and made an immediate impact on spec. teams ... by season's end was voted as the club's spec. teams MVP by his teammates despite being with Phila. for only 8 games ... saw his first action as an Eagle and earned spec. teams player of the game honors vs. Wash. on 11/12 after leading that unit with 4 tackles ... also saw action on defense @Mia., subbing for DT Mike Golic as a pass rusher ... 1991: Paced the special teams with 21 tkls ... received a game ball @Cle. where his 4th

qtr. tkl of punt returner Webster Slaughter forced a fumble that the Eagles recovered at the Browns' 3 and converted into a game-winning TD to complete the second best comeback in club history ... also was a reserve LB ... in fact, started at LLB in preseason games 3-5 in the absence of unsigned incumbent Seth Joyner and registered an interception off the Colts' Jeff George ... 1992: A co-captain of the Birds' special teams, Rose indeed led those units with 23 tkls ... earned him 2nd team All-NFL acclaim as a special teamer from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Eagles' co-special teams MVP honors from his teammates ... made his biggest play as an Eagle @NYG, blocking a Sean Landeta punt and returning the loose ball 3 yards for a TD to help fuel a come-from-behind victory ... as a back-up LB, saw action in goal-line situations after a neck injury @G.B. sidelined Britt Hager for the season ... was used occasionally in game 12 @SF as a DE in passing situations when Reggie White moved inside to DT.

COLLEGE: Was a solid linebacker at UNLV where he was a teammate of Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham and earned a spot on the All-America Strength team ... as a senior, recorded 54 tackles, 4 sacks, and one interception.

PERSONAL: Resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Thousand Oaks, CA, in the offseason with his wife Jacqueline and newborn son, Stone (2/17/94) ... has a degree in sociology ... the strongest Eagle, Rose bench presses over 500 pounds, squats over 700, and has one of the best vertical leaps on the club ... serves as an assistant strength coach at UCLA during offseasons ... was a regular on the cast of the Home Box Office cable TV series "1st and Ten" (playing a football player named Rose) ... in addition, he has performed in the Bruce Willis movie, "The Last Boy Scout", as well as in Pepsi and Gatorade commercials ... enjoys surfing ... was a football and track standout at Christian Brothers High in his hometown and birthplace of Sacramento, CA.

1993 SEASON: Replaced injured starter Eric Floyd (hamstring) at left guard in the 2nd qtr. of the season opener vs. Phx. but was lost for the season one series later when he suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament and other damage in his right knee .... subsequently had surgery performed on 9/8 at the Alabama Sports Medicine/Health South Clinic in Birmingham by Dr. Lawrence Lemak and spent the rest of the season rehabilitating the knee in Philadelphia.

PRO CAREER: A big, strong offensive lineman who was originally selected by the Eagles in the third round (76th overall) of the '91 draft, Selby was poised to make a push for more playing time in 1993, until a knee injury on opening day shelved him for the year in his 3rd NFL season ... 1991: As a rookie, shared playing time at right guard with starter Ron Solt in games 8-16, playing every other series ... helped the Eagles running game improve over the second half of the season when they out-rushed their opponents nearly two-to-one ... was deactivated for games 2-3 before playing in the final 12 outings ... 1992: Saw limited action on offense but was a regular on special teams ... did see action as an extra tight end in the 3-TE alignment, a set used extensively in games 2 & 7 vs. Phx., and, in fact, started @Phx. when the Birds opened with 3 TEs ... played two-plus quarters vs. Minn. in place of injured RG Eric Floyd.

COLLEGE: As a senior, earned All-America honorable mention acclaim and joined Eagles' first round selection Antone Davis as a 1st-team tackle on AP's All-Southeast Conference list ... was the strongest player at the NFL scouting combine (lifted 225-lbs. 34 times and has bench pressed 545-lbs.) ... started three games at guard in 1987 before receiving honorable mention All-America acclaim at tackle as a junior ... was a roommate of fellow Eagles' lineman John Hudson.

OTIS SMITH, CB

College: Missouri

Height: 5-11

Weight: 184

Born: 10/22/65

Free Agent: 1990

Year Eagle: 5

30

1993 SEASON: A very tough and versatile performer, Smith was voted special teams MVP by his teammates for the 2nd time in 3 years ... earned that honor this time after making 14 tackles and 1 interception and downing several punts deep inside opponents' territory ... was deactivated for the opener due to a thigh injury but then turned it on, seeing action in extra-DB sets and excelling on spec. teams ... in game 10 vs. NYG, played in the nickel and spelled injured LCB Mark McMillian for several 2nd half plays ... then had an outstanding game @Wash., both on spec. teams and at nickelback ... first, on a fake punt by the 'Skins, he INT'd a pass by upback Brian Mitchell, giving the Birds field position at the W27 and setting up a TD; he then knocked down what looked to be a sure Rich Gannon-to-Ricky Sanders TD pass.

PRO CAREER: Joined the Eagles as a rookie free agent on 4/25/90, but underwent an appendectomy during voluntary camp that July and went on the Physically Unable to Perform list for the year ... returned to practice in September, however, and was impressive enough to earn a spot on the 37-man protected roster after the season ... since then, has developed into a quality DB and a solid special teamer and, in fact, was voted by his teammates as the Birds' special teams MVP in 1991 & '93 ... 1991: Despite being voted by his teammates as the club's top special teamer, Smith was perhaps most impressive late in the season in the "nickel" defense ... it was after starting left cornerback Ben Smith was lost for the season with a knee injury in game 10 that Smith saw more action in the secondary ... sparkled in game 16 vs. Wash., earning player of the game honors with a 74-yd TD on an INT off Mark Rypien and a block of a 4th qtr. Kelly Goodburn punt in Red-skin territory that the Eagles' converted into a TD 2 plays later ... also registered big plays @NYG, where his 3rd qtr. INT off Phil Simms set up a game-winning field goal, and @Hou. where his 4th qtr. hit on WR Drew Hill forced a fumble that Smith recovered ... 1992: Saw action on all special teams and on defense in both the "nickel" and the "dime" sets and started game 15 vs. Wash. (12/20) ... was the 2nd leading tackler on special teams with 18 ... made his only INT in game 3 off Denver's John Elway.

COLLEGE: Overcame a shoulder separation as a junior and became a starter at Missouri after transferring from Taft (CA) J.C. ... originally accepted a basketball scholarship at Southern University and played hoops there in 1985-86.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Blackwood, NJ, during the season and New Orleans, LA, in the offseason ... majored in parks and recreation ... earned all-state honors as a senior at East Jefferson High in his hometown of Metairie, LA ... born in New Orleans.

1993 SEASON: Finished the preseason as the Eagles' runner-up to Victor Bailey in receiving with 10 catches for 103 yards, but actually earned a roster spot with a 94-yd kickoff return in the 4th preseason game ... made one catch on opening day in the nickel offense before having his season ended prematurely in game 4 @NYJ when he tore the patella tendon in his left knee on kick coverage ... was subsequently placed on the injured reserve list and, like QB Randall Cunningham and WR Fred Barnett who were also injured in the Jets game, had surgery performed by Dr. Clarence Shields in Los Angeles.

PRO CAREER: A small, but speedy performer, Sydner has impressed the Eagles' coaching staff the last two preseasons with numerous electrifying plays, including 3 TDs ... 1992: After being drafted in the 6th round by the Eagles (the 160th selection overall), Sydner's brilliant preseason included a 90-yard punt return for a TD @Pitt. and 2 TD receptions ... but the play of Plan B acquisition and two-time Pro Bowl kick returner Vai Sikahema forced Sydner to take a back seat ... still saw some action as a kick returner (17-368-21.6) and punt returner (7-52-7.4) ... also was used in a limited role as a 4th WR.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed a fine career at Hawaii where he displayed exceptional speed and elusiveness as a return specialist and wide receiver ... had 82 and 79-yard punt returns for TDs ... finished his four-year career with 117 receptions for 864 yds and 7 TDs to go along with an 11.9-yd avg. on punt returns and a 23.1-yd avg. on kicks.

PERSONAL: Jeff and his wife, Maya, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their son, Jeff Anthony (10/26/93) ... attended Columbus East (OH) High where he rushed for over 4,000 yards in his career ... has three sisters - Donna, Becky and Tina, the latter of whom is married to Duane Ferrell, a forward for the NBA's Atlanta Hawks ... pronounced SIDE-ner.

MARKUS THOMAS, RB

College: Eastern Kentucky

Height: 5-10

Weight: 192

Born: 7/12/70

Free Agent: 1993

Year Eagle: 2

46

1993 SEASON: Although overshadowed by fellow rookie free agent RB Vaughn Hebronn in the preseason, Thomas was one of only three rookie free-agents to make the final roster ... in the process he displayed a great deal of potential with his impressive preseason ... the club's second leading preseason rusher behind Hebronn, Thomas was 29-103-2TDs rushing & 8-95 receiving with highlites including a game-high 10-74-2TD rushing effort vs. Atl. ... in the regular season, however, was deactivated for all 16 games.

COLLEGE: Topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark in three of his four seasons at Eastern Kentucky ... owns the all-time Division I-AA rushing record with 5,552 career yards as well as the NCAA career mark for yds per carry at 6.57 ... earned 1992 first-team All-America honors from Kodak, Associated Press, Football News and Walter Camp.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia ... graduate of Princeton High in Cincinnati, OH ... hobbies include playing pool and listening to music ... born 7/12/70.

	WILLIAM THOMAS, LB		51

	Born: 8/13/68	Draft: 4, 1991
	Year Eagle: 4	Year NFL: 4

1993 SEASON: This fourth-year pro established himself as one of the best up-and-coming outside linebackers in the game today ... made a number of key plays in '93, especially in the 2nd half of the season ... for the year, finished 3rd on the club in tackles with 107, behind only fellow LBs Seth Joyner & Byron Evans ... in addition, had a career-high 6.5 sacks (2nd best on the team), 2 interceptions, and team-highs of 4 forced fumbles & 3 fumble recoveries ... but it was over the final 7 games that Thomas truly displayed his big-play ability ... so big was his impact in that span that head coach Rich Kotite said, "This kid is coming into his own. He's making plays all over the place." ... in fact, Thomas' totals for games 10-16 included 5.5 sacks, 3 FFs (with one being ret'd for a TD and another resulting in a safety), 2 FRs, & 1 INT ... that stellar streak began vs. NYG with a career-high 16 stops, including a sack ... a week later @Wash, earned half a sack and grabbed an INT, off Rich Gannon ... his impressive play continued vs. Buf. when he had a game-high 13 tkls and halted a Bill drive with a FR, as well as @Indy, where he had a FR & sack ... still another sack came vs. NO's Mike Buck as he forced a fumble that resulted in a safety ... finished the season strong @SF with 10 tkls and 2 FFs, one of which came on a sack of Steve Young and resulted in a 30-yd TD return by Byron Evans.

PRO CAREER: After improving steadily since his rookie year of 1991, Thomas truly burst on the scene late in '93 with a flurry of big games and big plays ... now, following the departure of linebacker Seth Joyner to the Cardinals, Thomas will be looked upon as one of the "gamebreakers" on defense for the Birds ... 1991: The Eagles' 4th round draft pick in 1991 (105th selection) took over the starting right linebacker role in game 9 vs. NYG (11/4) ... had begun pushing for playing time at RLB that preseason with a TD on an interception return @Cin. ... earned his keep on special teams and as a part-time LB before shining vs. the 49ers and stepping into the #1 role ahead of veteran Jessie Small for games 9-15 ... did not start the season finale vs. Wash. as the Birds opened with their nickel unit ... made his 1st career sack on 9/22 vs. Pitt.'s Bubby Brister ... 1992: In only his 2nd season, Thomas served notice that he was quickly becoming a versatile outside linebacker with a penchant for big plays ... during the season, he made 2 very timely INTs - the first came @GB off Brett Favre at the Eagles' 7 while his 2nd (vs. Wash.) also halted a scoring drive ... recovered fumbles (vs. Dal. 10/5 & NYG 11/22) and again @Dal. in the NFC Divisional Playoff ... finished the year ranked 7th on the club with 94 tkls, including 1.5 sacks.

COLLEGE: Voted as the Southwest Conf. defensive player of the year, a consensus 1st team All-SWC choice, and an All-America honorable mention pick as a senior when he led Texas A&M with 13 sacks ... as a junior, received All-America honorable mention acclaim after finishing 2nd on the team with 8.5 sacks ... a three-year starter, he played his final 2 seasons at LB after beginning as a free safety.

PERSONAL: William and his wife, Susan, reside in Sewell, NJ ... the couple was married this past offseason (4/23/94) ... majored in sports management ... also lettered in football, track, and basketball at Palo Duro High in his hometown and birthplace of Amarillo, TX ... is a self-proclaimed Nintendo junkie ... is the youngest of three children, brothers Darrell and Charles.

BRODERICK THOMPSON, T

College: Kansas

Height: 6-5

Weight: 295

Born: 8/14/60

Trade: SD '93

Year Eagle: 2

76

1993 SEASON: After being obtained by the Birds in a draft-day trade with San Diego to replace starter Ron Heller (who had signed with Miami as an unrestricted free agent), Thompson proved to be a very solid acquisition ... became a force at left tackle, his least favorite spot on the line and the spot at which the versatile pro had the least experience, prompting coach Rich Kotite to say after the Birds' 4-0 start, "No one player has meant more to this team than Broderick." ... added line coach Bill Muir on 11/29, "Broderick has been a stabilizing force at left tackle. He came to us with no experience at that spot and provided excellent protection on our quarterback's blind side" ... only a severe left calf strain (suffered on the first play from scrimmage in game 10 vs. NYG) halted Thompson in '93, sidelining him for the final 6 games, when he was deactivated each week.

PRO CAREER: Despite being waived by the Cowboys on his birthday as a rookie free agent in 1983, Thompson refused to stay down for the count ... instead, he has gone on to parlay a two-year stint in the USFL into a 9-year NFL career ...

VETERANS

along the way, he earned enough respect from his San Diego teammates that they voted him as their offensive captain in 1990 ... during his six seasons with the Chargers (1987-92), Thompson established himself as a versatile and durable performer who can play both guard and tackle as well as both the right and left sides of the line ... 1992: Was San Diego's starting right guard and helped the Chargers win the AFC West crown ... started all but games 2-5, missing those outings due to a shoulder injury that snapped his string of consecutive starts and consecutive games played at 68 & 71, respectively ... 1991: Started all 16 games for SD for the 4th straight season ... 1990: Was selected by teammates as SD's offensive captain ... moved to RT to take advantage of his excellent strength ... moving back to RT was like returning home for Thompson who came into the league at that position ... 1988-89: Started all 16 games at LG in both 1988 and '89 ... developed into one of SD's top lineman ... 1987: Was acquired by SD prior to the season as a free agent ... as the season progressed he earned more and more playing time, including 4 starts ... often alternated at RT where he made three starts; his other start came at RG ... 1985-86: Played 16 games with Dallas in 1985-86 before being released after the fifth game of '86 ... prior to that, his first experience in pro ball came with the Cowboys as a free agent in their '83 training camp ... was tried as an offensive lineman after a collegiate career on the defensive line but was released on 8/14 ... then pursued a career in the USFL and flourished with New Orleans in '84 and Portland (where that franchise moved to) in '85, starting 36 games at guard and earning All-USFL honors.

COLLEGE: Earned All-Big 8 and honorable mention All-America acclaim as a senior defensive tackle at Kansas ... played two seasons for the Jayhawks after transferring from Cerritos (CA) J.C. where he first played football.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia, during the season and San Diego, CA, in the offseason ... was an outstanding basketball player but did not play football at Gahr High in Cerritos, CA ... collects classic cars ... earned degree in personal administration ... owns Express Communications cellular phone business in San Diego ... also is the owner of a monthly sports newspaper which operates in four metropolitan areas: San Diego, Phoenix, San Francisco, and Orange County, CA ... it covers just about every sport from little league to the major leagues in that particular area ... he plans to start a Philadelphia version entitled "Philadelphia Sports Page" this summer during training camp ... has one brother, Clarence, and a sister, Necie ... born in Los Angeles.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED/INACTIVE: (Cowboys 1985-86, Chargers 1987-92); 1985 (11/1), 1986 (5/0), 1987 (9/4), 1988 (16/16), 1989 (16/16), 1990 (16/16), 1991 (16/16), 1992 (12/12), 1993 (10/10/6); TOTALS: (111/91/6).

1993 SEASON: In 1992, Walker's first season with Philadelphia, he was asked to run the ball, run the ball, and then run it some more ... the result was a 1,000-yard season, the first by an Eagle since '85 ... in 1993, however, Walker excelled primarily at fullback but was asked to do a wide variety of things - run, catch passes, block, and even occasionally serve as a wide receiver or extra tight end ... how'd he respond? ... he actually asked if there was more he could do! And so Walker became a tackler on the punt team and returned kickoffs, too ... he was even on kickoff coverage in overtime of the season finale @SF ... in the end, Walker was voted by his teammates as the Eagles' offensive MVP after leading the club in rushing atts & yds (174-746), receptions (75), and total yds from scrimmage (1,356) ... it was the first time an Eagle back led the team in both rushing yds and receptions since Wilbert Montgomery did so in 1980 ... how did Walker's numbers stack up around the league? ... his 1,356 tot. yds from scrimmage ranked 5th in the NFC and 7th in the NFL ... his 75 catches - the 3rd highest total in Eagles history - led all NFC backs, tied for the lead among NFL backs with Miami's Terry Kirby, ranked 6th overall in the conference, and tied for 12th in the league ... and with those 1,356 combined rushing & receiving yds, Walker topped 1,000 yds of offense for the 8th time in as many seasons ... he also led the Eagles' RBs with a solid 4.3 yds-per-carry avg., his best mark since '86 ... Herschel's best efforts in terms of tot. off. incl. 7 games of 100-yds-or-more - 148 @Wash, 137 vs. Buf, 111 vs. Chi, 108 @Indy, & 102 vs. Wash, and 100 vs. NYG & @SF ... his top rushing days were 89 & 80-yd efforts vs. Chi & NYG, respectively, while his receiving ydgs. bests included 109 @Indy and 103 @Wash ... caught at least 1 pass in every game and in the final 8 contests hauled in 51 passes incl. a 10-103 outing @Wash and a career-high 11-catch (109 yds) effort vs. Buf. ... signed a series of 2 one-year deals on 12/23.

PRO CAREER: One of the fastest and most powerful men ever to carry a football, Walker has gone from Heisman Trophy winning, All-America acclaim as a collegian, to being the biggest gate attraction and most dominant player in the fledgling USFL, to a highly successful NFL career as an extremely versatile back ... a rugged north/south runner, this two-time Pro Bowl pick has carved out a pro career that has seen him pace the NFL in combined net yards (2,051 in '90) and in total yards from scrimmage (1,606 in '87) ... after establishing numerous USFL rushing marks in three seasons with the NJ Generals, Walker has spent the last eight NFL seasons rushing for over 7,400 yds or an average of 930 yds per year ... 1992: After years without a featured running back, the Eagles turned the keys over to Walker who promptly jump-started the rushing attack ... after joining the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 6/22 following his release by Minnesota earlier in the month, Herschel helped the Birds lead the NFC in rushing ... Walker led the team in rushing yds and TDs and became the first Eagle to rush for over 1,000 yds since Earnest Jackson did so in '85 ... by finishing the season 267-1,070-4.0-8TDs, Walker topped the 1,000-yd rushing mark for the 2nd time in his NFL career and became only the 4th Eagle to rush for 1,000 yds in a season, joining Jackson ('85), Wilbert Montgomery (in '78, '79, '81), and Steve Van Buren ('47 & '49) ... rushed for a 100 yds 5 times but also was 38-278-2TDs receiving ... while his rushing yds thru the first 5 games alone surpassed the team-leading 440 yds gained by James Joseph in '91, his season total of 1,070 ranked 8th in the NFC/12th in the NFL ... his 1,348 combined yds from scrimmage ranked 9th in the NFC/13th in the NFL and were the most by an Eagle since Montgomery's 1,923 in '81 ... in the opener vs. NO., hauled in a TD pass and was 26-112 rushing, becoming the first Eagle RB to top 100 yds since Heath Sherman did so vs. Wash. in Nov. '90 ... the next week @Phx. was 28-115 and was the only Birds' RB to carry the ball ... two games later vs. his former team, Dal., he earned NFC off. plyr. of the wk. honors with a 19-86-2TD rushing effort ... again topped the century mark in the Eagles' second clash with Phx., going 20-112 ... despite being held under 100 yds in each of games 8-13 he found the end zone 6 times ... recorded his 4th 100-yd game of the year @Sea. (18-111) and his 5th in the season finale vs. NYG (16-104) ... 1991: As a member of the Vikings, Walker finished as the NFC's 5th leading rusher (198-825-4.2-10TDs) ... his best performance was a 16-126 effort vs. Tampa Bay on 12/8 that included a 71-yd TD run ... also scored 3TDs vs Phx. on 10/27 and was 25-125 at Atl. on 9/8 ... finished 4th on the team with 33 catches (204 yds.) ... 1990: Paced Minn. in rushing atts. and yds (184 for 770) and TDs (9), for the second straight year ... also finished 4th in receptions (35) ... ranked 5th in the NFC in kick returns (22.5) and 14th in total yds from scrimmage (1,085) ... led the team in rushing in 11 of 16 games ... had a season-high 99 yds on 16 carries, including a 58-yd TD vs. Sea. on 11/18 ... tied a Viking record vs. Phila. on 10/15 with 7 kick-off returns ... 1989: Led Minnesota in rushing atts., yds, and TDs despite playing in only 11 games with the Vikings ... spent the first 5 weeks of the season with Dallas ... rushed for a season-high 148 yds in his Viking debut vs. Green Bay on 10/15 ... opened the Vikes' game @Phila. with a 93-yd kickoff return for a TD, their first since 1981 ... was acquired on 10/12 from Dallas, along with 4 draft choices (a 3rd, 5th, and 10th in 1990, and a 3rd in 1991) in exchange for 5 Vikings (RB Darrin Nelson, CB Issiac Holt, LBs David Howard and Jesse Solomon, and DE Alex Stewart), and 8 draft choices (a 1st, 2nd, and 6th in '90, a 1st and 2nd in '91, and a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in '92) ... 1988: In his final full season with Dallas, earned all-pro honors and his 2nd straight Pro Bowl start by becoming only the 10th player in NFL history to gain more than 2,000 total yds from scrimmage ... led the NFC in rushing (1,514) and for the 3rd straight year led the Cowboys in TDs (7) ... also contributed 505 yds receiving ... 1987: Paced the entire NFL with 1,606 total yds from scrimmage and became the first player in NFL history to twice gain more than 700 yds rushing and receiving in a season ... had a career-high 173 yds rushing, including the longest overtime TD run (60 yds) in NFL history at N.E. on 11/15 ... 1986: Led all NFC backs in receptions and yds per carry ... tied a Cowboy record with 12 TDs and set club records for receptions in a season (76) and total yardage in a game (292) vs. Phila. on 12/14 ... those 292 yds vs. the Eagles included an 84-yd TD run (the NFL's longest of the year) and an 84-yd TD reception (the 2nd longest of the season) ... originally joined the Cowboys in August after the USFL folded ... USFL Career: Dominated the USFL, gaining more than 7,000 total yds and scoring 61 TDs in three seasons ... led the league in rushing in '83 and '85 and rushed for more than 100 yds in 26 of 53 games ... his 2,411 yds in '85 is still a pro football single-season rushing record ... was the league MVP that year after having 14 100-yd rushing games (including 11 in a row and three of more than 200 yds), and a league record 233 yds rushing vs. the Houston Gamblers.

COLLEGE: Capped a sensational career by winning the 1982 Heisman Trophy ... became only the seventh junior in NCAA history to win the award after finishing 3rd in the balloting as a freshman and 2nd as a sophomore ... was a three-time consensus All-America pick after rushing for 5,259 yards (3rd in NCAA history) in three seasons at Georgia ... set 10 NCAA records, 15 Southeastern Conf. records, and 30 Georgia marks ... rushed for an avg. of 159 yds per game and 52 TDs in 33 games ... set an NCAA freshman record with 1,616 yds rushing (including 283 yds in his 6th game) in leading the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship ... set an NCAA sophomore rushing record with 1,891 yds in '81 and the NCAA three-year record of 5,259 total yds ... majored in criminal justice.

PERSONAL: Herschel and his wife, Cindy, reside in Villanova, PA, during the season and in Irving, TX, during the offseason with their rottweiler, Al Capone ... born in Wrightsville, GA, and attended Johnson County High where he rushed for 6,317 yards and 86 TDs ... was the Parade Magazine national high school back-of-the-year in 1979 when he rushed for 3,167 yds and 45 TDs ... also excelled as a sprinter in track ... has worked with numerous charitable and educational organizations, studies martial arts (has a 2nd degree black belt in Tae Kwan Do), has danced with the Fort Worth Ballet, and made his own fitness video for children ... also was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic Bobslid Team.

ANDRE WATERS, SS

College: Cheyney

Height: 5-11

Weight: 200

Born: 3/10/62

Free Agent: 1984

Year Eagle: 11

1993 SEASON: Overcame a severe toe infection that slowed him early on, but finished the year playing his typical brand of smash-mouth ball at strong safety ... was on the 53-man roster but did not dress for games 1-7 due to a severe infection to his left big toe ... that infection required surgery on 8/5 that removed one inch from the top of toe ... first dressed for game 8 @Phx. and saw action for most of the 2nd H of that game, replacing injured safeties Wes Hopkins & William Frizzell ... then took over the starting SS job for the remainder of the year and, despite missing the first 7 games, ranked 9th on the club with 64 tackles.

PRO CAREER: This fiercely competitive player is as intense a performer today as he was in his first NFL campaign 11 years ago ... what drives him, he says, is not only a hatred for losing but the notion that out there somewhere may be an unheralded rookie free agent who wants his job, just like he earned an NFL roster spot in 1984 as an unknown rookie free agent from little Cheyney University ... indeed, Waters has carved out a solid career as a scrappy, hard-hitting strong safety and has led the Eagles in tackles in four of the last eight seasons ... 1984: Played on special teams as a rookie and led the team in kickoff returns including a game-winning 89-yard TD vs. Wash. on 11/18 (the Eagles' last kickoff ret. for a TD) ... 1985: Paced the special teams with 39 tkls and saw action as a reserve DB ... 1986: With new head coach Buddy Ryan at the helm, won the starting SS role from incumbent Ray Ellis ... went on to share the team lead in tackles and interceptions, and lead outright in forced fumbles in a season that Ryan felt deserved a Pro Bowl berth ... was NFC def. plyr. of the wk. following Eagles' OT win at Raiders where he led the team with 14 tkls, halted an LA drive with an INT, and returned a Marcus Allen fumble 81 yds to set up the game-winning TD ... 1987: Led the club with 112 tkls and ranked 2nd on team with 3 INTs ... 1988: Paced the Eagles in tkls for the third straight year with 154 stops and shared the lead in forced fumbles ... made a career-high 19 stops and was spec. teams game-MVP after blocking one punt and partially blocking another by Bucky Scribner at Minn. on 9/25 ... 1989: Lost his starting SS job to Todd Bell, a veteran free agent from the Bears, during a preseason holdout ... returned to the lineup, however, following Bell's season-ending knee injury in game 4 @Chi. and went on to rank 3rd on the team in tkls (137) ... took a lateral from William Frizzell after Reggie White forced a Phil Simms fumble and ran 3 yds for a TD @NYG ... recorded team-highs of four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries ... set the tempo for the game in a win over Sea. by blocking a punt ... registered his one INT @Phx. ... 1990: Led the Eagles' DBs and finished 4th on the club with 101 tkls ... due to a nagging knee injury, played only briefly on special teams in the opener, and missed his first game as a pro when he was deactivated for the following game ... returned to action in game 3 at the Rams and led the Birds with 8 tkls ... later suffered a back injury in game 14 vs. G.B. which sidelined him the following week ... 1991: After his 1990 campaign was hampered by an early season knee problem, Waters came into camp in '91 in the best shape of his career ... the result was a season capped by his first team All-NFC selection by UPI ... led the team in tkls for the 4th time ... although passed over in the Pro Bowl balloting, Waters posted numbers good enough to earn a berth in the post-season all-star classic ... in fact, he put together a better season statistically than Chicago's Shaun Gayle (who replaced the injured Tim McDonald in the Pro Bowl) and posted numbers equivalent to those of Chicago's Mark Carrier and Detroit's Bennie Blades, the other safeties on the NFC squad ... registered his only INT of the year off Bobby Hebert in the end zone to thwart a Saints' drive on 10/13 ... 1992: Was leading the team in tkls before fracturing his left fibula @Wash. (10/18) when tackling RB Ricky Ervins ... had surgery on 10/20 by team orthopedist Dr. Vincent DiStefano, who inserted two screws ... was able to return to action in the 2nd half of the NFC Divisional Playoff @Dal. (1/10) ... at mid-season, teammates credited him with spurring them on to a win over the Raiders with an impassioned mid-week talk that reminded them of how they had dedicated the season to the late Jerome Brown.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year letterman at Cheyney University ... earned All-Pennsylvania State Athletic Conf. and Small College All-America acclaim as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Blackwood, NJ, during the season and his hometown of Pahokee, FL, during the offseason ... has a degree in business administration ... donated $500 to NOVA (Network Of Violence Assistance) in Philadelphia for every interception and $5 for every tackle he recorded in '92 ... is extremely active in community events ... was named athlete of the year by Phila. Special Olympics in '88 for his dedication of time and effort and participated in a public service announcement for the group in '90 ... had a drug abuse rehabilitation facility in Reading, PA, named "The Andre Waters Light House" in honor of his dedication to that area's youth ... often speaks at schools on behalf of the NJ State Police's "Say No to Drugs" campaign ... writes a motivational slogan on a strip of tape and affixes it to his forehead beneath his helmet for each game ... born in Belle Glade, FL ... played football at Pahokee High as did Saints' LB Rickey Jackson.

1993 SEASON: After notching 9 TD receptions in 1990 and 7 in '92, Williams topped those efforts with a career-high 10 TD catches in '93 to rank 4th in the NFL in that department behind only Pro Bowlers Jerry Rice (15), Andre Rison (15), and Sterling Sharpe (11) ... also set personal career-highs with 725 receiving yards and 60 receptions to rank 1st & 2nd, respectively, on the club in those categories ... with 60 points, was the only non-kicker in the NFL to lead his team in scoring ... earned NFC offensive player of the week honors vs. Wash. in game 3, his best as a pro ... in that game, posted career-receiving highs of 8 receipts, 181 yds, & 3 TDs, including a career-long 80-ydr, a 9-ydr to tie the game with 8:23 to play, and a 10-yd game-winner with :04 remaining ... followed that effort with TDs in the next 2 games and again broke loose vs. Mia., equaling his career-best of 8 catches, incl. 2 for TDs ... two weeks later @Wash. made 3 of his 4 grabs on the game-winning 4th qtr. TD drive ... also had a big outing @Dal that incl. 2 key 4th down receipts. - a 22-ydr with :01 left in the half that set up a FG, and an 8-ydr to the D8 on 4th down to set up a TD ... starred @Indy with his 2nd 100-yd game of the year, a 6-105-1TD effort ... closed the season with his 10th TD catch @SF ... on 12/23, inked a series of 3 one-year deals making him an Eagle through '96.

PRO CAREER: While he may not be the fastest receiver on the squad, Williams has emerged as one of the Eagles' big play performers, leading the club in TD receptions in three of his first four pro campaigns ... 1990: The third of four wideouts drafted by the Eagles in 1990 (taken in the 5th round as the 133rd selection overall), Williams moved quickly ahead of incumbent Cris Carter and claimed the starting WR spot opposite Mike Quick by the end of training camp and went on to have a fine rookie campaign ... was selected to Football News' NFL all-rookie team after going 37-602-9TDs receiving ... his 9 TDs ranked third in the NFL behind Jerry Rice's 13 and Andre Rison's 10, led the Eagles, and set a Birds' rookie record, surpassing Bobby Walston's mark of 8 set in 1951 ... the 37 receptions were the most ever by an Eagles' rookie WR and the fifth most by an Eagles' rookie overall ... 1991: Was slowed early on by a dislocated shoulder suffered @Dal. ... spent the next four weeks on injured reserve ... was very productive after returning to the starting lineup in game 9 - caught 3 TD passes in the next six weeks, including a 5-yd game-winner from Jim McMahon @Cle. ... went on to post 26-247-9.5-3TDs numbers over the final 8 games and finish with 33 receipts. (326 yds) ... had his best day @Cle. with 6 receipts. for 76 yds, including the game-winning TD ... 1992: Again proved to be one of the NFL's top possession receivers and in the process led the Eagles with 7 TD receptions ... started 15 games and finished 42-598-7TDs receiving ... had what was then the best game of his career vs. Den. when he was 5-108-2TDs with 24 & 49-yd TDs ... in that game, Williams and teammate Fred Barnett (5-102-1TD) became the 1st pair of Eagle WRs to each top the century mark in receiving yds in the same game since Harold Carmichael and Mike Quick did so vs. Wash. on 9/11/83 ... was 5-56 @SF (11/29), including the memorable 14-ydr on 4th-n-15 that left the Eagles an inch short and ended their comeback hopes at the 49er 11 ... finished strong in games 15-16 with spectacular leaping TD catches vs. the Redskins and Giants ... then had the Birds' only TD in the NFC Divisional Playoff.

COLLEGE: After Purdue switched from the wishbone to a pro-style offense midway through his senior season, Williams flourished, tying for 3rd in the Big 10 Conf. that year with 51 receptions (630 yards, 7TDs) en route to team MVP and honorable mention all-conf. acclaim ... was 37-479-3TDs as a junior and 42-585-6TDs as a sophomore ... held a starting job since midway through his freshman year (when he teamed with future Atlanta QB Jeff George before George transferred to Illinois) and finished his career 138-1,855-17TDs receiving.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Voorhees, NJ during the season and Baltimore, MD, during the offseason ... has a degree in hotel and restaurant management ... enjoys cooking and would like to open a restaurant ... also enjoys basketball, tennis, and music ... taped a public service announcement for the United Negro College Fund and the Philadelphia Boy/Girl Scouts in '91 ... attended Dunbar High in

MICHAEL ZORDICH, S

College: Penn State

Weight: 201

Born: 10/12/63

Draft: Free Agent '94

Year Eagle: 1

36

1993 SEASON: Despite serving as the Cardinals starting free safety in the previous two campaigns, Zordich found himself in a reserve role behind newly acquired veteran free agent Chuck Cecil at the start of the season ... did, however, start the final 9 contests in place of the injured Cecil ... posted 54 tackles (7th on club), an interception and two forced fumbles, both of which set up TDs ... notched the 8th INT of his career in the season finale @Atl.

PRO CAREER: Zordich, who began his NFL career as a rookie free agent, has carved out an eight-year stint in the league as a hard-hitting safety on defense and a smart, tenacious performer on special teams ... originally signed by the NY Jets as a rookie free agent in 1987, Zordich moved on to the Cardinals as a Plan B free agent in 1989, and then to the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent on 6/28/94 ... 1992: As the Cards' starting free safety for the second consecutive season, made 61 tackles, intercepted 3 passes, and knocked away 11 others ... made key INT to thwart Wash. scoring drive in first half of victory over the Redskins ... added his 2nd INT of the season in 19-0 shutout over NY Giants (12/12) ... followed suit the next week with another INT, this time setting up a score @Indy ... 1991: Started all 16 games and collected career-best 87 tkls ... batted a ball in air that Tim McDonald INT'd to thwart a late scoring drive in season-opening victory @LA Rams ... compiled a season-high 10 tkls @Dal (11/3) ... 1990: Led all Cardinal non-starters with 27 tkls as a valuable reserve DB ... was impressive in run support as well as pass defense in his role as a situational player ... made a season-best 9 tkls vs. NYG ... helped seal a victory @Atl with a 38-yd INT return late in the 4th qtr. ... 1989: Was signed by the Cards as a Plan B free agent from the Jets on 3/2 and supplied tough, smart play in 16 games, including 7 starts ... made 59 tkls, including a sack, and returned his one INT for a TD ... saw extensive action in season-opening win over Det. after starter Lonnie Young suffered an elbow injury and then proceeded to start next 7 contests until Young's return ... received a game ball for performances in a win over Dallas after he made 6 tkls, scored on an INT and downed a key punt on 5-yd line ... 1988: Appeared in 16 games for the Jets, made 10 tkls and returned one INT 35 yds. for a TD vs. Hou. (9/18) ... also ranked 4th on the club with 19 special teams tkls ... 1987: Signed with NY Jets as a rookie free agent but was released on final roster cutdown on 9/6 ... however, was re-signed by the club on 10/20 and went on to make 9 tkls and one sack as reserve DB and 9 special teams stops in the final 10 games.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Penn State, Zordich earned consensus All-America and All-East acclaim after his senior season ... was a member of the Nittany Lions' '82 national championship squad ... finished his collegiate career as school's 12th all-time leading tackler with 201 stops.

PERSONAL: He and his wife Cindy reside in Garfield, OH, during the offseason with their sons, Michael Vincent (10/29/89) and Alex (7/5/91), and daughter Aidan (5/9/93) ... co-sponsors charity golf tournament with former Eagle QB Matt Cavanaugh in their hometown of Youngstown, OH, during the offseason ... was a football and baseball standout at Chaney HS in Youngstown ... received a degree in hotel, restaurant and institutional management ... born 10/12/63.

1993 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

Game 1, Sun., Sept. 5
Philadelphia 23, Phoenix 17
Veterans Stadium 59,831

Philadelphia, behind the 29-18-192 passing of Randall Cunningham and 10-66-1TD rushing of rookie Vaughn Hebron, won its third consecutive season opener with a 23-17 decision over the visiting Cardinals. Cunningham connected on quick slants, carried the ball on designed runs, and received great protection (0 sacks). The defense held the Cards to 231 yards, including just 48 yds and two first downs via the ground, and benefitted from the Birds' ball-control offense which held the ball nine minutes longer than Phoenix. Philly opened the scoring on its 2nd possession when RB Heath Sherman capped an 87-yd drive with a 1-yd TD. In the 2nd qtr., Eagles' RLB William Thomas intercepted a Steve Beuerlein pass and returned it to the Cards' 8, setting up a Cunningham TD. On their next possession, the Cards got a 24-yd Greg Davis FG to cut Philly's lead to 14-3 at the half. When the Cards stalled early in the 3rd qtr, snapper Kani Kauahi fired the ball beyond punter Rich Camarillo, who recovered the ball and incurred a safety. Trailing 16-3, the Cards drove 68 yds to a TD, the final 27 coming on a pass from 2nd-half starter Chris Chandler (on in relief of Beuerlein) to RB Larry Centers. Hebron then sparked the Birds with a 33-yd run that set up his 5-yd TD scamper in the 4th qtr. Hebron, however, gave the Cards life with 4:00 left as CB Lorenzo Lynch ripped the ball from him and returned it for a 55-yd TD. While again attempting to run out the clock, the Eagles faced a 3rd-n-5 from their 29 but Cunningham ran around end for 6 yds, sealing the victory.

Philadelphia 20, Green Bay 17
Lambeau Field 59,061

Philadelphia battled the Packers and former teammate Reggie White for 59:52 before K Roger Ruzek connected on a 30-yd FG to give the Birds their only lead of the game and a thrilling 20-17 come-from-behind win. In a contest marred by turnovers, the Eagles outgained the Pack 345 yards to 159. With the game on the line in the final minutes, the Birds' defense rose to the occasion, holding GB to just 5 yds on nine plays in their last three series. The Pack had opened the scoring late in the 1st qtr. when Brett Favre hit Sterling Sharpe with a 2-yd TD pass. Shortly afterward, GB converted a Randall Cunningham fumble (forced by White) into a 23-yd Chris Jacke FG. The Birds responded with a 75-yd TD drive capped by a 2-yd Cunningham-to-Mark Bavaro pass to close out the half. But GB looked to take control in the 2nd half when Corey Harris returned the opening kick 45 yds, setting up Favre's 15-yd TD pass to Jackie Harris. Trailing 17-7 after 3 qtrs, the Eagles then rallied for 13 points. First an Eric Allen interception off Favre set up a 27-yd Ruzek FG. Shortly thereafter, Cunningham eluded White and fired a 40-yd TD pass to rookie WR Victor Bailey that capped a 91-yd drive and tied the game with 4:14 to go. The Birds then held GB and used a 13-yd Vai Sikahema punt return to take over at the GB 45. A methodical ground game then drove the ball to the 13, setting up Ruzek's game winner. The win upped the Birds' record to 2-0 for the second straight year.

Game 3, Sun., Sept. 19
Philadelphia 34, Redskins 31
Veterans Stadium 65,435

The Eagles used a classic two-minute drill led by QB Randall Cunningham and a career-high 8-181-3TD receiving day by Calvin Williams to pull out a dramatic 34-31 comeback win over the visiting Redskins. In a game of big plays, including 3 TDs in an 80-second span of the 2nd qtr. and TDs on back-to-back plays from scrimmage twice, the Birds managed a season-high 440 yards of offense including 345 through the air. Philly opened the scoring in the 1st qtr. when kicker Matt Bahr (replacing injured Roger Ruzek) made a 27-yd FG. The 'Skins answered in the 2nd qtr. when QB Cary Conklin hit Tim McGee with an 11-yd TD pass. Washington then converted a Heath Sherman fumble into a 34-yd TD pass from Conklin to Ricky Sanders for a 14-3 lead. On the Birds' next play, Williams turned a 5-yd slant pass into an 80-yd TD and the longest reception of his career. After Eagles' returner Jeff Sydnor fumbled the 2nd half kick, Washington took a 21-10 lead when Conklin hit TE Ron Middleton on a 1-yd pass on 4th down. The 'Skins appeared to be in control until CB Eric Allen picked off a Conklin pass and went 29 yds for a TD at the close of the 3rd qtr. Although the 'Skins added a 38-yd Chip Lohmiller FG, the Eagles answered with an 80-yd TD drive (finished by Williams' diving catch of a 9-yd pass), tying the score at 24-24. Washington then delivered a big blow, when Reggie Brooks raced 85 yards for a TD, the 2nd longest run vs. Philadelphia in franchise history. On the Birds' next series, a 55-yd Cunningham-to-Herschel Walker pass set up a 42-yd FG that cut the deficit to 31-27. After the 'Skins' next drive stalled at the P47, the Birds took over on their 17 with 1:54 to go. Cunningham then led a long drive, connecting on 6 of 9 passes including the game-winning 10-yd to Williams who notched his career-best 3rd TD of the day with 0:04 left. The TD gave the Birds a 34-31 win and a 3-0 start for the 2nd straight year.

Game 4, Sun., Oct. 3
Philadelphia 35, NY Jets 30
Giants Stadium 72,593

The Eagles earned a 35-30 win over the host New York Jets to remain undefeated at 4-0, but paid a heavy price. The 2nd qtr. was particularly devastating as the Birds lost WR Fred Barnett (torn knee ligament) and QB Randall Cunningham (fractured leg) for the season. On the bright side, reserve QB Bubby Brister was superb and the defense again rose to the occasion with timely big plays. This time CB Eric Allen picked off a 4th qtr. Boomer Esiason pass and returned it 94 yds through a maze of tacklers for the game-winning TD, tying the 2nd longest INT return in club history. It also was Allen's 2nd consecutive game with an INT return for a TD, and his 3rd INT in as many contests. The Jets had taken the opening kick and marched 78 yds to a TD, capping the drive with a 7-yd Boomer Esiason-to-James Thornton pass. Then on the Birds' third play, Jets' CB James Hasty stripped the ball from Barnett and returned it to the P14, setting up an Esiason-to-Johnny Mitchell TD. An INT by Ronnie Lott off Cunningham two series later set up a 12-yd TD pass from an Esiason to Mitchell for a 21-0 lead. But the Birds battled back with RB Herschel Walker's 8-yd TD run. Then, following Cunningham's injury, Brister took over in mid-series and finished the drive with a 10-yd TD pass to Mark Bavaro with 0:31 left in the half. In the 2nd half, NY got its 4th TD pass to a tight end and the 3rd Esiason-to-Mitchell scoring strike, this one of 65 yds. But Philly cut the lead to 7 on Brister's 11-yd TD loss to WR Calvin Williams. Then, after holding NY, the Birds drove 87 yds and tied the game with a 1-yd TD run by Vaughn Hebronn. A Rich Miano INT off Esiason gave Philly the ball back deep in its own territory but NY got a safety when Marvin Washington caused Brister to ground the ball in the end zone. Following the ensuing free kick, NY looked to put the game away, driving to the P20 before Allen's highlight-film INT gave the Birds a 35-30 lead. The Jets got one last chance with 2:54 to play and the ball on the NY20. Esiason then hit Mitchell for 34 yds on 4th down. Moments later, however, on 4th down at the P28, Esiason scrambled but Byron Evans leveled him 4 yds short of a 1st down, giving Philly its 3rd straight comeback and a 4-0 record.

Game 5, Sun., Oct. 10
Chicago 17, Philadelphia 6
Veterans Stadium 63,601

Seven sacks by the visiting Bears and 4 Eagles turnovers led to Philadelphia's first loss. The 17-6 setback snapped the Birds' home winning streak at 11 games and marked their first defeat at the Vet since falling to Dallas on 12/15/91. Bubby Brister started at QB in place of Randall Cunningham, whose season ended a week earlier when he fractured his left leg vs. the Jets. Brister, however, threw two interceptions and fumbled twice. Two of those turnovers came deep in Eagles' territory on the Birds' first two series. The result was a 10-0 Bears lead. The first, an INT by DE Richard Dent set up a 37-yd FG by Kevin Butler. Brister's fumble on the ensuing possession then set up a 32-yd Jim Harbaugh-to-Curtis Conway TD pass. And on Chicago's very next series, an 11-play, 66-yd drive ended in a 1-yd Harbaugh TD run to make the score 17-0. That was all the Bears needed as the Eagles' lone score came with just 0:44 to play, when Brister followed up a 58-yd pass to Victor Bailey with a 7-yd TD toss to Calvin Williams. To make matters worse, Matt Bahr's PAT try was blocked, making the final score 17-6. Philadelphia outgained Chicago 276-261 but 65 of those yards came on the Birds' final drive when it was a case of too little, too late. On the bright side for the Eagles, RB Herschel Walker enjoyed his best rushing game of the season with a 15-89 effort.

Giants Stadium 76,050

New York Giants backup RB Lewis Tillman ran roughshod over the visiting Eagles and the rash of injuries plaguing Birds starters continued. As a result, Philadelphia dropped its 2nd straight game, 21-10. The loss snapped the Birds' 5-game winning streak vs. NY and marked only the 2nd Giants win in the teams' last 11 meetings. The Eagles scored first when former Giant Matt Bahr hit a 48-yd FG, but NY answered with a 17-yd Phil Simms-to-Ed McCaffrey TD pass. The Giants struck again in the 1st qtr. with Tillman's 1-yd TD run. On the day, Tillman's 20-169-2TD rushing effort (including a 58-yd scamper) led a NY attack that pounded out 210 yds on the ground. Altogether, Tillman, who started in place of the injured Rodney Hampton, rumbled for the most rushing yds vs. Philly since Gerald Riggs' 29-221-1TD outing at Wash. on 9/17/89. Tillman also became the first Giant to rush for over 100 yds vs. the Birds since Joe Morris' 27-111-2TD effort on 11/9/86. Tillman would later cap NY's scoring with a 10-yd TD run. The Eagles' lone TD came on a 13-yd., 4th qtr scoring pass from QB Ken O'Brien to former Giant TE Mark Bavaro. O'Brien was forced into action when starter Bobby Brister suffered a sprained ankle early in the 1st qtr. on a sack by LB Corey Miller. On the defensive side of the ball, Eagles' DT Keith Millard suffered a sprained knee on NY's first play. Both Brister and Millard were sidelined for the rest of the game. Once again, turnovers (3 of them) hurt the Birds. A Vaughn Hebron fumble inside NY territory killed one drive and led to a Giants TD while an INT by Miller off O'Brien in Eagles territory led to another. The loss dropped the Birds' record to 4-2, good for a 2nd place tie in the NFC East with Dallas, one game behind the Giants.

Dallas used Emmitt Smith's 237-rushing yards and a turnover-free attack to defeat the host Eagles, 23-10. On a rain-soaked day, Smith earned a place in the record books with his 30-237-1TD performance. Smith tied Jim Brown for the 6th best rushing day in NFL history as his 237 yds were the most in a game since Walter Payton's all-time best 275 on 11/20/77. Smith also tied Brown for the most rushing yds ever vs. the Eagles, 32 years after Brown's 34-237 effort on 11/19/61. Philadelphia opened the game with its 3rd starting QB of the year, Ken O'Brien, who was replacing the injured Randall Cunningham (fractured leg) and #2 QB Bobby Brister (sprained ankle). The Cowboys got a 1st qtr. FG and extended their lead to 10-0 when LB Dixon Edwards' sack of O'Brien resulted in a fumble and set up an 11-yd Kevin Williams reverse. The Eagles got on the board late in the half when O'Brien hit Herschel Walker with a 3-yd TD pass. Eddie Murray's 2nd FG upped Dallas' lead to 13-7 late in the 3rd qtr. On their ensuing series, the Eagles drove to the D15 before facing a 3rd-2. Philadelphia then used a play-action rollout that sprang James Joseph free in the flat with a clear path to the end zone but O'Brien's pass fell short, forcing the Eagles to settle for a Matt Bahr FG. Dallas answered with a FG for a 16-10 lead and on their next possession Smith blasted up the middle with a 62-yd TD scamper that sealed the game. Bright spots for Philly, however, included DT Andy Harmon's 2 sacks and the play of CBs Eric Allen and Ben Smith who held dangerous Cowboy WRs Michael Irvin and Alvin Harper in check. For Ben, it marked his first start at LCB since suffering a knee injury on 11/10/91. Offensively, Herschel Walker and Heath Sherman combined for a 29-136 rushing output, but it was not enough as the Eagles dropped their 3rd consecutive game and their 2nd straight to an NFC East foe.

Game 8, Sun., Nov. 7 Phoenix 16, Philadelphia 3 Sun Devil Stadium 41,634

The Eagles dropped their fourth game in a row and their first ever in Sun Devil Stadium, falling to the Cardinals, 16-3. The Eagles opened the scoring on their initial drive with a 27-yd Matt Bahr FG. Phoenix answered with a 75-yd drive, aided by two Eagles' offside penalties on 3rd downs, and capped it with a 23-yd Greg Davis FG. The Cards got another FG on their 2nd drive, a drive also aided by a penalty - a 3rd down holding call that gave Phoenix a 1st down at the E8. Aeneas Williams' 41-yd return of an INT off Eagles' QB Ken O'Brien (starting his 2nd straight game in place of the injured Randall Cunningham and Bobby Brister) set up the game's only TD - a 10-yd Chris Chandler-to-Gary Clark pass. The Cards then closed out the scoring by adding a FG later in the 2nd qtr. Trailing 16-3 near the end of the half, the Eagles appeared to close the gap when rookie WR Victor Bailey caught a tipped Hail Mary pass from O'Brien. Although TV replays confirmed the catch, officials had already ruled the play an incomplete pass. Phoenix dominated the scoreless 2nd half in almost every way - time of possession (22:40-7:20), total yards (165-76), and rushing (136-11). Specifically, the Cards' ground game did in the Eagles. On the day, Phoenix rushed 46 times for 243 yds including 36-160 and 6-59 efforts, respectively, by rookie Ron Moore and Larry Centers. As such, Moore became the 3rd RB in as many weeks to run for at least 160 yds-or-more vs. the Eagles. Likewise, the Cards became the 3rd consecutive team to rush for over 200 yds. vs. Philly and the 3rd straight NFC East foe to upend the Eagles.

Game 9, Sun., Nov. 14 Miami 19, Philadelphia 14 Veterans Stadium 64,213

The host Eagles fell victim to the Don Shula-led Dolphins, 19-14. As a result, the Eagles suffered their 5th straight defeat and Shula earned a spot in the NFL record books as the all-time leader in coaching victories with 325, surpassing George Halas. Miami opened the scoring in the 1st qtr. on an 8-yd pass from Scott Mitchell to RB Terry Kirby. Early in the 2nd qtr., the Birds inserted RB Vaughn Hebron whose outside speed set up a 9-yd TD pass from QB Ken O'Brien to Calvin Williams for a 7-6 lead. Two series later, Mitchell hit WR Mark Ingram with a 69-yd pass to the P2, setting up RB Mark Higgs' TD plunge and a 13-7 Dolphins' lead. Late in the half, however, Hebron's 22-yd run set up O'Brien's 2nd TD strike of the day to Williams, this one an 8-yd, that put the Birds back on top. Early in the 3rd qtr., Mitchell left with a separated shoulder and was replaced by rookie Doug Pederson. A fumble by Hebron (his 2nd of the day) at the P27 then set up a Pete Stoyanovich FG that gave Miami the lead for good, 16-14. O'Brien, who had his finest day as an Eagle (23-37-189-2TD passing), drove the Birds into Dolphin territory early in the 4th qtr. but Matt Bahr missed a 45-yd FG that would have put the Eagles in the lead. After another Miami FG, O'Brien took the Eagles to the M22 only to have veteran WR James Lofton drop a potential TD pass at the 6-yd line on 3rd down. On the ensuing 4th down play, O'Brien fumbled and Miami's Jeff Cross recovered the ball to seal the game. Some bright spots for the Eagles were the inspired return of SS Andre Waters (injured since Oct. '92) to the starting lineup as well as the run-stuffing ability of DT William Perry, who started at RDT just five days after being claimed on waivers from Chicago. The Birds' battered defense, which yielded over 200 rushing yards in each of the three previous weeks, held Miami to 120 rushing yds.

Game 10, Sun., Nov. 21 NY Giants 7, Philadelphia 3 Veterans Stadium 62,928

The Eagles dropped their 6th consecutive decision, this time to the visiting New York Giants, 7-3. The loss also gave the Birds a 4-game losing streak at home - their first such streak since the '82-83 club lost 7 straight at the Vet. The sluggish game saw both teams combine for only 215 yds of offense and 9 punts in a scoreless 1st half. The Eagles twice found themselves deep in NY territory in the 2nd qtr., reaching the 21 once and then starting a drive at the 25 courtesy of an INT by LB Britt Hager, but failed to score. The Giants also struggled in the first 30 minutes, missing 52 and 34-yd FG tries. At QB for the Eagles, an ineffective Ken O'Brien was replaced by Bubba Brister on the final series of the half. Brister, seeing his first action since being injured on Oct. 17, led the Birds to the game's first score in the 3rd qtr. An 11-play drive, highlighted by a 22-yd pass to TE Mark Bavaro, set up a Matt Bahr FG. But a 50-yd Phil Simms-to-Dave Meggett pass led NY to their only points of the day. On the first play of the 4th qtr., Simms hit WR Mark Jackson with a 26-yd TD pass to cap a 3-play, 80-yd drive vs. the previously stingy Eagles. But the Birds' defense, led by Hager and fellow LB William Thomas, continued to pressure Simms and kept Philly in the game. The Birds had numerous chances to take the lead in the last stanza. On 4th-and-1 with 2:27 left to play, however, Brister was tripped while handing off and a 3-yd loss spelled doom for the Eagles. But DE Clyde Simmons stripped the ball from NY's Rodney Hampton on the ensuing play and DE Mike Flores recovered the fumble at the P35 to give Philly one last chance. The Birds, however, failed to produce a first down and NY earned its first sweep of the Eagles since 1987.

Philadelphia 17, Washington 14
RFK Stadium 46,663

The visiting Eagles halted their six-game losing skid in dramatic fashion by downing the Redskins, 17-14. After taking a 10-0 lead into the 4th qtr., the Birds gave up 14 points and set the stage for a fantastic finish. Bubba Brister's 2-yd TD pass to H-back James Joseph with 0:46 to play finished off a 12-play, 75-yard drive that gave the Birds only their 3rd victory in their last 13 games at RFK Stadium. The win also gave the Eagles their first season sweep of the Redskins since 1980. Philadelphia opened the scoring early on with a 22-yd Matt Bahr FG. In the 2nd qtr., with the 'Skins punting from their own end, upback Brian Mitchell attempted a pass to S Todd Bowles but reserve DB Otis Smith's first INT of the season set up Philly at the W27. Four plays later, RB Vaughn Hebron's 1-yd scamper put the Eagles up 10-0 and gave them their first double-digit lead since the opener. Meanwhile, the improving defense, bolstered by the waiver acquisition of DT William Perry three weeks earlier, held the 'Skins scoreless until 3:40 into the 4th qtr. when scrambling QB Rich Gannon threw a 17-yd TD pass to WR Tim McGee. After an Eagles' punt, a Redskins comeback was in the making as Gannon hit McGee for 54 yds to the P19. Moments later, his 6-yd pass to WR Art Monk gave the 'Skins a 14-10 lead. But with 5:33 remaining, Brister began a game-winning march that included 3 passes to WR Calvin Williams and a 16-yd dash by Hebron to the W2. Two plays later, Joseph's first TD of the season gave the Eagles the win. Key performers in the win were RB Herschel Walker, who was 10-103 receiving & 9-45 rushing, and a defense that recorded 5 sacks, including 2 by DE Mike Flores. In addition to the INT by Otis Smith, Gannon was picked off by LB William Thomas at the P12 and again by SS Wes Hopkins with 0:06 to play.

1993 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

Eagles' CB Eric Allen and MLB Britt Hager dropped INTs off QB Troy Aikman in Philly territory. Allen's miss was followed by an Aikman-to-Michael Irvin TD pass and Hager's by one of Eddie Murray's 3 FGs. Dallas was led by RB Emmitt Smith's 4th consecutive 100-yd rushing effort vs. the Birds (23-172) and by Aikman's 24-17-178-0-1TD passing. Dallas scored a TD and 3 FGs on its first four drives to take a 16-0 lead with 1:55 left until halftime. At that point, the Pokes had outgained Phila. 236-70. But QB Bubby Brister sparked the Eagles, with a 2-minute drill that set up a 25-yd Matt Bahr FG as time expired. One play prior to the FG, Brister hit WR Calvin Williams with a 17-yd pass on 4th-n-11 from the D39. In the 3rd qtr, the Eagles held Dallas to 18 yds on 4 series, the 2nd of which ended with a sack by DT Andy Harmon and DE Clyde Simmons. On that play, former Cowboy LB John Roper recovered Aikman's fumble on the D6. Two plays later, the first of Brister's 2 TD passes to TE Mark Bavaro cut the deficit to 6. The Eagles had a chance to add a 4th qtr. FG, but Bahr's 44-ydr was wide. On Dallas' next play, Smith raced 57 yds to the P16, setting up Daryl Johnston's 2-yd TD plunge. Undaunted, Brister led an 81-yd drive capped by a TD strike to Bavaro. Like the Eagles' 1st half FG march, this drive, was high-lighted by a 4th down Brister-to-Williams pass (to the D8). On Dallas' ensuing drive, Smith fumbled at the D44 but got the ball back. Dallas then punted, pinning the Birds at the 11 with :55 to play. Two plays later, Bill Bates' INT sealed the Cowboys' season sweep of Philly. Nonetheless, bright spots were present as the Birds had their first 300-yd effort in the 8 games since QB Randall Cunningham was sidelined by injury. Brister, bolstered by fine protection (0 sacks) posted a 45-27-248-2TD effort. Defensively, the Eagles followed up their 5-sack effort at Wash. with 4 more, including 2.5 by Harmon.

Buffalo 10, Philadelphia 7
Veterans Stadium 60,769

In a turnover-filled game, the defending and eventual AFC champion Bills overcame a 7-0 deficit by scoring all their points in the 4th qtr. en route to a 10-7 win. Philadelphia had a chance to tie on the game's final play but suffered their 8th loss in 9 games when Matt Bahr's 45-yd FG try was short. In fact, a cold, stiff wind played havoc with both Bahr (0-2 FGA) and Bills' K Steve Christie (1-4 FGA) all day. Eagles' KR Vai Sikahema fumbled the opening kickoff, setting up the Bills at the P25. Christie's FG try, however, went wide. Later in the qtr., Eagles' FS Wes Hopkins returned a fumble by QB Jim Kelly 8 yds to the B35 but Bahr hit the right upright on a 21-yd FG try. On the ensuing drive, Buffalo reached the P6 before CB Eric Allen intercepted a Kelly pass in the end zone. In all, the game remained scoreless until 5:17 to go in the 3rd qtr. when Brister hit WR Calvin Williams with a 19-yd TD pass. After Christie missed another FG, the Birds took a 7-0 lead into the 4th qtr. Philadelphia had a chance to pad its lead, reaching the B35 only to have RB Heath Sherman fumble. Buffalo QB Frank Reich (replacing Kelly, who sprained an ankle) then tied the score with a 2-yd TD pass to TE Pete Metzelaars. That march was aided by two 4th down conversions and a 15-yd personal foul penalty. On the ensuing kickoff, Sikahema again fumbled and the Bills took over at the P22 with 3:32 to go. The miscue proved costly as Christie drilled a 34-yd, go-ahead FG. But the Birds fought back as Brister passed them to the B28 with :04 remaining only to have Bahr's game-tying FG try fall short. Despite the loss, bright spots were evident as RB Herschel Walker hauled in a career-best 11 receptions and eclipsed the 100-yd plateau in rec. yds for the 2nd time in 3 weeks. Brister, too, had career highs in completions & atts. (28 & 48) while throwing for 299 yds. On defense, MLB Byron Evans (broken arm) returned after a 5-week absence and RLB William Thomas turned in another strong effort with a team-high 8 tkls. (including a sack), 2 passes knocked down, and a fumble recovery.

The Eagles snapped a 2-game losing skid, upped their record to 6-8, and kept their slim playoff chances alive with a 20-10 victory over the Colts at the Hoosier Dome in a game televised nationally by ESPN. Philly's defense notched 4 sacks vs. QB Jeff George, recovered 3 fumbles (2 of which came in Colts' territory and led to scores), and allowed just 31 rushing yards, their fewest surrendered since 12/8/91 when they gave up just 21 at Houston. QB Bubby Brister led the way with a solid 39-21-217-1-1TD passing effort and WR Calvin Williams was 6-105-1TD for his 2nd 100-yd receiving day of the year. RB Herschel Walker contributed a very big effort with 108 yds of offense (18-79 rushing, 6-29 receiving) and a tackle on special teams. On the other side of the ball, LB William Thomas, DT William Perry, DT Keith Millard, and DT Andy Harmon each recorded a sack. On Perry's sack, a fumble by George was recovered by Thomas at the 114. One play later, Brister's strike to Williams put the Birds up 17-3 early in the 3rd qtr. Philadelphia had taken a 10-0 lead in the 1st qtr. on a Roger Ruzek FG and a 1-yd run by RB Heath Sherman, the Birds' first TD in the opening stanza since game 1. Late in the 4th qtr., a Colts' INT set up Indy at the E49 and George soon fired a 24-yd TD pass to Reggie Langhorne, trimming the Eagles' lead to 20-10. But when the ensuing onside kick try by the Colts failed, Walker & Sherman churned out 3 first downs to run out the clock.

The Eagles kept alive their playoff chances as they overcame a 9-0 deficit to down the visiting Saints, 37-26, and improve their record to 7-8. QB Bubby Brister led the Birds with 3 TD passes and CB Eric Allen earned a place in NFL history with 2 INT returns for TDs. Morten Andersen gave N.O. a lead with three 1st qtr. FGs, including a 56-ydr, the longest ever vs. the Birds and longest ever at Veterans Stadium. Then, with 10:43 to go in the 2nd qtr, LB William Thomas sacked Saints' QB Mike Buck in the end zone and forced a fumble that resulted in a safety. On the Birds' ensuing possession, Brister fired a 49-yd TD pass to WR Michael Young. After Saints' RB Derek Brown fumbled at the N.O. 40, Brister hit RB Herschel Walker on an 11-yd swing pass to put the Eagles in front for good. After a 37-yd Andersen FG, the Birds answered with a 2-minute drill and a 46-yd FG. In the 3rd qtr., Steve Walsh, on in place of Buck, was INT'd by Allen, who went 33 yds down the sideline for a TD and a 24-12 lead. The Saints rebounded as Walsh's 52-yd catch-n-run to WR Floyd Turner set up a Brad Muster TD run. But the next Eagle possession, led by the passing of Brister and running of Walker and James Joseph, chewed up 82 yds and 9:22. A 6-yd TD toss from Brister to TE Mark Bavaro capped the Birds' longest march of the year in terms of plays & time of possession. Allen then struck again on the Saints' next possession, returning an INT off Walsh 25 yds for his 2nd TD of the day and a 9:19 lead. For Allen, the 2-INT, 2-TD performance enabled him to join the Oilers' Ken Houston (1971) and Chiefs' Jim Kearney (1972) as the only men in NFL history to return 4 INTs for TDs in a season. The Saints' Tyrone Hughes finished the scoring with an 83-yd punt return for a TD with 2:21 to play but it was too little, too late. The Eagles' 37 points were a season high and their 314 yds of offense made it 4 straight games over the 300-yd mark.

Game 16, Mon., Jan. 3 Philadelphia 37, S.F. 49ers 34 (OT) Candlestick Park 61,653

Although their playoff hopes were doused three days earlier when Minnesota defeated Washington, the Eagles won their season finale, beating the play-off-bound 49ers, 37-34, in overtime of a Monday night game at San Francisco. Roger Ruzek's 28-yd FG with 0:00 left in the OT pushed the injury-plagued Birds to the .500 (8-8) mark for the season. The Eagles came out flying and put together their finest 1st half of the season. After Ruzek's 34-yd FG put the Birds up 3-0, LB William Thomas sacked SF's Steve Young and forced a fumble that MLB Byron Evans returned 30 yds for a TD and a 10-0 lead. SF's Mike Cofer cut into that lead with a FG, but the Eagles did not flinch as QB Bubby Brister hit WR Calvin Williams from 13 yds out to up their lead to 17-3. For Williams, it was his career-high 10th TD of the season. When the Birds regained possession, Brister made it 24-3 with an 8-yd strike to WR Michael Young. 49ers' WR Jerry Rice closed the half with a 3-yd TD pass from Steve Young. The 24-point 1st half was the Eagles best of the year. But the Niners roared back in the 3rd stanza with scores by RB Ricky Watters and WR John Taylor to tie the game at 24-24. Evans then made his 2nd big play - an INT off of back-up QB Steve Bono. Two plays later, Brister's short pass to RB Herschel Walker resulted in a 21-yd TD that gave Philly the lead again. On the ensuing SF drive, Evans forced a fumble by TE Brent Jones that gave the Birds the ball at the SF40. Soon, another FG stretched the Eagles' lead to 10. But Bono's QB sneak with 4:41 remaining in the 4th qtr. narrowed the gap. Moments later, punter Jeff Feagles seemingly sealed the game by pinning SF at its own 3. Bono, however, marched SF 86 yds to Cofer's game-tying, 29-yd FG with 0:15 remaining. The Niners won the toss in OT and drove to the P14 where Cofer missed a 32-yd FG. After trading punts, the Eagles took over at their 22. Brister then lofted a 32-yd strike to WR James Lofton for a first down in SF territory with less than 4:00 to play in OT. (For Lofton, the play enabled him to become the first player in NFL history to top 14,000 receiving yds). After reaching the SF21, Ruzek's 38-yd attempt to win the game sailed wide left as time expired, but 49ers' S Merton Hanks was flagged for roughing the kicker. Ruzek then redeemed himself with the game-winning boot. Besides Evans and Brister, other heroes were DT Andy Harmon, who registered a career-high 3 sacks, and RB James Joseph, who had his finest day ever by going 6-109 receiving and 13-51 rushing.

THE EAGLES' STORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbets' field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 — Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park. Team finishes with overall record of 10-2-1.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers".

Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America center-linebacker Chuck Bednarik is a first round draft choice.

1950 — Eagles win third straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Team finishes with overall record of 12-1.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach after a 6-6 season in 1950. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich replaces Buck Shaw as head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and falls to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark. Bergey wins All-NFC and Pro Bowl recognition.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl. The Birds show improvement on the field but earn only one more victory than the previous year.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team.

After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks and is the catalyst for the team's improved play. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL quarterbacks). Mike Quick is selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight year.

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota. Mike Quick, who catches 71 passes to break his own club season record, and Wes Hopkins represent Philadelphia in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 — The Eagles' 1988 highlight film was appropriately titled "Living on the Edge," as the Birds took a number of games down to the wire en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. Under third-year head coach Buddy Ryan, the Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that N.Y. Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to improve their regular season record to 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on December 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from participating. He was joined by Reggie White, Eric Allen (who led the NFC in interceptions with 8), and Jackson.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). On the other side of the ball the defense led the NFL in stopping the run (1,169), thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. On January 8, 1991, owner Norman Braman announced that Ryan would not be offered a new contract. On the same day, he elevated Kotite to the head coaching position noting that it was time for the Eagles "to reach the next plateau." Under Kotite, QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes, 942 rushing yards, and a selection to the Pro Bowl while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. TE Keith Jackson, DE Reggie White, and DT Jerome Brown also earned Pro Bowl berths but RB Keith Byars, who tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes, was overlooked.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite to the vacant position, thus making him the 18th head coach in club history. When the season began, the Eagles opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost quarterback Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. But after coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined for nearly three straight games, the Birds suffered through a four-game losing streak. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. And while a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's remarkable run for the playoffs, the Birds finished the season with a stirring come-from-behind, 24-22 victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Redskins. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles finished third in the NFC East behind Washington and Dallas and joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10-or-more wins in each of the last four years. And despite missing the playoffs for the first time in four years, Philadelphia proved to be one of the NFL's hottest clubs, winning seven of its last eight games. Said Brame of Kotite's ability to rally the Birds in the second half of the season despite all the injuries at quarterback, "Richie has been a great leader. He kept the team together when everybody had written us off." Another catalyst during this stretch run was a defensive unit that finished the season ranked number one in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in quarterback sacks and fumble recoveries, and tied New Orleans for the league lead in overall takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl - DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl. The offense was led by WR Fred Barnett (62-948-4TDs receiving), multi-talented RB Keith Byars (62 receptions and 383 rushing yards), and QBs Jim McMahon and Jeff Kemp. McMahon was 8-3 as a starter after taking over for Cunningham; Kemp came on in relief of an injured McMahon three times and twice led the Birds to comeback victories while also compiling a 1-1 mark as a starter in the final two games.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt the cruelest of blows before the '92 season even began when all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. A team that had gone through five different quarterbacks in the first eight games of '91 again began the season facing adversity. The Birds, however, got out of the blocks quickly in their second season under head coach Rich Kotite, as they opened with 4 straight wins. Keys to that success were Walker, who topped the 100-yard rushing mark in each of the first two games and Cunningham, the NFC's offensive player of the month for September. Midway through the season, however, the offense struggled and the defense suffered several key injuries, particularly to starting safeties Andre Waters, who broke his leg in game five, and Wes Hopkins, who was bothered by a recurring knee injury for most of the season's second half. Despite these obstacles, the Birds finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 regular season record. In addition, the team returned to the playoffs after a one-year absence and earned a Wild Card victory over the Saints in New Orleans before dropping the Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became only the fourth Eagle ever to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson did it in '85. While the defense slipped from its '91 number one ranking across the board, DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons and CB Eric Allen each earned Pro Bowl berths as did WR Fred Barnett. Off the field in '93, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, lawyers for the NFL and the Players Association reached agreement on a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a seven-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles' injury-riddled, roller-coaster 1993 campaign produced an 8-8 record. Despite injuries to key personnel throughout the season, head coach Rich Kotite kept his troops playing hard right through their overtime victory over the playoff-bound 49ers at San Francisco in the season finale. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, Pro Bowl WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak. Despite suffering their worst skid since 1983, the resilient Eagles bounced back behind the fine play of backup QB Bubby Brister to win 4 of their final 6 contests — a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season. Despite having been dealt the league's most difficult schedule (in terms of opponent's '92 records), and despite the rash of injuries, the Eagles were in nearly every game, including the three against the Super Bowl XXVII foes - Dallas twice and Buffalo once - in which they had opportunities to win in the final quarter. The Birds were represented at the Pro Bowl in Hawaii by CB Eric Allen and LB Seth Joyner.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES HONOR ROLL

(sponsored by Mellon PSFS)

In 1987, the "Philadelphia Eagles Honor Roll" was created in order to pay tribute to outstanding members of the organization. Automatically included at the inception of the Honor Roll were the *11 members of the Hall of Fame who played all or part of their NFL careers with the Eagles. From 1987 through 1993, additional inductees were honored in each season.

EAGLES ON FOREIGN SOIL

During their history, the Eagles have played four preseason games outside of the United States, compiling a 1-3 record along the way. The Eagles' three most recent ventures abroad were as participants in the NFL's American Bowl series, a series that has included games in London, Berlin, and Tokyo. In 1989, Philadelphia opened its preseason with a victory over Cleveland in the fourth annual American Bowl in London, England. The Birds returned to London's Wembley Stadium two years later for the sixth American Bowl in Great Britain and fell to the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills in the preseason opener for both clubs. The results of the Eagles' games on foreign soil are as follows:

Aug. 5, 1978 vs. New Orleans...L	7-14..Mexico City (Estadio Olimpico)
Aug. 6, 1989 vs. Cleveland.....W	17-13..London, England (Wembley Stadium)
July 28, 1991 vs. Buffalo.....L	13-17..London, England (Wembley Stadium)
Aug. 1, 1993 vs. New Orleans...L	28-16..Tokyo, Japan (Tokyo Dome)

EAGLES' CHAMPIONSHIP GAME REVIEW

1947 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME Chicago 28, Eagles 21 December 28, 1947 at Comiskey Park

A frozen field in Comiskey Park did not prevent an offensive game as the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 in their first NFL championship playoff. The Cardinals' Elmer Angsman set a record by rushing for 159 yards in 10 carries, scoring twice on 70-yard runs. Philadelphia's Tommy Thompson set a record for pass completions (27-44-297-1TD) and returned a punt 75 yards for another TD. The Cardinals' Charlie Trippi also scored 2 TDs on a 44-yard run from scrimmage and a 75-yard punt return. Steve Van Buren, the NFL's leading ground gainer with 945 yards during the season, gained only 26 yards on 18 carries due to the slippery conditions.

The Cardinals, who had started the game wearing basketball shoes, had a 7-0 lead after Trippi's 44 yard TD run with 8:38 left in the first quarter. The Eagles themselves changed to sneakers after being penalized for illegal equipment, but trailed 14-0 before scoring on Thompson's pass to William (Pat) McHugh, who caught a 36-yard pass on Chicago's 17 and completed a 53-yard play.

Philadelphia never got closer than a touchdown as the Cardinals held leads of 21-7 and 28-14 in the second half. The Birds did lead 357-336 in total offense, partly because Paul Christman of the Cardinals completed only 3 of 14 passes for 54 yards as the Eagles eight-man defensive line succeeded in pressuring Christman into hurried passes.

1948 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME Eagles 7, Chicago 0 December 19, 1948 at Shibe Park

After many years of waiting, the Philadelphia Eagles finally won the National Football League championship. Playing in a driving snowstorm at Shibe Park, Coach Greasy Neale's team triumphed over the champion Chicago Cardinals 7-0.

A protective tarpaulin was not removed from the playing field in Shibe Park until 30 minutes before the kickoff but snow blanketed the entire field by game time.

Of the 36,309 persons who bought tickets and assured a sellout, a total of 28,864 braved the storm with the temperature below the freezing mark to watch the title game, which began a half hour later than scheduled because the snow made removal of the tarpaulin a difficult operation. The sidelines were marked by ropes tied to stakes and conditions were so adverse that NFL commissioner Bert Bell decreed that while the 10-yard first-down chain would be used, there would be no measuring; referee Ron Gibbs would be the final judge of all first downs. The Eagles started the game's only touchdown drive near the conclusion of the third quarter when the Cardinals' Elmer Angstrom fumbled a handoff from Ray Malouf that Eagles' lineman, Frank (Bucko) Kilroy, recovered on the Cards' 17. Three plays into the fourth quarter, Steve Van Buren scored on a five-yard run and Cliff Patton kicked the PAT. Van Buren had pounded out 98 yards in 26 carries. Bosh Pritchard rushed for 67 yards and Thompson ran mainly up the middle for 50 yards. The rugged weather conditions made it almost impossible to complete passes. Thompson was 2 out of 12 for 7 yards while Malouf threw 3 of 8 for 35 yards. Kicking was just as difficult; Patton attempted 3 field goals but made none while Pat Harder of the Cardinals bobbled his only attempt.

1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
Eagles 14, Los Angeles 0
Dec. 18, 1949 at LA Memorial Coliseum

The Philadelphia Eagles, in the NFL title game for the third consecutive year, defeated the Los Angeles Rams 14-0 as halfback Steve Van Buren set records with 31 carries and 196 yards gained. Van Buren achieved the record after a storm, that began 24 hours before kickoff, dropped almost two inches of rain on the muddy Los Angeles Coliseum field. A crowd of more than 60,000, which would have set a playoff record, was expected before the storm but only 22,245 attended the game.

With all-pro Van Buren carrying the ball, the Eagles were able to control possession for 70 plays on 274 rushing yards. The Rams rushed for only 21 yards and did not advance the ball further than the Eagles' 26-yard line. The Birds scored their first TD in the second quarter on a 31-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Thompson to Pete Pihos. The Eagles' other score came in the third quarter as defensive end Leo Skladany blocked Bob Waterfield's punt from the 5-yard line. The snap of the ball was high and Waterfield had no chance to get the kick away. Skladany picked up the bouncing ball on the 2-yard line and scored.

The victory marked the Eagles second straight shutout in the NFL title game, climaxing the rise that began when Earle (Greasy) Neale was hired as coach in 1941.

1960 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME
Eagles 17, Green Bay 13
December 26, 1960 at Franklin Field

The Philadelphia Eagles overcame leads of 6-0 and 13-10 by the Green Bay Packers to score a 17-13 victory for their first NFL championship in 11 years. Bill Quinlan intercepted Norm Van Brocklin's pass on the first play of the game and Eagles' rookie Ted Dean fumbled on the Birds second possession. Five plays later the Packers' Paul Hornung kicked a 20-yard field goal. Another Hornung field goal increased Green Bay's lead to 6-0 in the second quarter before Philadelphia got on the scoreboard with a two-play, 57-yard drive. Van Brocklin passed 22 yards to Tommy McDonald, then teamed with McDonald on a 35-yard TD pass.

A Bobby Walston field goal for Philadelphia made it 10-6 at the half, but Green Bay took a 13-10 lead in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter. Bart Starr's seven-yard pass to Max McGee marked the Packers' only touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Dean returned the ball 58 yards to the Packers' 39. Dean then completed the drive with a 5-yard TD run. Chuck Bednarik endured 58 minutes of the contest — playing center on offense and linebacker on defense.

1980 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 20, Dallas 7

January 11, 1980 at Veterans Stadium

With only two healthy wide receivers and a passing game that was hampered by frigid temperatures and blustery winds, the Eagles rode a tremendous defensive effort and Wilbert Montgomery's 194-yard rushing performance to the NFC title. The Birds never trailed after Montgomery's 42-yard scoring burst early in the first period, although Dallas managed a 7-7 tie at halftime after their only long drive of the day in the middle of the second period. The Eagles continued to dominate after intermission as fullback Leroy Harris (10 carries, 60 yards) complemented Montgomery's effort. Dallas managed only 202 yards of total offense and 11 first downs to the Eagles 340 yards and 19 first downs.

SUPER BOWL XV

Oakland 27, Eagles 10

Jan. 25, 1981 at New Orleans Superdome

The Eagles' first Super Bowl appearance was a disappointing one as they fell behind early and could never play the type of football that had made them champions of the National Football Conference. Behind quarterback Jim Plunkett, the game's MVP, the Raiders jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first period. The first score, a two-yard pass from Plunkett to Cliff Branch, was set up by an Oakland interception and return to the Eagles' 30-yard line with less than two minutes elapsed in the opening period. Plunkett followed late in the period with an 80-yard scoring pass to running back Kenny King. The Eagles trailed by 14-3 at halftime and by 24-3 after three periods before Keith Krepfle scored the only Philadelphia touchdown on an 8-yard pass reception from Ron Jaworski. A first period apparent touchdown toss of 40 yards from Jaworski to Rodney Parker was nullified by an illegal motion penalty against the Eagles. That score, if it had stood, would have made the score 7-7 at the time and might have gotten the Eagles untracked.

Veterans Stadium

The Eagles have called Veterans Stadium home since 1971 after previous stops at Municipal (JFK) Stadium, Connie Mack Stadium, and Franklin Field. In their history, the Birds have also played home games at the Baker Bowl, Temple University Stadium, and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field during the 1943 season.

Veterans Stadium, known as "the Vet," is one of the finest multi-purpose sports facilities in the country. Built on a 74-acre site in South Philadelphia, the sports complex also includes a recreational park, the Spectrum indoor arena, home of the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers, and the future Spectrum II, to be built at the former site of JFK Stadium.

The Vet, which opened before the Phillies' 1971 baseball season, was built at a cost in excess of $50 million. The Eagles, 76ers, and Phillies maintain their executive offices in the stadium.

In 1986, the Eagles installed two grass practice fields in the north parking lot of the Vet. In 1992, "the Bubble," an inclement weather facility, was moved from the former JFK Stadium site to adjacent to the grass practice fields. The Bubble consists of a synthetic roof supported by currents of air and covers a 70-yard Astro Turf field. It was installed by Air Structures International, Inc.

In 1985, 27 luxurious Penthouse Suites were built atop the south side of the stadium. Twenty-four more Suites were constructed the following year on the north side. Thirty-eight additional Suites on the west side were constructed in 1987 to bring the total number of Suites to 89.

The first Eagles' game at the Vet took place on August 16, 1971, when they defeated the Buffalo Bills in a preseason encounter, 34-28. The first regular season win came at the expense of the New York Giants, 23-7, on October 7, 1971.

In 23 seasons at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles have compiled an 95-83-2 record (including a 3-3 playoff mark). The seating capacity for football is 64,241, and the field is Astro Turf-8, installed in March of 1988. The new state-of-the-art synthetic turf features a vertical drainage system whereby water will drain through holes in the turf, its padding, and the stone and earth sub-base.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by one club to other NFL clubs. During this procedure, a club may make a claim to obtain the player or "waive" its right to do so—thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based upon the inverse of won-loss standings. The claiming period is normally ten days during the offseason and 24 hours from July 5, through December 23. In some circumstances, another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as a withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers from July 6 through December 24 they are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 12, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is a status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for preseason, regular season, and postseason games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with 80 players but thereafter must meet a series of mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted to dress a minimum of 42 and a maximum of 45 players and a third quarterback for each regular season game and postseason game during the 1994 season. In addition, each club will have an Inactive List of 8 players. For Active List maximums and dates for 1994, see ROSTER LIMITS below.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is the principle status for players who, for reason of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Reserve/Injured that have been placed on the list prior to the final 53-man roster may not return to the active list that season and are not permitted to practice. For the second consecutive season, any player placed on the Injured Reserve List after the 53-man roster has been set also will not be eligible to play for the remainder of the season. This is different from previous years when a player would be eligible to return after a minimum of six weeks missed.

ROSTER LIMITS: No more than 80 players can be under signed contract from June 1-August 22. Rosters must be cut to 60 active players by 4:00 p.m. on August 23 (Tuesday after 3rd preseason weekend). Rosters must be cut to 53 active players by 4:00 p.m. on August 28. Clubs will be permitted to dress 45 players for each regular season game (plus a third quarterback, if desired). Each team must designate a four man inactive squad by Friday at 7:00 p.m. Additionally, the club will then designate 4 more players to their inactive list for that game no later than 1:15 minutes prior to kickoff.

PRACTICE SQUADS: On August 29, each club may establish a Practice Squad of no more than five players by signing free agents who do not have a season of free agency credit. This squad includes only rookies and/or first-year players (those whose NFL experience is limited to previous training camp or less than three active games).

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed in 1994 between clubs through October 11 (Tuesday following the sixth regular season weekend), after which trading of the player contract/rights will end until mid-February, 1995.

Office Night Line .....	215-463-0984	Training Camp Dorm.....	610-701-3800
Facsimile Machine .....	215-339-5464
Media Information Line .....	215-339-6786

Media headquarters at Training Camp: Sanderson Hall, West Chester University, West Chester, PA 19383

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: News media representatives who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in advance by writing or calling the Eagles' public relations department, 3501 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148-5201 (Phone: 215-463-2500). Credentials reserved in advance can be picked up at the Press Gate/Security Entrance below Gate B off Pattison Ave. (not the Will Call Window) three hours before the scheduled kickoff. Media members who regularly cover the visiting team should arrange to acquire their credentials through that team's PR department.

PRESS BOXES: The Eagles maintain three press boxes, designated A, B, and C, on the fourth level of Veterans Stadium. Admission to the press area is strictly limited to those individuals holding credentials issued by the Eagles' public relations department. No other media identification cards will be honored. All news media should enter the stadium through the press gate (Pattison Ave. side of the Stadium). Those with credentials for the press box should take the elevator to the fourth level.

TELEPHONES: Game day telephones at an assigned seat can be ordered by calling Bell telephone at 800-528-1800 (inside Pennsylvania) or 215-590-6000 (outside Pennsylvania). Instruments can be ordered by calling Brent Sagita at Infocore at 215-768-5231.

TELEVISION AND RADIO: Network television and visiting radio facilities are located on the 4th level between press boxes A and B. Visiting radio credentials will be issued through the visiting team's PR representative. Television announcers may do stand-ups on the field in pregame, half-time, during the last three minutes of play, and post game. Television "announcers" and producers are not allowed on the sidelines except during these aforementioned periods.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials for field photographers are issued by the Eagles' public relations department only. Space limitations make it impossible to accredit free lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication. Photographers should enter the press gate (B) and take the elevator to the first (field) level. Space on the fourth level photo deck is extremely limited and available only on a reserved basis. All field photographers are reminded that they must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms after a game is controlled by each team. There is absolutely no admission to the locker room before or during a game. The Eagles' head coach and quarterback will meet with the media in an interview room across the hall from the Eagles' locker room. During the regular season the locker room is normally open to the media on Monday and Saturday for 45 minutes after practice and on Wednesday through Friday from 11:00 a.m.-12 noon. This schedule is subject to change, however.

PRESS CLUB: Admittance to the Press Club before, during, and after the game is limited to working media and Eagles' staff holding appropriate credentials.

DIRECTIONS FROM AIRPORT TO VET STADIUM: Take I-95 north for approximately 6 miles to Broad Street exit. Go straight on Broad for two lights. The stadium is located at the intersection of Broad and Pattison Ave. NOTE: Eagles' practice fields are located in the north parking lot of the stadium....The entrance to the stadium's VIP parking lot is off of Broad Street.

EAGLES' RADIO NETWORK

Entering its third season as the flagship station of the Eagles' radio network is WYSP/94.1 FM, an Infinity Broadcasting station. Merrill Reese will call the play-by-play for the 18th straight season while former Eagles' all-pro tackle Stan Walters enters his 11th consecutive season as the color commentator on Eagles' broadcasts. Eagles' games can be heard in three states on these affiliated stations:

EAGLES PRESEASON TELECASTS

For the second consecutive season, the television rights to all four of the Eagles' 1994 preseason games is owned by WTXF-TV 29. Carl Cherkin will provide the play-by-play while former Eagles tight end and current college football analyst John Spagnola provides the color commentary.

The home games (vs. the New York Jets on Aug. 13 and vs. the Cincinnati Bengals on Aug. 20) will be aired live in the Philadelphia area only if the game is sold out 72 hours prior to kickoff. If not sold out in time, it will be shown on a tape delay basis. The remaining two preseason games (at Chicago on Aug. 5, at Atlanta on Aug. 26) will be televised live locally by WTXF.
